Norm Duke & Chris Paul Are Victorious in the CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational Doubles Title

Houston Rockets star wins second consecutive title in multi-event extravaganza benefiting Paul’s CP3 Family Foundation

THE WOODLANDS, TX – With the help of PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke, Houston Rockets All-Star guard Chris Paul won his second consecutive and fourth overall doubles title in the State Farm® CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational presented by GoBowling! in a special televised Sunday on ESPN from The Woodlands in the suburban Houston.

In the featured event of the ninth annual invitational event involving PBA stars and celebrity bowlers benefiting Paul’s CP3 Family Foundation, Paul teamed with Duke for an error-free, 10 strike performance in the alternate-frame doubles format championship match to beat eight-time PBA Tour titlist Bill O’Neill and Boston Red Sox All-Star outfielder Mookie Betts, 259, 226, in the title match.

Paul and Duke combined for the first six strikes in the match which ultimately proved too much for the O’Neill/Betts team to overcome. In the ninth frame, Paul saved up the win by picking up the challenging 4-5 split in front of an enthusiastic sold out crowd at Bowlero The Woodlands.

“I’ve been blessed to have some great partners over the years and Norm certainly showed why he’s a Hall of Famer,” said Paul, who won last year’s event with PBA Hall of Famer Chris Barnes. “It was up to me to stay there with him and keep the momentum going. Bowling’s like every other sport where, when you get that momentum early, you want to keep it. If you do, good things are going to happen.”

Paul on doubles titles back-to-back in 2010 and 2011 with four-time PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte. For Duke, it was his first CP3 Celebrity Invitational win.

“Going into the finals I felt like we were the underdogs,” said Duke. “Mookie is a talented player and Bill is one of the best in the land right now so we knew we were going to have our work cut out for us.

“We got through the semifinal match in good shape but right before practice for the title match Chris was kind of lost and asked me ‘What should I do?’ Chris is a guy who likes to play the inside part of the lane and hook the ball, but I suggested he try playing outside where I was playing and, sure enough, he made it work. We just started striking and we were on our way.”

“I don’t want to underestimate how big that 4-5 split conversion was,” Duke added. “At that point the match still could have gone either way if he had missed, but that was a great shot.”

In the five-frame semifinal matches, the Duke/Paul team beat 2016 PBA Player of the Year EJ Tackett and Paul’s Rockets teammate, James Harden, 109-90, and the Betts/O’Neill team beat 2016 winners, newly-elected Pro Football Hall of Famer Terrell Owens and PBA Hall of Famer Pete Samuels.

Weber, 130-73, to advance to the final match.

Sunday’s telecast also featured a one-game Baker format team match with two-time PBA Tour winner DJ Archer of Houston, Paul, Harden, fellow Texan Dino Castillo and Rockets forward Trevor Ariza making up the Houston Strong team against 12-time Tour winner Sean Rash, Betts, Owens and 2017 Teen Masters representatives Hannah Diem of Seminole, Fla., and Logan Harvey of Titusville, Fla., making up the Bowlero All-Stars team. The Bowlero All-Stars overcame an open in the second frame to soundly defeat a struggling Houston Strong team, 215-158.

In the third event of the telecast all of the participating celebrities, including actor/comedian Oscar Nunez and Rockets guard Bobby Brown, took part in the Go Bowling! Celebrity Super Clash sudden-death shoot out where the low score in each frame was eliminated. It came down to a duel against Owens and Ariza in the eighth frame with Owens striking to win against Ariza’s eight count.

THE HOUSING MARKET IS MOVING FAST - DON'T GET LEFT BEHIND BUYING OR SELLING Give me a call to get the Ball Rolling!
INDIANAPOLIS – Every time Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis hosts a new Professional Bowlers Association tournament, it adds another chapter to its remarkable history as bowling’s most versatile host bowling center, and it isn’t just prize money and a title that attracts bowlers from around the world.

A lesser-known reality for Woodland Bowl’s PBA champions is that they earn a banner for permanent display in the center’s “Beer Thirty” lounge, an unusual “hall of fame” that commemorates an elite group of bowlers who have won titles in the only bowling center in the world that has hosted every different PBA major championship over the years, in addition to a number of other significant non-professional tournaments. There are currently 40 banners hanging in “Beer Thirty,” including 38 representing players who have won titles at Woodland, plus one for PBA legend and Indianapolis native Dick Weber, and another for PBA veteran Ryan Shafer, celebrating a 300 game he rolled at the center.

Beer Thirty got its name because it offers 30 different kinds of beer, according to General Manager Jim Doty, and “because it’s time for a beer at 5 o’clock somewhere…”

The newest banner winner could be the GoBowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic champion, if that player has not previously won at Woodland. The tournament will be part of a week celebrating PBA’s first 60 years, and it has attracted a world-class field.

Among the players already entered, in addition to international bowlers from 17 different countries, are three PBA Tour winners from Indiana who would very much like to add their own banners to the Beer Thirty lounge collection: 25-year-old nine-time PBA Tour winner EJ Tackett of Huntington who also is one of five bowlers who have both PBA Rookie of the Year (2013) and Player of the Year (2016) honors; 38-year-old four-time PBA titlist Ronnie Russell of Marion, and 2017 PBA Rookie of the Year Matt Sanders, an Evansville native now living in Indianapolis. Sanders won his first PBA Tour title during his rookie season.

The new PBA tournament, which is part of the Go Bowling! PBA Tour schedule in 2018, is open to all PBA members. That will include players who have bowled in events hosted by Woodland Bowl ever since it opened, and others who have never set foot in the iconic center. The 60th Anniversary Classic will begin on Tuesday, Feb. 13, and conclude on Sunday, Feb. 18, when ESPN will televise the stepladder finals live at 10 a.m.

Among the players already entered in the Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic are PBA Hall of Famers Parker Bohn III, Norm Duke, 70-year-old Johnny Petraglia, 84-year-old Carmen Salvino and PBA’s all-time titles leader, Walter Ray Williams Jr., plus Chris Barnes and Ron Mohr, who will join the Hall of Fame at week’s end.

As part of the festive week, the PBA’s 60th Anniversary Celebration Dinner will include its 2018 PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Marriott North in Indianapolis. The late Don Mitchell, the founder of the Royal Pin Leisure Centers chain that includes Woodland Bowl, will be inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame along with Barnes, an 18-time PBA Tour champion from Double Oak, Texas, and Mohr, a PBA50 Tour star from Las Vegas.

Earlier Saturday, the PBA will hold its 2018 PBA League Draft at Woodland Bowl where the eight team managers will select two players each to complete their rosters for the PBA League Elias Cup competition in Portland, Maine, in April.

“We’re honored to have Woodland Bowl chosen to host this very meaningful event,” said Doty, Royal Pin Entertainment’s General Manager. “Our long association with the Professional Bowlers Association has been a labor of love that brings back memories of past events that include many hall of fame members who have competed at Woodland Bowl.”

Admission tickets for the GoBowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic can be purchased in advance online (https://www.eventbrite.com/e/go-bowling-pba-60th-anniversary-classic-tickets-37388770820) or at the door. To purchase tickets for the PBA 60th Anniversary Celebration Dinner, visit: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/go-bowling-pba-60th-anniversary-classic-tickets-37388770820#tickets.

All qualifying and match play rounds of the PBA 60th Anniversary Classic, plus the entire PBA 60th Anniversary Celebration Dinner and hall of fame inductions, plus the PBA League Draft, will be live streamed by PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. To subscribe to Xtra Frame, visit xtraframe.tv. Three-day, 30-day and 12-month subscription packages are available.
What’s Up For 2018? KARNAK Predicts

by Frank Weiler

CUCAMONGA – Johnny Carson always consulted with KARNAK “The Magnificent” when he wanted predictions for the future. I decided to do the same to find out what is in store for the sport of BOWLING in 2018.

I heard that KARNAK once lived in Cucamonga, California so I decided to go there when “channeling” his spirit for help. Channeling is a lost art these days but I know enough about it to realize that the closer you can get to a spirits earthly haunts the better your chances for success.

So let’s get started with the good news.

KARNAK says:

1. The PBA (Professional Bowlers Association) will continue to introduce new and innovative formats and concepts that will increase its’ popularity. Syracuse’s own TONY PRADET will be the marketing genius, will introduce some new wrinkles for television to get young fans INVOLVED. Future telecasts will feature appearances by pre-teen competitors in three frame roll-offs. Kid’s nationwide will be able to apply for television spots.

Another innovation will involve a new format for determining a tournament champion. To allow for more bowlers to appear on television the PBA will introduce the new “Triple Tric” format. Three trios start the television show bowling one game with each trio top scorer moving on. The trio of winners bowl in the semi-final game with the high scorer moving on to face the tournament high qualifier for the title. This format will allow for ten bowlers to compete on television for a title, nine trio contenders and the top qualifier. A great way to get television exposure for more faces, new faces and familiar faces.

2. The bowling industry will unite to introduce the first Bowling Television Network (BTN). This will allow our sport to enjoy greater exposure then currently experienced on Xtra-Frame. Imagine being able to watch bowling on the boob tube 24/7. The network could sustain itself with mining a tournament champion. To allow for more bowlers to appear on television the PBA will introduce the new “Triple Tric” format. Three trios start the television show bowling one game with each trio top scorer moving on. The trio of winners bowl in the semi-final game with the high scorer moving on to face the tournament high qualifier for the title. This format will allow for ten bowlers to compete on television for a title, nine trio contenders and the top qualifier. A great way to get television exposure for more faces, new faces and familiar faces.

3. The PWBA (Professional Women’s Bowling Association) will partner with a major corporation to allow for additional tournaments, larger prize funds and expanded television coverage. Finally, our women professionals will garner the support of a major company of women’s products. It is long overdue for a product line from Avon, will garner the support of a major company of women’s television coverage. Finally, our women professionals will garner the support of a major company of women’s television coverage.

4. The USBC (United States Bowling Congress) will develop a 900 score tie breaker. Anyone rolling a certified 900 three game series will be given the opportunity to continue bowling and see how many more strikes he/she can roll. The bowler with the most consecutive strikes after the first 36 will be the all-time scoring leader.

Bowling needs a record holder. Hall of Fame writer DICK EVANS made this proposal a decade ago and it needs a visionary to make it happen. That visionary is CHAD MURPHY. As USBC Executive Director he will appoint a committee to study ways to make the non-bowling public more aware of our sport. Among other things, the committee will recommend for a 900 score tie breaker and Chad Murphy will act to implement the committee’s recommendation.

5. What about bowling balls? MOTIV will revolutionize the sport of bowling. The “scientists” of MOTIV will develop a new cover stock and weight block that will make their “TRUE” ball perform like no other. The ball will perform on short and long oil. The ball will “carry” every good shot. However, the ball will not be forgiving. If you make a bad shot you will get bad results. The ball will not reward a bowler for a bad shot. You will get what you deserve with the new “TRUE” ball. The “TRUE” ball will be reliable, consistent and “true”. Best of all this new ball will never crack!

When it comes to individual accomplishments KARNAK says:

PBA Bowler of the Year will be: Jesper Svenson
PWBA Bowler of the Year will be: Kelly Kulick
PBA 50 Bowler of the Year will be: Walter Ray Williams Jr.
Female Fan Favorite of the year: Lynda Barnes
Male Fan Favorite of the year: Parker Bohn III
Top Story of the year: Liz Kuhlkin becomes first woman to bowl 900. No surprise here. Keep your eyes on the headlines. You may be surprised by how accurate KARNAK is.

What was your average in 1979?? What kind of ball did you use?

• 48 year old GLENN ALLISON was inducted into the ABC Hall of Fame along with CAR-MEN SAVINO.

• GUPPY TROUP got his nick name for his days bowling in a “Guppy League”.

• FOY BELCHER ran the “School of Bowling”, complete with color slides. He was assisted by RON WINGER.

• DONNA ADAMEK (21) was named “Bowler of the Year” by Bowling Writers.

• 29 lanes were added to the SHOWBOAT, making the monster 106 lanes strong.

• A.B.T.A. man BOB SMITH was sporting a big, black, bushy moustache.

• BOB LOMAX popped a 300 game at ROWLAND BOWL. He always had to bowl others people’s tournaments. Winning his own ABA Club tournament was a No-No.

• Junior bowlers at GABLE HOUSE could win a Moped! They got a drawing ticket for every game they bowled.

• The Rose Parade themes was sports. What sports? Soccer, football, baseball, tennis, golf, skin diving, and skate boarding. Something was missing!!

• Leisure Time SPOT purchased MIRA MESA LANES in the San Diego Area. At least its still in business.

• Hundreds of bowlers responded to the urgent call from the Red Cross for blood. The Red Cross received more from bowlers than any other plea ever made.

• The Ventura County B.A.’s contributed $24,371.85 to B.V.L. number one in the U.S.

• At last, a movie about bowling and a bowler. “Dreamer” was (and is) about the struggle to become a pro-bowler. Worth watching but not an award winner. TIM MATHESON could actually bowl, averaging 196.

• Bowling For Groceries”? Yep, Spin the wheel after a strike and win a prize. Maybe a can of soup or a box of Animal Crackers. That gimmick spread all over California one year and disappeared.

• TED DAVISON of KABC-TV fame added bowling to his nightly sports report.

• 79 YEAR OLD BILL O’BRIAN rolled his highest game ever at ALHAMBRA VALLEY
BOWL— a 276. He is currently bowling in 13 leagues a week. His highest was 17 a week!

A Nice Sunday Surprise

DOWNY – While waiting for the Super Bowl to come on, I was tuned to my favorite Channel — TCM. Old movies are still the best. I’m in the kitchen getting a cup of coffee and I hear “bowling”. (A sound I’m very familiar with.)

It was Andy Varipapa doing his famous trick shots!! For a moment I thought “Twilight Zone” was on. Andy loved doing his 7-10 pick-up with 2 balls - one in each hand. Another unbelievable classic was making a ball turn left, right, left before hitting the 7 pin. Could the ball have had a little ‘weight’ problem on one side?

Glass lamps placed down a lane were never in danger from his undulating sphere.

His infectious smile, broken English and Italian gusto made him a winner.

I don’t know if he ever made enough money to support a family — but to us oldtimers he was a treasure. If you ever get a chance to watch Andy in action — do it!

How many Andy Varipapa 300’s have you seen? — Shared By Carol Mancini

Burbank – It never fails to amaze me the many and unusual places you run into fellow bowlers. You may see them every day and not know until that conversation gets triggered. Example: One of the checkers at the grocery store I frequent, one day I noticed I was wearing a bowling shirt. “You a bowler?” Me: “Oh yes!” Me: “Where do you bowl?” She told me and quickly added, “What’s your average?”

That one question always pops up. Another example, the Dollar Store: “You bowl? I used to bowl.” Me: “You a bowler?” Me: oh yes! “Me too.” Me: Where do you bowl? She triggered. Example: One of the checkers at the grocery store I go to.

Lake Elsinore - After taking a week off, the Saturday league teams returned members to face a new oil pattern. The first two patterns for this season are definitely a tick- tock. The pattern is a 2012 PBA U.S. Open pattern to the downright painful 2012 PBA U.S. Open. For those unfamiliar with this particularly difficult condition, it is 42 feet long, completely flat (1 to 1 ratio) from gutter to gutter and light (2.2 ml of oil). Thus, on fresh, there is no room for error and it changes quickly. The best way to approach this condition is to keep it around the pocket and maintain your spares.

Games Over Average:

Christopher Clay +23, Scott Ever- son +28, Robert Groth +37 & +39, Mondesi Saavedra +45.

Games Over 200:

Mondesi Saavedra 200, Ryan Galland 204, Mark McLeary 221.

Series Over Average:

Robert Groth +93

Series Over 600:

As a testament to the difficulty of this condition, there were no 600+ series shot this week.

Bowler of the Week:

The award this week goes to a league member who beat his average in every game with scores of +35, +38 and +37. These spectacular games resulted in +35, +38 and +37. These spectacular games resulted in 243, 241 and 238. These spectacular games resulted in +35, +38 and +37. These spectacular games resulted in +35, +38 and +37. These spectacular games resulted in

BOWLING DOLFIJN ROSE FROM THE ASHES ....

by Jerry Teunissen

In the CBN edition of July 28, 2016, I wrote an article about the Dutch youth bowler YOURI FENS.

At the end of March 2016, a drama occurred in the Netherlands and in particular for Youri, when his bowling house Bowling Dolfin in Tilburg was destroyed by a fire. The bowling burned completely, and nothing remained of the bowling equipment of the match bowlers that were stored in lockers.

A few months before he would participate at the World Youth Championship at Lincoln Cleveland, Youri lost all his equipment in one go. Spontaneously, a crowd funding action was started, sponsors contributed and sufficient money was collected to let Youri’s dream take part in the World Championship.

Owners, Thomas Dol and his parents, did not stop after the fire and immediately planned the construction of a new center. The bowlers to initiate the courses during an invitation tournament. A beautiful modern bowling Centre rose from the ashes, with a underground parking garage, party halls, 24 lanes with QubicaAMF scoring system and pinsetters, a new PROSHOP, and Kegel Training Centre, with video, Spectro and Torch system.

A PAYS TO BE

Bowling Center Dolfin at TILBURG The Netherlands, run by Thomas Dol and his parents is a household name in Europe. This year there are 2 major events on the program

A silver category tournament which is part of the European Bowling Tour, a brand new lane maintenance, with Kegel Staff, Kegel Machines and chemicals, a new Pro Shop.

A tournament with a total prize money of EURO 45,750, ***

Numerous topbowlers from European countries Sweden, Denmark, Belgium but also from South Africa and Singapore, Indonesia, like to attend this tournament. Xander van Mazijk, the flying Dutchman, the World Champion in the Single Event at Las Vegas last year is of course one of the participants. Former winners are Jesper Svensson Sweden, Thomas Larsen Denmark, Osku Palermaa Finland.

And more and more pro bowlers are joining like Parker Bohn III, Don Barrett, Francois Lavoie Canada, Pontus Andersson Sweden. The European players are waiting for the participation of pro’s like Jason Belmonte, Chris Barnes. So hopefully they decide to join the tournament.

In 2016 Youri Fens performed to throw back-to-back 300 games in a row. Will he be able to repeat this year?
