Tony Hale Wins 14th ABT Championship at Linbrook

ANAHEIM — The Linbrook Bowl stop of the Amateur Bowlers Tour on November 14-15, 2009 saw the bowlers take to the lanes and after the final squad, our newest champion, Tony Hale emerged with a 29 pin victory.

Our newest champion, Tony Hale, lives in Garden Grove. Tony has numerous 300s and a high series of 859 to his credit. Tony is a 'jack of all trades' and gives bowling lessons. Tony bowls in the ABT League at Yorba Linda Bowl and leagues at Westminster Lanes, Carter Bowl and Fountain Valley. Tony was using an Ebonite MVD drilled by Ramon Torres at the pro shop at Carter Lanes for the win this weekend. Tony wanted to thank Rod Cantrell, John Collins, Roy Coleman and Ace Stewart for helping him with his game. Tony wanted to send out a special appreciation to Marty. Tony also wanted to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting the tournament and the ABT staff and directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Daryl Brandt was the winner of the optional Senior Sweeper with a 696.

The Mystery Game Pot game and score were drawn during our finals meeting. Game #1 was the game drawn. The first chance score of 143 (good for $400) was drawn. Our second chance score (good for $200) was 230. The third chance score (good for $100) was 126 and 226 was the fourth chance (good for a free entry). There were no winners. The Mystery Pot is available to all members and only costs $5.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Linbrook Bowl for hosting our tournament. Our next event will be November 21 at AMF Carter Lanes. This will be a one day beat-the-board tournament with squad times at 12 noon, 1:30, 3 and 4:30PM. The address for Carter Lanes is 1501 S. Lemon in the city of Fullerton. Their phone number is 714.526-7725. Entry fee for this tournament is $55.

We hope to see you at AMF Carter Lanes on November 21!

Liz Johnson & Rhino Page PBA Viper Title Champions

Allen Park — Sporting a shaved head in support of a friend undergoing cancer treatment, and playing a style of game outside his normal comfort zone, Rhino Page of Wesley Chapel, Fla., out-struck Ryan Ciminelli of Buffalo, N.Y., to win the Professional Bowlers Association's Viper Championship at Thunderbowl Lanes.

As part of the PBA World Series of Bowling finals that aired Sunday on ESPN, Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., won her first PBA Women's Series presented by BOWL.COM singles title, defeating Lynda Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 211-196, for the women's Viper Championship.

Rookie of the Year, defeated Ciminelli, 268-246, for his third career title, a $25,000 prize and a berth in the end-of-season PBA Experience Showdown presented by BOWL.COM.

"It feels great to be able to get off to a great start in the World Series, and to make a show in my third event," Page said. "To get my third title this early in the season feels amazing."

Page said he turned the corner in the Viper Championship early in the event when he was struggling with his equipment and decided to switch from "reactive" bowling balls to more stable urethane equipment. Ciminelli, a non-exempt player who advanced out of the Tour Qualifying Round to earn a spot in the 72-man tournament field, was bowling next to Page – and made the same equipment move with similar results. Ironically, the two left-handers eventually met for the title.

"I threw the ball much differently than the way I usually bowl," Page said. "I was literally trying to loft the ball over the dots and as I was doing so, I was hitting it as hard as I could with as many revolutions as I could to try to get that urethane ball to do the right thing. In a sense, I was trying to make it behave like a reactive (ball), but a controlled reactive. For Ciminelli, that's his A game. His rotation and revs match up perfectly. For me, lacking the revolutions, I

Bedell Wins ABTA Title at Oak Tree

Handicap is FROZEN at Bowlum for Thanksgiving Special

DIAMOND BAR—Bedell Vasquez was at his best in our Special Event at Oak Tree Lanes. He won our latest ABTA Event with a great performance and a thrilling finish. He held off Donald Pulliam in the final game with a fine +128 to Donald at +117 to win the title in a special Beat the Board Semifinals/Finals. Jason Yeh was close in 3rd at +109. Jeffrey Sargent 4th at +107.

The scoring was decent as +44 Men and Ladies -4 (ouch) made the Board. Super Seniors added to the board were Thomas Smith, Ely Cruz and Angie Nillo.

With a fair turnout of 150 bowlers we had 45 bowlers advance to bowl three games in a Beat the Board Finals. The top 16 still guaranteed $100 minimum.

We would now do a Beat the Board Finals. Where you Finish will be your cashing position.

The bowlers took the floor and the scoring was quite contentious with many bowlers starting out well in game #1. Jason Yeh was tops at +53 closely followed by Ken Morris at +50. Yeh won the $55 Side Pot. After game one, low leading for women to top 16 +11 and Men +23. Game two had Bedell Vasquez get hot and was leading with +110 with Danny Nguyen second +83. Danny and Francisco Trejo split the Pot with a 264 game of $55.

Game three was on. There were 8 who were in striking distance but Bedell had a 218 game to win it all for a +128 $1,000 with Donald Pulliam +117 $500, Jason Yeh +109 $200, Jeff Sargent $120 +107, Danny Nguyen +93 $120. Ken Morris, Greg Franke, Greg Kokanour, and Daniel Yang 6-9th places $110. Keith Nahan, Roberta Nakunz, Jun Contreras, Charles Elliott, Angie Nillo, Jeff Juckett, and Bobbie Mc Collum 10-16th and $100 each. Jun Contreras won pot #3 with a big 280 game for $55.

Congrats to Bedell, our latest Champion and all who bowled well there including some new members. This format was different but fun and we use it a few times per year.

The doubles were topped by Jiradej Harnpatanakitpanich and Conrad Amado with a big 1512. Ray Montoya and Kris Ordonez 2nd at 1474 and $160. We paid a great 18 places and $1,540 in the doubles.

The Match Game was Matched at 169. Greg Velarde and Jeff Juckett shared the pot of $1810. We estimate the Match game at $1500 this Saturday at the Bowlum.

The Match Series was also Matched at a 375 by two of our preetiest ladies, Ada Wong and Julie Nguen. They split $244 Pot estimated at $400 Saturday.

Jeff Juckett (busy man on Saturday)eliminated the field in the 3-6-9 and missed. So we go for $600 this Saturday at Bowlum.

Champ Bedell Vasquez is from San Gabriel and used a Hammer drilled by Memo. He is single and thanks Oak Tree, the ABTA Staff and bowlers for support.

Donald Pulliam hails from Oceanside and used a High Road drilled by Monty Stratton at Surf Bowl. He is single with girlfriend Tenneal. He thanks her for all the support and Oak Tree Lanes for hosting us.

Thanks to the fine Oak Tree Staff for hosting, Debbie, Doc and John notably. We return there Jan 9 in a Semi Frozen event with regular top 16 single elim finals.

It's History folks as Bedell enters the archives as a three time champion.

GARDEN GROVE—Valley View’s hospitable control desk man, Bob, welcomed the league back on Monday and we want to thank the center for the table laden with free coffee and ice water during our visit. Also, we had food service available for hungry bowlers.

Jamie Vallier topped the honor roll with 560, followed by Margo McClain 544, Cyn-die Martin 205-537, Kathy Parrish 206-529, Dee Phipps 214-528, Roberta McNaught and Nancy Soto had tied on 521, Tracy Koolmees 514, Ada Burris 510. Bernice Ben-nett 501 and Joan Roper 500.

Two familiar faces were welcomed Monday when for-mer long time member Melo-dy Pettey visited and former member Tracey Koolmees returned, via the sub list. We have not required many subs the first dozen weeks but Mon-day was a “Feast or Famine” matter when the league re-quired six subs and we could not produce them. We have 18 subs on the list but alas, only four of them were available last week.

Keystone #2 now boasts a 6-game league leadership with 32 wins, followed by Cal Bowl #2, 26; Fountain Bowl #2 and Cal #1 tie at 24 wins, Cal #3, 22.2; Keystone #3 and Valley View #2 tie with 22 and the rest of the league trails down to 10.2 cellar spot. Valley View #1 scored their first three game sweep over opponents for the first time this season.

NEXT WEEK: 10:30 a.m. Monday, November 23 at Del Rio and please remember, the coffee shop will be open during the league session so DON’T BRING FOOD!

had to do something.” Page’s technique worked. Ciminelli struck on seven of his first eight shots before leaving three consecutive 7 pins that ultimately made the difference because Page struck on nine of his first 10 attempts.

While Page’s modified bowling style wasn’t readily apparent to most bowling fans, his hair style certainly was. One of my best friends is going through cancer treatment and he’s lost all of his hair,” Page said in reference to his shaved head. “I told him when he started treatment that I’d do this for him. I wanted to show him my support, even though I’m not there with him.”

With an early title in hand, Page said he is “stoked” for the rest of the 2009-10 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season.

“My ultimate goal is Player of the Year,” he said. “I’ve got a title under my belt. I had a really good World Series, and I quali-fied for the TV final coming up in the PBA World Championship (on Dec. 13 in Wichita, Kan.). I’m really happy. I think I’m in the position I want to be in.”

Page advanced to the Viper title match with a 221-180 victory over Steve Jaros of Yorkville, Ill., in the semifinal round while Ciminelli threw two strikes in the 10th frame to nip Michael Hau-gen Jr. of Carefree, Ariz., 238-236, in the other semifinal contest. In the women’s title match, Johnson followed an open frame with three strikes and added a late double to hold off Barnes, who was plagued by single-pin leaves. Barnes left three 10 pins, two 7 pins and a pair of 4 pins in bowling an otherwise error-free game without a double. “It’s been an amazing year,” said Johnson, who won the United States Bowling Congress Queens title earlier in the year after earning a PBA Women’s Series exemption for 2009-10 by teaming with Norm Duke to win the Don and Paula Carter Mixed Doubles title in January.

Regardless of her success in 2009, which included top-four finishes in all PBA World Series of Bowling events for women, Johnson has maintained an almost shy demeanor. Her humility, in part, is due to the fact that her dream of a full-time career as a professional woman bowler almost ended in 2003 when the Professional Women’s Bowling Association ceased operation. The creation of the PBA Women’s Series, in cooperation with the USBC, has given women bowlers renewed hope.

“It makes no sense to get a big ego after winning a title,” she explained. “You do the best you can. You’re thankful for your life, your family, your parents. You’re thankful for having the Women’s Series after the women’s tour folded (in 2003). You kinda feel like you took things for granted, having the opportuni-ty to bowl 10-20 events a year, and then the tour’s gone. I would never do that again. I’m very thankful for the opportunities I still have to bowl.”

Johnson has had significant success bowling against the PBA’s male stars as well, and plans to continue to bowl in selected PBA Tour events. “I’m going to bowl in the (Pepsi) Red, White and Blue Open (presented by the USBC) in Wichita (Dec. 7-13) and in the Dick Weber Open in Fountain Valley (Calif., Jan. 26-31). And hopefully in the U.S. Open (Feb. 22-28 in Indianapolis),” Johnson said. “I plan to bowl as much as I can.”

In addition to her $10,000 first prize, Johnson earned a berth in the PBA Women’s Showdown presented by BOWL.COM which will take place in April at the new International Training Center in Arlington, Texas.

DeGroff Hits 289/829 At Mission Hills And 279/788 At Jewel City Bowl

MISSION HILLS — After dismal bowling on the dry lanes at Oak Tree Lanes last Sunday, which ended his string of consecutive 700s, Ken DeGroff put that aside as it never happened and concentrated on his bowling in his Wednesday night NBAC League at Mission Hills Bowl. That turned out good as he bounced back in a striking spree blasting 31 out of 36 possible strikes for games of 269-289-269 for his 14th career 800, an 827 gem.

A 10-pin refused to fall after 10 strikes in a row in his 2nd game. That 827 is his second 800 in a month as he hit (300) 846 last October 11 at Jewel City Bowl. Ken raised his average to 244 for 21 games at Mission Hills.

On the following Friday in Linda’s Las Vegas League at Jewel City Bowl, Ken almost made back to back 800s, coming short with 279-242-267 for 788 and raised his average to 246 for 21 games in that league.

Except for that bad showing in So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League, Ken had a chance to tie Carl Malucci’s USBC record to 17 consecutive 700s in different bowling centers. Now he has to concentrate on his string of 700s in one league.

Having made 31 out of possible 36 strikes twice in a month which gave him confidence, DeGroff is pursuing his dream of bowling a 900. The way he is smashing the pins, it won’t be very long.

Deaf Travel Bowls At Cal Bowl This Sunday

LAKEWOOD — The 50th Anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League will stop at Cal Bowl this Sunday at 1:00 p.m. Come and watch some of the best deaf and hearing-impaired bowlers do their stuff.

USBC Youth The future of bowling

Ashley N. Dunn and Wesley Low, Jr., Palmdale, CA had no idea when they entered the 4th Annual California Youth Championships this year that they would both emerge as the best of the best; well maybe they had just an inkling?

What is truly unique about their accomplishment is both children bowl in the same home center, Brunswick Vista Lanes in Palmdale, CA. This year they were both honored by receiving the California USBC award given to the top boy and girl all-events scratch total for ages 11 & under, the Skip Helbing Memorial Award for boys and Red Irwin Memorial Award for girls. Ashley’s nine game total of 1,579 for an average just over 175 per game and Wesley’s tally of 1,726 for an average of nearly 192 per game were the best of the 295 boys and girls age 11 & under that entered the competition this year. The pair are pictured here with their plaques from the California USBC. In addition to the plaque they each received a $50 scholarship.

Why would they have thought they just might win? Well you see these two are both successful competitive bowlers, and among the youngest bowlers in the tournament clubs that they compete in. The league they bowl in at Brunswick Vista Lanes in Palmdale on Monday nights is aptly named Monday Family Fun, but when the weekend comes and they hit the lanes in a tournament they mean business. Of course they are still having fun, but they put their game faces on because only the top few will get paid at the end of the tournament.....get paid in scholarship money placed in a fund until they enter college and begin to use it.

Children of all ages have an opportunity to earn scholarship money for college through organized bowling competition. Some children play baseball, some softball, others basketball, football or soccer hoping to become good enough to earn a scholarship to college playing the sport they love. With bowling children can actually begin to earn money as soon as they are ready to bowl in competition. Most parents of children that bowl in leagues have heard of the annual USBC Youth Pepsi Championships, but most are not aware of the near year-round opportunities that exist through tournament clubs. The 3 main tournament clubs in Southern California are the Junior Scratch Tour of America (JST www.jstbowl.com), Junior Amateur Tour (JAT www.bowljat.org), and competing in both Northern and Southern California as well as most of the Western/Southwestern states The Junior Bowlers Tour (JBT www.bowljbt.com). Between these 3 tournament clubs there are more than 55 youth tournaments held each year in Southern California paying out nearly $100,000 annually in scholarship money. Additionally, just like all of the other sports mentioned, bowling is a collegiate sport and many Colleges and Universities across the Nation offer scholarships to recruit the sports top athletes.

Glossary of Bowling Terms

Average

Your average is the sum of all your games divided by the number of games played. You can use your average as a way of recording your improvement - set a goal of raising your average game, say 10 pins a season, until you reach the level of par bowlers.

Bag

After getting a ‘turkey’, most people start referring to the string of strikes as if they are collecting them in a bag, e.g. four-bagger, five-bagger etc.

Brooklyn strike

This refers to shots that “crosses over” the 1-3 pocket for right-handers and 1-2 for left-handers and produces a strike. It originated in New York where people would “cross over” to Brooklyn from Manhattan. A side term “Jersey side” references left-handers and refers to people crossing over from Manhattan to New Jersey.

Clean Sheet

If you make all your spares in the game it is called a clean sheet. Making your spares is the simplest way to raise your average on the way to becoming a scratch/par bowler.

Dutch 200

Dutch 200 refers to a game in which strikes and spares are alternated (spare-strike-spare strike etc) for the entire game, which results in a score of 200 exactly. The term is believed to be a take-off of “Dutch treat” or going “Dutch” where two people share the cost of a date.

Foul

The foul line is drawn across the lane to separate the approach from the start of the lane. Putting your foot over the foul-line means you don’t get the score for that delivery: on the first delivery you must re-rack the pins. It is marked on the scoresheet with an “F”.

Frame

There are ten frames in one game. You have two chances to knock down the ten pins in each frame. The tenth frame rewards you with a final bonus ball if you convert your spare (or make two strikes). You can thus throw nine strikes in the first nine frames and, if you get another two in the tenth, the bonus ball means the most strikes you can have in one game is twelve. This is called a perfect game.

Open Frame

If you fail to make your spare, i.e. knock all pins down in two shots, it is called an open frame

Par

Consistently making all your spares will give you an average in the 180 to 190 range. When you develop your game so that you can start to string strikes together your score will go up and you will start to approach the 200 or 210 mark, which many have likened to being a “scratch” golfer.

Perfect game

Every bowlers ambition, is to some day, achieve a perfect game. By scoring strikes in every frame, the maximum attainable score is 300. Even professional bowlers, who play in championships worldwide, have only a few perfect games in their career.

Series

Adding up the scores from all the games you have played will give you the total series. Most leagues will play three-game series. It is common to use the series as a measure of success. Big tournaments will play many more games and, instead of recording total pinfall, bowlers compare their positions by talking of how many pins over/under par they are, with par usually being 200 (e.g. +20, -10, just like in golf).

Sleeper

If you leave a spare where one pin is standing directly behind another, the rearmost pin is called the “sleeper”. In some circumstances this is also called a bicycle, double wood, oneinthedark or tandem.

Spare

If you leave one or more pins standing after your first delivery, you get a second chance to knock all the pins down, this is your “spare” shot. If you knock all remaining pins down on the second shot you have made your spare. A spare is marked on the scoresheet with a “/”. The scoring system rewards you by adding in the pins from the next ball into the current frame. See also split.

Split

This is a spare left when two or more pins remain standing, but with a gap between them. Spares are naturally a little harder to make (since you need to put the ball between two pins, or slide one pin over into another) and bowlers don’t like to leave a split. It is common to draw a circle round the pin-count on the score sheet to indicate that it was a split.

Strike

When the bowler knocks down all ten pins with the first delivery of the ball it is called a strike. Your score goes up by ten, but like a spare, you get a bonus - your next two deliveries are added to the score. Stringing strikes together will raise your score dramatically (See turkey). A strike is marked on the scoresheet with an “X”.

Turkey

A turkey is bowling lingo for three strikes in a row. Probably, the most famous score for amateur and professional bowlers alike. This is partly due to the fact it has an unusual name, and partly because even a beginner can get one. The term dates back to before the turn of the 20th century. In those years, scoring was much more difficult and to get three strikes in a row was quite an achievement. During Thanksgiving or Christmas week, the proprietor would present a live turkey to the first person on each team who scored three consecutive strikes. The term has carried over ever since.

Washout

A special kind of split is the washout, where the headpin remains standing as the ball hooks by it.

Wicked frame

When bowlers bowl a “strike” on their first frame.

Adult-Member Tournament This Sunday
The first Adult-JAT Member tournament of the season is this Sunday, November 22 at La Habra “300” Bowl. There are two divisions- 399 and under handicap and 400+ scratch. Any JAT Farm, Open or Senior Member with any Adult bowler make up each team. Parents, brothers, sisters and friends grab a partner and come on out to this very fun event. Entry fee- $80 per team ($40 per bowler)- check-in opens at 8:30.

Jerome Jordan Jr. Scores His First JAT Title
The JAT headed south to Fountain Bowl for our last event. Scoring was good, highlighted by James Hefley’s perfect 300 in qualifying followed by a 298 in the first game of match-play. Tournament leader was James Hefley at +244 and low to qualify was Daniel Updegraff at +63. With the classic JAT format, the bowlers took the lanes for 5-games of match-play. Jeremy Glover took the lead at +438 on games of 268 and 279 while James Hefley’s 298 catapulted him to second. Jerome Jordan Jr., Brian Hernandez, and Mark Myers rounded out the top-5. In the stepladder, Brian Hernandez took down Mark Myers 178-153 and moved on but fell to Jerome Jordan Jr. 231-211. Jerome advanced to meet 2nd-seed James Hefley. Both bowlers were striking but it was Jordan advancing to the title match with a 240-236 win. Jerome took on top-seed Jeremy Glover in the championship match. Jerome gave Jeremy a chance to double for the title but in the end it was Jerome Jordan winning his first JAT title 192-189. Congratulations to Jerome on his first JAT title!

Ty Stockle Returns For The Win
Senior Division took the lanes with a small field of quality bowlers. Ty Stockle led qualifying at +268 followed by Travis Zehntner close on his heels at +243. Ty took 3 sidepost with games of 268-259-256 while Travis stole two with 269-288. In the semifinals, Ty Stockle took out Mark French 257-234 to advance to the championship match against top-seed Travis Zehntner. Ty clearly had the lanes locked in as he struck his way to a 254-174 win and the $200 first place cash. Bowlers in the Senior Division we would still like to increase the fields in the events so please contact your ex-JAT friends who are still under 26 and have them come on out. Congratulations Ty!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

FOUNTAIN VALLEY – Here is another update from the JAT Farm Club, where our last tournament found us at Fountain Bowl. We had 26 bowlers show up and we stretch things a bit and took the top 14 in to the second round. As always we thank the staff and management for the perfect accommodations.
In the qualifying round of five games we had some excellent scoring. Starting off we have Andrew Svoren posting up a 286 game. He followed that up with games of 224 and 254. Very nice. But hot on his heels we had Chris Garcia 275-224, Kevin Acosta 268-220, Courtney Schultz 268, Gabriella Mayfield 240-223-257, Adam Dubia 255, Dara Ajimine 225-247-223-221, Kirk Chui 247, Martika Cabezas 244, Joe Mayo 244, Michelle Stephens 242, John Struckman 234-226-234, Ashley Dunn 226, Noel Sosa 225, Eric Torrence 225, Alan Hecht 225, Ryan Hutchison 224, Ryan Brown 223, and Cody Mendoza 223. Such great scoring from so few. Mayfield led the group at plus 135, while it took a mere minus 41 to make the cut.
In match play we had more of the same. Tristan Beaner joined the fun with 267-222, while others included Dubia 223-257, Chelsea Friedman 234-255, Svoren 254, Sosa 247-248, Cabezas 226-244-234, Mayfield 237-225, Acosta 232-234, and Chui 223-225. Friedman made a five position jump going from 13th to 8th, but also with a five position jump where it counts was Sosa that put him into the top spot at plus 315.
The finals then started off with the 5th seed Cabezas (+189) taking on 4th seed Mayfield (+207). Here the two battled with Cabezas advancing 242-210. Now meeting the 3rd seed Svoren (+230) Cabezas continue her march with a 189-142 win. However, now she faced the 2nd seed veteran Dubia (+268) and in a close match Dubia claimed it 209-205. Adam now faced the top seed Sosa with both going for their first title. In the first match (best of three) Sosa jumped out big time 289-189 to also claim a share of the tournament high game. Not to go down without a fight, Dubia came back strong to take the second match 244-242. And in the third and deciding match, the two tired warriors both struggled a bit with the changing lane conditions. But when it was all over with, Sosa had his first JAT Farm Club title 181-159. Congratulations Noel.
This coming Sunday you will find us at La Habra 300 Bowl. This is the season’s first JAT Adult/Member Doubles tournament. Any JAT member (Farm-Open-Senior) with any adult bowler. There will be two divisions: 400 and under handicap and 401 and up scratch. Check-in begins at 8:15 am and I suggest you come early as there is only room for 48 teams. The cost for this special tournament (with high scholarship payout) is $40 per bowler. And to be selfish, I’d like to see 48 Farm Club members out there. Hope to see you all there.

Forest Lanes & The Little Gobblers Give Special Thanks to Spiderman, Kevin Monroe

LAKE FOREST—The “Little Gobbler” fundraiser tournament held Nov 7th at Forest Lanes was a huge success! Kids ages 3 and over teamed up with their parents and grand parents for this scotch doubles event, to raise money to provide Thanks giving meals to people in need this year, at the Orange County Rescue Mission.
Bowling for a great cause may be a lot of fun and self-rewarding but having it hosted by Spider Man really added to the joy of it all.
Spiderman, Kevin Monroe, 15, donated his time, talents, and energy by wearing a great looking rubber Spiderman costume, which had limited visibility and was more than a bit hot. But, no matter, the good natured Host let nothing stop him from greeting the bowlers, launching the tournament, passing out chocolate covered pretzels, assisting with the score monitors, retrieving balls that went astray, encouraging and cheering the participants and passing out the prizes to the winners. Nothing was impossible for Spiderman, Kevin.
He even found the time and energy to greet other kids who were there to celebrate Birthday parties, bringing even more smiles and joy to children, parents and employees.
The Little Gobbler tournament raised enough money to provide over 60 meals to the homeless and our special thanks go out to the kids and parents who participated, the generous businesses namely: MavenLink Consulting, for the Spiderman gift baskets, Chris Bisnet, a junior bowler who donated a basket ball, Books ETC. for great children’s books, TB Designs Custom Gifts for the chocolate covered pretzels and especially Kevin Monroe, the best host and Spiderman in the world.

Norwalk – There was no article last week because it would have been very short. Apparently there was a bye week before last 0and no one told half the league. I was forced to bowl, and ended up leading scoring with an even 800. After that was Claudell Redwine with 212/758, and Lawrence Merriweather with a high game of 207 and that was pretty much it for Gage. This past week at Keystone, we had much better attendance. Leading scoring was Patrick Ruiz who shot 265 and 235 for his last two games for an 829 total. Jeremy Glover missed the lead by a pin choosing not to shoot 900, but instead settled for a 828 after games of 279 and 225. Next was Gabriel Lofton 206/752, Lawrence Merriweather 205/750 and Claudell Redwine 202/710 rounds out the 700’s. Leading the girls was newcomer Destiny Harris at 169/623. Shirniece Beeks had a high game of 179 completing her 598 series, and finally Dementia Redwine 144/533. Our next match will be at Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance. We’ll be there at 1:30. I hope to see you there, too!
