Rookie Anthony LaCaze, Stefanie Nation Win PBA Earl Anthony Memorial Titles

DUBLIN, Calif. – Anthony LaCaze, a 27-year-old rookie from Melrose Park, Ill., won his first Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour title Sunday, throwing three clutch strikes in the ninth and 10th frames to defeat Michael Machuga of Erie, Pa., 214-206, in the title match of the Earl Anthony Memorial at Earl Anthony's Dublin Bowl.

Stefanie Nation of Grand Prairie, Texas, virtually matched LaCaze, throwing three strikes in her 10th frame to nip Lynda Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 201-181, for the Anthony women's title.

LaCaze, in his second career Professional Bowlers Association television appearance, trailed until he threw the biggest strike of his life in the ninth frame and followed with two even bigger strikes in the 10th to force Machuga to double in his 10th frame to win. Machuga got the first strike, but left a 10 pin on his second to hand LaCaze the $25,000 first prize and a berth in next week's PBA Tournament of Champions.

"It's a great feeling," LaCaze said. "I wanted to throw the best shots I could, and make Machuga throw the best shots he could, and whoever did it best would win. I'm speechless."

Machuga was on the same page. "My second shot in the 10th frame is as good as I can throw it," he said. "You always have the mindset that your opponent is going to strike out. Anthony stepped up in the 10th frame, bowling for his first title on very difficult lane conditions, and threw it as good as you possibly can. I give him all the credit in the world."

"I always knew I could win," LaCaze added, "but when you actually do it, it's different. I'm up in the clouds right now."

LaCaze and Machuga both survived low-scoring semifinal matches that set the stage for the title match. Machuga nipped Sean Rash of Wichita, Kan., in his semifinal match, 188-183. Machuga didn't have two strikes in a row, but otherwise bowled an error-free game until he failed to convert the 3-10 split in the 10th frame. But Rash missed a pair of single-pin spares and that proved to be his undoing.

LaCaze, a former collegiate All-American bowler with Saginaw Valley State University, slipped past Mike Wolfe of New Albany, Ind., 190-158, in the other semifinal match.

LaCaze had a double late in the game, but a pair of splits and a pair of missed single-pin spares ended Wolfe's hopes.

In the PBA Women's Series presented by BOWL.COM title match, Nation jumped into the lead with strikes in the first and second frames, but couldn't build on her lead. An unconverted split in the sixth frame gave Barnes life, and Barnes then doubled in the eighth and ninth frames to take the lead. Even after she left the 4-6-7 split and opened in the 10th frame, Nation had to mark to win.

"I had it and I let it get away," Barnes said. "I grabbed the ball in the 10th frame and pulled it. That's what you tend to do when the lanes are as difficult as they were today."

Nation, who lost the 2009 Earl Anthony women's title with an errant shot in the final frame, threw three strikes in the 10th frame this time to avenge her loss a year earlier.

"I was fortunate things fell my way," said Nation, who won her second PBA Women's Series title. "It was a very difficult lane condition. You had

Australian Bowling Proprietors' Association To Join The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America

ARLINGTON, TX, January 12, 2010 – The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA), the bowling industry's premier trade association, announced today that it has inked a global partnership agreement with the Australian Bowling Proprietors' Association (ABPA). The first-of-its-kind agreement, unprecedented in its scope and scale, brings together two of the largest entities in the bowling industry, immediately offering unrivaled business-building services to ABPA member centers.

"The ABPA has done tremendous work to advance the bowling industry throughout Australia and we're extremely proud to welcome each of its member centers to the BPAA family," said Steven Johnson, executive director of the BPAA. "This unprecedented agreement signifies both the surging worldwide popularity of bowling and increased interest in the BPAA's multinational branded products. Our partnership with the ABPA is a major first step as we expand our international services and tap into the burgeoning global market for bowling."

"We're thrilled to join the BPAA, a true leader and innovator in the bowling industry. The steady growth in bowler participation throughout North America – a 4.5% increase in the past year alone – is a testament to the impact that the BPAA has made through its investment in bowler and proprietor development products and services," said Gary O'Neill, chairman of the ABPA. "This agreement enables the ABPA to offer our member centers an incredible range of new offerings that will enhance the growth of their businesses."

Through the partnership agreement, the ABPA's members – more than 100 bowling centers across Australia – will now reap the membership benefits provided by the BPAA. The ABPA's members will be entitled to take full advantage of programs that include:

- Marketing tools such as the Bowlopolis brand youth development program
- Management, education and training programs including "Bowling University" (online accreditation) and "Coach it Up" (casual bowler training and in-center training courses)
- Web services, BowlerTrac (database software) and a soon to be announced innovative new online reservation system
- Numerous development, marketing and communications tools

"This historic agreement between the BPAA and ABPA marks an exciting milestone for the bowling industry, while creating a host of new business and consumer opportunities for ABPA members," said Jim Sturm, president of the BPAA and a director of the United States Bowling Congress (USBC). "Now is a very exciting time for bowling. From the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean, we're seeing growth across the map in consumer participation and a true spirit of solidarity across the industry."

Malucci Returns With A 1022 Win In So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Classic

CERRITOS — Last year when Carl Malucci, Las Vegas, hurt his back in the midst of his record breaking consecutive 700 streak, he had to forgo coming to bowl in the 46th Annual So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Singles Classic in order to recover and resume his bowling for the record streak. Previously, the smooth stroking lefthander who is the “Earl Anthony” of this Classic had won the 2006, 2007 and 2008 Classics and had to give up his chance for a fourth straight title. In Malucci’s absence, Paul Sanchez, Anaheim Hills won last year’s Classic at Linbrook Bowl with a 956 score.

Last Saturday, Malucci returned to bowl in the So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers 47th Annual Classic at AMF Cerritos Lanes. His first attempt with 246-205-229-259 for 939 on the 2 p.m. squad was not good enough. So he re-entered on the 4 p.m. squad and started blasting 7 strikes in a row before a 7-pin stopped him. Calmly, he spared and struck out for the tournament high 279 game and added 247-238-258 for the 1022 winning total.

Although the Classic drew only 41 entries, there was a record 13 900 scores with the amazing Ken DeGroff, Sunland making 3 of them and only his highest one 946 counted for the prize list. At 5-1 prize ratio, there were only 8 places paid and sadly the only woman Faith Ranck, Ontario’s 903 handicapped total failed to make it.

The 47th Annual Classic started with the Noon squad and at the end Malucci’s buddy Joey Harris, Las Vegas made an early lead with 961 total. Like last Wednesday night in their league in Las Vegas, Harris was in a consistent mode with 257-258-258 for 772 and he repeated his consistency here. In his 961 Harris started with 234-236-234 for 704 and finished with a 257.

Whittier’s Randy Salazar followed with his 146-202-212-168 for 728 plus 194 handicap for 922. Ken DeGroff, Sunland hit 227-203-258-214 for 902. Ed Abakumoff, Riverside one of the Classic directors had a 258 game in his 824 and Bob Jones, Simi Valley started with a 247 but finished with 188-180-203 for 818.

There was more excitement on the 2 p.m. squad with Harris re-entering and starting off with a 267 and then 222-241 for 730 but ran into a couple of splits and many taps for a 178 finish and 908 total. Meanwhile, Francisco Navarro, Riverside hot off his good bowling in last Sunday’s Deaf Travel League at Keystone Lanes, started with 194 and finished with 249-246-226 for 915 plus his 76 handicap for the then leading 991 score.

Navarro’s 991 and Malucci’s 939 in this squad were followed by DeGroff’s 2nd attempt 233-227-214-248 for 922, David Howton, Anaheim 212-203-194-174 for 783 plus 136 handicap 919, Harris’ 908, Philip Gomez, Bloomington with 163 average hitting a 257 second game and closing with a 136 for 726 plus 180 handicap for 906. The 141 average lady, Ranck had 171-140-167-141 for 619 plus 284 handicap for 903. Former 3-time champion Mark Fisser had 204-2136-213-216 for 869 plus 8 handicap for 877.

The climax came on the 4 p.m. squad with Malucci blasting a 1022, followed by durable DeGroff’s third and best attempt, 258-228-223 for 739 and 207 fishish for 946 and Robert Audette, Chno Heights making the last 900 with his 219-169-174-205 for 767 plus 140 handicap for 907. Fisser’s second attempt was ruined by a 7-10 split on a solid pocket hit in the 9th frame of his fourth game after 8 straight pocket strikes. He finished with three strikes in the 10th for a 264. He had 888 plus 8 handicap for 896, 4 pins short of a 900. He could have a 300 there but for that split. Last year’s champion Sanchez was hurt by a 143 third game in his 720 plus 168 handicap 888 score, 12 pins short of a 900.

Malucci received $410 for winning his 6th title in the last 9 years plus $25 for the high scratch series on the 4 p.m. squad and $40 for his 279 tournament high game. Navarro got $205 for his second place finish and Harris $100 for third place plus $25 for high handicap series on the Noon squad and $20 for his 267 game. The amazing DeGroff’s $75 for fourth place and $4.50 for his 258 high game tied with Abakumoff’s ($4.50) 258.

The rest of the prizes went to: Randy Salazar $60 for 5th place, David Howton $40 for 6th place, Robert Audette $25 for 7th place and Philip Gomez for 8th place. Special prize of $25 for ladies high handicap series on the Noon squad went to Tina Hall of Murrieta’s 842 score. Mark Fisser got $15 for his 264 game and Stella Lopez, Ontario $6 for her ladies 185 high game.

So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers thanks AMF Cerritos GM Ron Peter and his staff for hosting our tournament. A great many thanks to the committee of Ed Abakumoff, Sharon Caldwell and Robert Taylor and also to the entrants who came to our 47th annual tournament this year. Hope you all will return for our 48th year.

Citrus Belt’s AL BRADLEY Passes On

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS - Long time scratch bowler Al Bradley recently passed away at the age of 75. He was the father of eight children, and a grandfather eighteen times over.

Bradley retired as an Air Force Senior Master Sergeant, with over twenty years service. Bradley’s last Air Force commander spoke at the wake and said that Bradley was the hardest working cargo master he ever commanded, and a man of exceptional integrity. The nickname “HONEST AL” would be very appropriate.

There were over one hundred friends and family at the wake, most of whom were bowlers from EMPIRE BOWL. It is true, bowlers support their own.

Bradley was laid to rest at the National Cemetery in Riverside. Al Bradley carried a 200 plus average for over ten seasons. He also bowled two 800 series and two 300 games. Impressive stuff, but Al will be remembered even more for his sense of humor and big smile. He was the consummate joker. Al, you will be missed by all of us.

LAKEWOOD — Southern California is getting the much needed rain this week. Between the heavy rainfall and strong winds everything is getting washed the "natural" way. Be careful driving and try to keep dry when you're out.

Who made the list in our Cal Bowl Bowling Report this week? The answer follows...

Cecilia Lung Wins ABTA Title at Westminster

Richard Lim Hits $1,500 Match Game • Match Series Carries Over
Match Game est $3,250 • Match Series est $2,200 • 3-6-9 is $1,500 in Vegas
Las Vegas Is This Week Thur/Fri/Sat/Sun at the South Point $10,000 1st Possible
Each Day is a Separate Qualifying Day • Onsite Entries Are Welcome

WESTMINSTER—Good things happen to Good people and one of the best. Cecilia Lung one of fine lady members stepped up and won her first ABTA title at Westminster Lanes, wining her first title in fine style downing upstart Bobbie Mc Collum in the title game of pretty ladies. We have now had 3 events in 2010 and two are lady Champions! Cecilia won from the top seeded position, in the top 16 Single Elim Final. Cecilia bested 246 entries in a nice turn out which saw cut scores of Men +42 and the ladies one pin better +43, with the nice turnout, 58 bowlers advanced to the semifinals including Super Seniors added to the board Bud Zagorski, Roger Romero and Dodie Sajonas in hopes of making the top 16 singe elims.

The semis began and ended with Cecilia Lung topping the field at a +154 followed by Cesar Marcella at +125. We had Cecilia sit out to bowl the title game, with Cesar receiving a first round bye in the top 16. It took a nice +52 to make the sweet 16 including 4 ladies.

Round One was on and Losers were Jerry Fagan, Mike Pecora, Ted Villaroman, Sophia Kim, Rina Cordero, Danny Eguilos, and Rico Cayton.

We saw Jiradej Harnpatanakitpanich, Jon Barraca, Sal Galluzzo, Toms Licauco lose out. They got checks of $105.

Round two had Thomas Licauco, Jon Barraca, Sal Galluzzo and Jiradej H. lose out and were 6-9th places and $115 each.

Round three got Interesting as Bobbie McCollum downed Art Windsor, and Henry Hoang edged Cesar Marcella. So Cesar and Art were 4th and 5th with great bowling. Bobbie and Henry to meet for the right to bowl for the title vs Cecilia Lung. Bobbie again on her game bested the likeable Hoang in a 242-177 game. Henry was 3rd with great bowling and $205 with Bobbie off to the title game.

The title game now underway and both bowlers had one open in three frames. Then Bobbie opened in frame 4. Both bowlers were clean but in frames 8-9 Cecilia put it away. A double to Bobbie's open, due to a big split. The title went to the pretty gal from Monterey Park 187/230-160/208 and a nice First Prize of $2,050. No one is nicer and few can be more competitive. Great Bowling Cecilia, and see you in Las Vegas.

Great bowling by Bobbie who almost got her first title. Ryan Nam who did so well, and almost got the win and same be said for Ronnie Cordero. They are two of the good guys.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Art Windsor +194. Bobbie Mc Collum led the ladies +97. They both get paid entries to any regular event.

The doubles were topped by Vuong Do and Art Windsor 1451 and $160. Jerry Chang and Cecilia Lung 1397 $140. Cecilia and Henry Hoang 1389 and $120. We paid 23 places and a Sweet $1,580 in the doubles to our members. Not bad for a $5 entry fee!

The Match Game was UN Matched at 264 so we will definitely have a $3,500 Match Game in Las Vegas this weekend as there is already $1,400 in reserve.

The Match Series was UN matched at 601, so with a $420 Carry Over, we expect the Series to go for over $2,000 in Las Vegas. Big Pots Available there, and for only a $2 entry fee.

Tim Tran was last up in the 3-6-9. So we go for $1,600 in Las Vegas. Tim got $50 for beer money.

Germ Free Finger Holes?

by Carol Mancini

NORWALK — Last Tuesday, I left the Bowling News office to head home and switched on talk radio.

I don't know the names of the two hosts that were talking and taking calls. It doesn't really matter — the subject of conversation matters.

I will just call them DICK and JANE. (Does that date me?)

DICK was asking JANE: "I heard that you took your kids bowling on New Years Day. Was it fun?"

JANE: "We had a blast. We bowled a couple of games, ordered some curly fries, chicken wings, great nachos and drinks. We spent at least 2 hours eating, licking our fingers and bowling...eating, licking our fingers and bowling. Finishing our last game, my 19 year old daughter stopped, looked at me and questioned, 'Wonder how many other families have eaten, licked their fingers and bowled?'"

I almost drove up the curb trying to come to a safe stop! I listened a few more minutes. The conversation went something like this:

DICK: "I wonder if bowling centers have giant ball cleaners somewhere that wash out the finger holes every night? You know, like the golf ball washers."

JANE: "I was thinking about all those thousands of fingers, lickin' and stickin', maybe I should bring sanitizers next time."

DICK: "Did you rent shoes or bring your own?"

JANE: "Oh God, Don't even bring up the dirty feet idea!"

DICK: "You know, JANE, I was raised in a military bowling family, and we bowled in some mighty strange places, like Japan, Russia, Alaska, Reno, Vegas, Mexico, even on an aircraft carrier, and guess what? We never caught a cold, got an infection, or were attacked by a fungus. Who needs a flu shot? Whatever is in the finger holes of bowling balls cures all! Maybe scientists should scrape a few samples and test them."

JANE: "You know, I've been feeling a little tired lately and just not right. I think I'll go bowling tomorrow and test your theory."

I can tell you, folks, after bowling for 50 years, and doing a lot of eatin' and finger lickin', their conversation tweaked a sensor.

But...my other sensors tell me to leave a good thing alone!

to make good shots and hope. I followed my gut, made a move and I was able to strike out in the 10th frame. That was the difference.”

In addition to a $10,000 prize, the victory also earned Nation the final berth in the PBA Women’s Series Showdown presented by BOWL.COM which will be conducted in April at the new United States Bowling Congress International Training and Research Center in Arlington, Texas. Kelly Kulick, Union, N.J.; Shannon Pluhowsky, Kettering, Ohio; Liz Johnson, Cheektowaga, N.Y.; Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Keller, Texas, and Michelle Feldman, Auburn, N.Y., had previously qualified for the special event during the PBA World Series of Bowling.

The Earl Anthony Memorial, the ninth event of the 2009-10 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season, was dedicated to the late superstar who was recognized as the greatest player in PBA history last January during the organization’s 50th anniversary celebration. Anthony, the first player in PBA history to earn $1 million, was a 43-time PBA Tour champion.

Strikes, Spares & A Check Fed Amost 5,000

LAKE FOREST — Treesa Spencer planned a fundraiser, hoping to feed 1,500 at the Orange County Rescue Mission, but she never dreamed she'd help almost 5,000 eat a Thanksgiving meal. When she went to Forest Lanes to pick up a check for $2,222 — the money raised from the Big Gobbler bowling tournament held on November 14 — she found another check for $5,000.

“Without their donation we raised $2,222 — enough to provide 1,501 meals, which only exceeded my goal of 1,500 by one,” she said. “With the additional $5,000 and $30 more dollars that I got from some friends, our total was $7,252, which will feed 4,900 homeless people. I just screamed. I was so shocked and excited.”

Spencer, a former professional bowler, planned and organized the 2nd annual Big Gobbler tournament at Forest Lanes on November 14. Plenty of people tured out. She raised the proceeds from the cost of the entry fees and raffle prizes.

For a month, Spencer — now a youth coordinator at Forest Lans — combed South County to get sponsors to donate to the bowling event. Some of the big ticket raffle prizes included a golf package for four to play Tijeras Creek Golf Club, motorcycle jackets from Kawasaki Motor Corp., a grooming and pet health check at Muirlands Animal Hospital and gift cards from local vendors.

Two years ago the 66-year-old Lake Forest woman cried when she watched a news program that showed homeless people waiting for food at a soup kitchen — only to find a sign on a closed door saying everything was gone.

“Something just touched my heart when I saw their struggle,” she said. “Some people are very desperate at this time. I want them to know people around them care because this time next year these people will help others.”

With check in hand Spener visited the Rescue Mission. She described it as immaculate and well-manicured. There is a courtyard, chapel and a children's playground.

“They get people's lives turned around and give them hope,” she said. “My heart was just swollen out of my chest when I got these donations for them. I knew this year was hard and good pantries are bare.”

 LAS VEGAS TRAVEL LEAGUE
By Alice Meglemre

FOUNTAIN BOWL — Vegas league bowlers braved the storm Monday to travel to Fountain Bowl and though the weather was cold and damp, scoring was good with super sub Teri Hefner topping the list at 206-579. Jamie Vallier was a close second on 225-576, followed by Barbara Bishop 200-546, Dynasty Williams 204-535, Shanta Pittman 518, Madeline Majick 204-514, Bety Phillips 508 and Jerry Whitehurst 501.

Third Week Of Third Round

DOWNEY — The same Mikey Villareal that won the J.A.T. senior event a couple of weeks ago, was smackin’ the pins around Monday night to post the high series of 668. Gary Duran and Vernon Adams each claimed 641 for second.

When you say “scratch” game on the third round, “condition from hell”, it means you dig and scratch on every ball.

Daniel Ruiz really “dug it” for a 259. Alan Mojado mojoed 255 and Brandon Golden had the touch for a 245.

There is one female bowler who braved the league this year, and she is Melody Garcia. Her 523 was good enough to make the sheet this week. Her highest series is listed at 596. She came in with a 190 book average and carrying 170, but the odds are she’ll be back on top on the 4th round condition.

Strikehardapparel.com, winner of round two tops the sheet this week, tied with Herzog Insurance. And lucky them, they get to bowl each other next week. (Position round every week.)

Tied for third – Western Pacific and J.A.T. Western Pacific won round one, so it looks like the tough just keep on truckin’.

The league sheet also shows over-all wins for the season. Western Pacific 65, Strikehardapparel 62, J.A.T. 61, and Sysco 55.

We haven’t mentioned the payoff for this league. How about $16,000 first, $12,000 for second, $10,000 third, $8,000 for fourth, and $6,000 for fifth! All 16 teams cash. The last place is guaranteed $1,000.

Thanks to all the sponsors, the prize funds have always been guaranteed and paid.

South Los Angeles County Youth Travel

by Otha Stubblefield

LOS ANGELES—Happy New Year! Our first meeting of South LA County Youth Travel was at AMF Midtown Lanes in Mid-City Los Angeles. The staff there was wonderful as always and it's a great asset to the community.

Out of the many houses we visit, Midtown has one of the more challenging patterns. It is definitely not a shot for swingers, which most youth bowlers would like to be.

Jeremy Glover overcame those tendencies to lead scoring with a 869 series. There was minor variance between his games – 216, 218, 225 and 210. I am proud to report that the second highest scorer was one of the girls.

Shirniece Beeks who was matched against Jeremy in the first set of two games tried very hard to keep up. She didn't win any points, but still bowled enough for second place at 734, with a 202 high game. As a reward for being first and second, both Jeremy and Shirniece earned a free entry into the next day's JAT and JAT Farm Club.

Shirniece edged out Eric Torrence by two pins whose 213 high game earned him a 732 series. Rounding out the 700's was Lawrence Merriweather at 704. Demenia Redwine rounded out the girl's scores at 157/540. The only other reported 200 was Antone Beeks' 203. The race for 1st place is very tight right now with only 4 points separating 1st and 3rd place.

The surprise JAT win-a-spot worked so well this past week that I'm pretty sure that it will come back in the future. Pepsi qualifying is next week and the 23rd, you must be present during league to qualify. Also, don't forget that the 23rd is the due date for entry fees for the South LA County USBC championship. Our next league session will be at AMF Bowl-O-Drome See you at 1:30 on Saturday.

TORRANCE – Our sessions this week was at AMF Bowl-O-Drome. We got to bowl on one pairs of Chameleon, but to be honest, it played just like the other pairs.

Jeremy Glover led scoring with 225/816, followed by Lawrence Merriweather 197/751, Antone Beeks 695, Claudell Redwine 689, Patrick Ruiz 653, Sherniece Beeks 603, and Demenia Redwine 544.

Team 2 has edged ahead of Team 5 in the standings, but teams 2, 5 and 6 are now 2 – ½ games apart. This week at Gardena will close out your Pepsi qualifying. Be sure to let me know what tournaments you want to bowl (NLAC and SLAC association, TNBA, State), so we can stay ahead of these deadlines. See you at 1:30 on Saturday.
