OPEN CALIFORNIA BOWLING CENTERS NOW! SAYS FACEBOOK GROUP

by Jonathan Garza

Bowlers throughout California have tried everything to get Governor Gavin Newsom to lift his order that has kept most bowling centers in the state closed since late March; but there's an ace up their sleeve, a Facebook group where bowlers come together to voice their frustrations in hopes of opening all centers.

The movement behind the "Open California Bowling Centers Now" Facebook group page was started by Ric and Carolyn Hamlin, a passionate couple that is determined to do what it takes to get California to open its centers for good.

Parker Bohn III Scholarship Tournament to Serve as Qualifier for PBA Jr. National Championship

by ddziomba

NEW YORK – The Professional Bowlers Association is pleased to announce that the Parker Bohn III Scholarship Tournament (PB3) will serve as a qualifier for the East Region in the PBA Jr. National Championships.

Youth bowlers competing in the PB3 event can opt-in in advance or onsite for an additional $40 to have their scores count towards qualifying into the National Championship event.

The top two male and female finisher in the PB3 event will then advance to the National Championship to compete for a $7,500 first place SMART Scholarship. The National Championship date will be held in conjunction with a PBA National Tour stop, to be named at a later date.

"As a PBA member for the past 35 years, I am extremely honored and excited to be a part of the inaugural PBA Jr. National Championship," said PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III. "It's a great opportunity for the youth bowlers to have a chance to compete on the biggest stage in bowling, the PBA."

The 21st annual PB3

Scholarship Tournament will be held at Howell Lanes in Howell, NJ from Sept. 2 – Sept. 7.

For additional information on the PB3 event, qualifying for the PBA Jr. National Championship, and to sign up, please visit <https://parkerbohn3.com> or email Pb3tournament@gmail.com.

With health and safety top of mind, the PBA is following local and federal guidelines on COVID-19.

The PBA is significantly modifying event procedures as well as taking all necessary precautions to reduce health risks for players and staff during competition.

For a complete list of standards, please visit pba.com.

Bowling Makes the Cut in This State

by Fred Eisenhammer

HAWAII – Beautiful beaches, tropical climate, tasty native food and a laid-back Pacific Island atmosphere.

That's Hawaii, our 50th state. Want to know what else is special about the Aloha State?

The Hawaiians apparently love their bowling.

Rowen Monroe, a former L.A. resident now living in Honolulu, reported that the Hawaii High School Athletic Assn. recently announced the postponement of its fall sports season to January 2021 because of the rising level of COVID-19 cases.

There were two fall sports, however, that were exempt from the postponement.

They were air riflery and bowling.

The affected fall sports were cheerleading, cross country, football and girls' volleyball.

Hawaii, it should be pointed out, is one of the few states that embrace bowling at the high school level. The others include

New York, New Jersey and Illinois.

So, did how bowling (and air riflery) get past the Hawaii censors?

Wrote Monroe: "Bowling was considered a 'low-risk' sport."

Now we'll see if Hawaii's high school sports program is a trend-setter for the rest of the country.

Rowen Monroe reported that the Hawaii High School Athletic Assn. allowed the sport of bowling to remain on its schools' agenda for the fall.

Professional Bowler Mookie Betts Makes Baseball Look Easy

by Dave Williams

It would appear that baseball comes easy for professional bowler Mookie Betts, the newly acquired right fielder for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Thursday night he clobbered three home runs in one game, the sixth time that he has done so, equaling the major league baseball record held by both Johnny Mize and Sammy Sosa.

What? You didn't know that Mookie Betts is a member of the Professional Bowlers Association? Betts has been a card carrying member of the PBA since 2014, and rolled a perfect 300 game during the qualifying of the 2017 World Series of Bowling at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nevada.

The 27 year old Betts also won the 2019 Chris Paul Celebrity Invitational Doubles with partner Tommy Jones. The year before he was MVP in that "other" sport, when he became the first player in MLB history to win the Most Valuable Player, Silver Slugger, Gold Glove, the Batting Title and the World Series in the same season.

Betts is not the first pro baseball/pro bowler to establish himself in both sports. The very first was one of the most famous bowlers of all time, Don Carter, who first signed a contract with the Philadelphia Athletics as a pitcher/infielder. Ebonite convinced Don that he should concentrate on bowling when they offered Carter a ten year, $1 million contract, making "Bosco" the first player in any sport to sign for the magic one million dollar figure.

Another famous baseball/bowler is John Burkett, who started a 16 year pitching career with the San Francisco Giants, when he went 14-7 and became an immediate media darling in 1990. While I was working as Director of Marketing for American Recreation Centers at the time, one of our district managers in the San Francisco Bay Area brought Burkett's love for the game of bowling to my attention.

The next year we invited Burkett to compete as a guest in the 1991 ARC Pinole Open at Pinole Valley Lanes. The publicity for both ARC and the PBA was priceless, with Burkett making many personal appearances on television and at local bowling facilities. Burkett did not disappoint in the tournament, finishing 74th in the 160-man field of professional bowlers.

Betts has been a bowler for as long as he can remember. He was taught the craft by his Mom, who is "a decent bowler with an average in the 170's," according to Betts. Her instruction was so adequate that Mookie was named Bowler of the Year in 2010 for the State of Tennessee High School Bowling season.

With just a little over 6 years in professional baseball, Betts has accomplished the 3 homers in one game record that took Johnny Mize 15 years, and Sammy Sosa 18 years.

While Sosa's numbers are a bit inflated, with a total of 292 homers in just five "steroid era" years, Mookie's career mirrors Johnny "The Big Cat" Mize's career in many categories, including homers, where they both have an average of 23 per year.

Here's hoping that after his career on the diamond is complete, Betts will continue his career on the lanes, where Burkett is still competing (and winning) at the age of 56.

Bowling never gets old!

Don Carter became the first Million Dollar Man in any sport when he signed with Ebonite in 1964

BRIAN VOSS EARNS PBA TITLE
NUMBER TEN AT ARC PINOLE VALLEY OPEN
– Baseball Star John Burkett Finishes 74th –

PINOLE, CA – Brian Voss (left) of Boca Raton, FL just became the 30th player in PBA history to earn at least 10 PBA championships, as he pocketed the $21,000 first place in the ARC Pinole Open.

It was another exciting finish to an event hosted by American Recreation Centers as Voss won four games and upset leading qualifier Mark Thayer, 50-45, after they had tied at 179 in regulation.

Voss appeared to be beaten when Thayer, Lafayette, IN, converted the difficult 2-4-10 split and needed just eight pins for his first triumph. However, he left three pins standing which forced the 9-10th frame roll-off.

Voss, shown above with brother-in-law Curtis Gough, a league member at ARC Oakridge Lanes, received a beautiful one-of-a-kind marble and crystal trophy designed by the Hooper Studios of California.

The 27th consecutive ARC tournament was additionally memorable because San Francisco Giants pitcher John Burkett competed in the 160-man field as an amateur entry. The Giants righthander was coming off an impressive 14-7 rookie season and was impressive with his bowling strike totals to finish 74th against the tour's top competitors.

American Recreation Centers is the largest publicly held corporation in the country devoted primarily to the operation of bowling centers. The company operates 27 bowling centers in California and Texas and is also active in the development and management of commercial real estate. ARC's wholly owned subsidiary, The Right Start, is a nationwide direct marketer of high-quality products for infants and children.

The California Bowling Writers has adopted Operation Freedom Paws!
 Operation Freedom Paws nonprofit organization was founded by "California Bowler and Veteran" Mary Cortani in 2010 that has provided service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives.
 Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they're certified together as service dog teams.

GEUSBC's Annual Secretaries Workshop Recap

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

Bakersfield, CA—For years the Golden Empire USBC has held an annual Secretaries Workshop for their local league secretaries and presidents to attend. It was held at AMF Southwest Lanes, always in mid-August, and the GEUSBC Board also attends so that new league secretaries and/or presidents have a chance to meet their local board. But this year, with the Covid pandemic, it was held a little differently.

On Sunday, August 16, the GEUSBC Secretaries Workshop was held virtually via Zoom. Unfortunately, a low turnout of league secretaries participated but that can be expected with all the centers closed and we really don't have any indication when they might re-open. But, for the few that attended, the following was presented by GEUSBC Association Manager Nancy Weber and GEUSBC President Zack Long:

- League sanction form requires that league secretaries get right on getting these forms filled out. You have 30 days to get this form filled out and in from when you officially start your league.
  - Local centers approximate start date for leagues. AMF Southwest and Mt. Mesa in Lake Isabella looking at mid-September. The BLVD! will not be open until January.
  - When State allows centers to re-open, social distancing will need to be practiced as well as wearing masks even when we bowl. Have to wait and see what State restrictions are.
  - USBC is pushing with sanction membership cards that league secretaries fill out the side portion/receipt and give this back to the bowlers this season as soon as possible. This is important because of the lag time until league secretary gets complete membership cards to Association Manager and they are submitted to USBC. Many league bowlers bowl in tournaments and need this receipt to show they have paid their sanction fee for this season.
  - USBC sanction membership fee has stayed the same, no increase.
  - Big change is the Aug. 1st, no balance hole allowed. This new ruling not only applies to USBC sanctioned tournaments but USBC sanctioned leagues as well.
  - No rule books this year will be given out in secretaries packets. Go to bowl.com to download.
  - Competition on one lane of a pair was approved. This is another restriction that league bowlers may have to accept depending on State restrictions.
- Have to be ready for a little give-and-take to be able to return to league bowling this upcoming Winter season. Depending on when centers are allowed to reopen also will dictate the number of weeks our Winter season will be — 30 weeks? 15 weeks?? Centers are anxious to have leagues return. We all need to work together with our centers and accept that it is what it is.

Allison, is a member of both the Professional Bowlers Association and United States Bowling Congress Halls of Fame.

In addition to chronicling the night that Allison made bowling history by rolling sanctioned league bowling's first 900 series, its rejection for official recognition by the American Bowling Congress, and the subsequent appeal and court action, the book includes chapters on a career record that led to Allison's election to two national bowling halls of fame, bowling's great team era, each of Allison's teammates on the fabled Falstaff Beer team, an analysis of Allison's physical game by long-time coach Bill Taylor, and much, much more.

All told, the book includes 36 chapters — one for each strike in the 900 series — three postscripts that update the story seven, 10 and 32 years after the fact; an additional postscript that makes a compelling case for overturning the ABC's original ruling and finally granting Allison his rightful place atop the all-time list of approved 900 series, and more.

"I knew Bob had been working on the book for years but that its publication had been stalled due to lack of funding for the printing," said Terry Johnson, Bob's brother, who himself once rolled two 300 games in a three-game set. "When he told me that it was 95 percent done and could be finished up in a few months I told him, 'Let's do it.'"

That's how Read Between the Lanes Publishing, LLC came to be, and the company is offering three limited-edition bonuses to those who order early:

- Coasters that read, "Glenn Allison's 900... Certify It Now!" for the first 300 orders (only a few left following the July pre-sale).
- Bookmarks that depict the book's cover for the first 900 orders.
- Postcards featuring PBA & USBC Hall of Famers Allison & (Bob) Johnson for the first 2,000 orders.

Those who wish to order one, two or three copies of the book may do so at Mr900Book.com. Inquiries regarding bulk orders (four or more books) may be directed to read-between-thelanespublishing@aol.com.

There was a brief tease where several counties (excluding Los Angeles county) permitted their centers to open, and people were happy; but most importantly, no cases of a COVID-19 were reported.

There have been tournaments held on Indian land at Canyon Lanes, which does not have to abide by the state's restrictions. In fact, it has attracted bowlers from all over Southern California that need to feed their craving for some strikes, spares and possibly some gutters due to bowling rust. In only two days of the group's creation (article was written Saturday; group was created Thursday), it has accumulated 3,718 members, and it's rapidly growing. There have been dozens of posts from angry bowlers who want to return to their home centers to hang out with their friends (in a safe way) and indulge in their favorite game, bowling.

One such post of importance is a peaceful protest planned for Wednesday, August 19 at Cal Bowl in Lakewood, Calif. from 3 p.m. - 5 p.m. This could trigger media attention which would in turn help to spread the message to Newsom. Bowling centers have had plans in place to reopen while heavily sanitizing their centers. The ones that did get to open welcomed their bowlers back with open arms, and they were ever so happy to be back, and thankful that their centers opened their doors. An issue throughout the industry is that health officials are likely misconstruing just what bowling is though, and its likely why bowling continues to be overlooked below activities scientifically proven to be more dangerous than bowling such as gyms, bars, nightclubs and indoor dining among others.

Are health officials league bowlers? Probably not. They likely have been by their local centers to bowl a casual game with friends, co-workers and family, sharing house balls and house shoes, and feeling as if all bowlers do that.

They don't, officials. Most bowlers have their own equipment, and those interested in getting into the game are encouraged to purchase their own gear. It makes bowling more fun and helps to get a better understanding of the science and game.

Many centers have had guidelines prepared for their opening date, with guidelines such as instant sanitation of balls and shoes following the conclusion of bowling, spacing of an empty lane on each side of a group of bowlers, and masks required while on the concourse of bowling centers. While messaging officials hasn't seemed to get very far, it's worth continuing to fight for change.

The Facebook group and peaceful protest is a good start. You can join the group at: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/590585188290806>.

-- LIND BALDWIN -- Senior League Superstar

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – What does it take to be a senior league superstar? Is it all about numbers and statistics? Is it all about talent? Is it about flash? No, no, no! It is about some of these but definitely not about flash.

If it was all about flash Lind Baldwin would not be a senior league superstar. Lind is not flashy. He doesn't have George Clooney's looks, John Wayne's voice or Hulk Hogan's size. He doesn't even have Hogan's blonde hair. He isn't funny like Bob Hope or loud like Don Rickles. Lind is an ordinary good guy like Mr. Rogers or Regis Philbin. He is an unassuming, humble, quiet senior league superstar. I think the best type of superstar. A Mike Aulby, a Parker Bohn or a Don Carter type of superstar.

Lind Baldwin is a senior league superstar because of his numbers and statistics, his talent, his work ethic and his personality.

Yes, I've written before about numbers and statistics and their importance when evaluating the greatness of any bowler. Numbers don't lie and numbers do matter.

Lind has been bowling at Empire Bowl for decades. He moved to the senior leagues about a half dozen years ago and has excelled in all these leagues since his arrival. Throughout his time at "The Bowl" Lind has averaged above 200 with a best of 229 in 2009 competing against the "kids" on weeknights. Since bowling in our senior leagues, he has averaged about 220 for the half dozen seasons joining us. Lind's senior league numbers are pretty much league tops during this period.

When it comes to bowling talent Lind has it. The numbers attest to that. But the "eye test" is additional proof of his bowling skills. He is a stroker known for his effortless centripetal swing that he repeats perfectly over and over again. Nothing fancy just precision. The swing perfectly aligned with his body in a consistent 45° back and 45° forward pendulum swing. His release is effortless and silent. You do not hear his bowling ball hit the lane. From start to finish Lind's approach is fluid. It's all about letting the ball do the work for you. Nothing with flexing muscles. That's bowling talent.

When it comes to passion for the sport of Bowling Lind is right there. The best bowlers exhibit a passion for every aspect of our sport. They are fans and students of the sport before being bowlers. They attend tournaments, watch television and study bowlers on YouTube. They learn what's the best way to bowl, the best way to attack lanes. I call these students of the sport "Educated Bowlers". One of the best ways to describe Lind would be just that, an educated bowler.

Everything I have written about passion for the sport of Bowling and the studying of bowling techniques applies to Lind Baldwin. He is always watching and studying the best local bowlers. When I was competing on the Super Senior Tour (SST) about 20 years ago I would always see Lind and his son Daniel watching and studying the best senior bowlers in the area. Many times, he has told me of his interest in watching and studying the PBA and PWBA professionals on television. Lind is a true student of the game. Best of all, Lind's Bowling education has contributed to his making himself into a great bowler and a senior league superstar.

Finally, every good bowler has put in hours of practice. Lind is no exception. When it comes to his bowling work ethic Lind is all about bowling games and bowling more games. He is constantly inside Empire Bowl participating in senior tournaments, rent-a-lanes and then more league play. His method of practicing is all about bowling games. Then bowling more games. Every good bowler has his/her own method of working on their game and this is what works for Lind.

There you have it. Lind is a "Senior League Superstar" because he has the complete package: an accumulation of great personal bowling numbers, statistics and accomplishments, bowling talent, a solid bowling work ethic and the persona of a champion.
