2 Popular San Diego Bowling Centers Closing

by Mary McKenzie - KGTV

SAN DIEGO – Two popular San Diego bowling centers will be closing permanently, the manager of both locations told ABC 10News.

Johnny Humble came to Kearny Mesa Bowl on Tuesday and was greeted by some of his devoted league bowlers who came to say goodbye. Kearny Mesa Bowl and Mira Mesa Lanes had been “surviving on vapors” this past year due to the coronavirus pandemic, only able to open for about two weeks in 2020.

Humble was visibly upset, thinking of his employees. For many, he said, this was their only job, and they had loyally been with him for decades in some cases.

Neal Methvin is one of the longtime bowlers who said he'd been coming to Kearny Mesa Bowl since 1984, two nights per week, as part of a large recreational league. Methvin said he misses the sport, and the camaraderie of time spent with good friends.

Humble dutifully signed pins for bowlers to keep as a souvenir. They stood and hugged, fighting back tears, as though saying final goodbyes to family.

The locations were able to open for just two weeks this past year, abiding by safety requirements, but after the shutdown in December, they haven't been able to reopen.

Humble explained that he tried to hold on as long as he could, but the land is just too valuable.

He said both lots are to be sold to make way for development, and he is preparing for an auction of some of the items later this month. WATCH MORE

Jillian Martin, Spencer Robarge Win Inaugural PBA Jr. National Championship Titles

Kyle Troup and Nate Purches Win Pro/Jr. Doubles Championship

by Jef Goodger

JUPITER, Fla. – Jillian Martin and Spencer Robarge became the first PBA Jr. National Champions, each earning $7,500 in SMART Scholarships along with their titles. Martin won the girls division with a victory over Victoria Varano and Robarge defeated Nate Purches to win the boys division.

After 16-year-old Varano finished with a 246 game, Martin, also 16, needed two strikes in the 10th frame to win the girls division. Martin rolled all three strikes, giving her six in a row to finish with a 257 game and the title.

Martin, who finished second in the 2021 PWBA ITRC Classic in January, was the No. 2 seed after 10 games of match play, then defeated Alyssa Ballard to earn a spot in the televised finals against top-seeded Varano.

In the boys division title match, No. 1 seed Robarge, 18, posted a 227 game that held up when 17-year-old Purches, needing to fill 21

Francois Lavoie, The Face-Masked Crusader Of Bowling

by Dave Williams

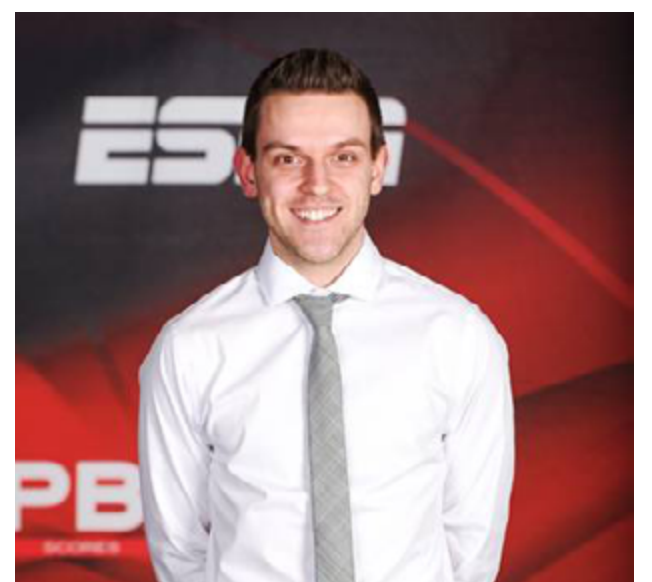

If you met Francois Lavoie in person at your local bowling center, you would probably be reminded of a resigned, shy character reminiscent of Bruce Wayne, the alter ego of Batman, rather than the famous Caped Crusader of comic book and motion picture fame.

The quiet, unassuming professional bowler from Quebec City, QC, weighs in at a mere 128 pounds distributed on a chiseled 5'6" frame (for those of you in Canada - that's 58 kg in weight and 170 cm in height). But what Lavoie lacks in stature, he more than makes up for with his intense concentration.

I sometimes wonder if the face-mask mandate has made Lavoie a better, or more confident bowler, similar to the reserved character of Bruce Wayne, who becomes the Dark Knight whenever he dons the cowl of Batman. Lavoie was already off to one of the best starts of any professional kegler in history, with two U.S. Open titles (2016 and 2019) and a Rookie of the Year accolade in 2016.

However, what he has continued on page 7

“What Might Have Been” – LIZ JOHNSON As The All-Time Winningest Professional Female Bowler

by Frank Weiler

Liz Johnson

tiplied by [B] the number of years expected to compete after 2003 plus [C] the actual number of titles won before 2004 and after 2014 equals [D] The projected total of titles that might have been won). In algebraic terms the equation would read: A x B + C = D.

Since Lisa Wagner retired at age 39 and runner-up Titleist Aleta Rzepecki-Sill retired at age 40 I used the age 40 as my cut-off age for the bowlers studied. I made exceptions for Hulsenberg, Kulick and Johnson because they have continued to successfully compete to this day while being in their mid 40's (Kulick and Johnson) to their early 50's (Hulsenberg is 53).

Liz Johnson was Bowler of The Year for 2017 at the age of 43! Hulsenberg won the Women's US OPEN in Dallas in 2011 at the age of 44 and continues to compete on Tour. Kulick won her latest title during the 2018 WPBA season at age 41.

The table below reflects my findings and is my rationale for declaring that Liz Johnson would have surpassed Lisa Wagner and become the winningest female professional bowler of All-Time:

| | Name | Age (2004) | A | x | B | + | C | = | D |
|-------|---------------------|------------|------|---|----|---|-----|---|----|
| 1. | Liz Johnson | 29 | 1.3 | | 11 | | 24 | | 38 |
| 2. | Leanne Hulsenberg | 36 | 1.6 | | 4 | | 27 | | 33 |
| 3. | Michelle Feldman | 31 | 1.7 | | 9 | | 12 | | 27 |
| 4. | Wendy MacPherson | 35 | 1.2 | | 5 | | 20 | | 26 |
| 5. | Cathy Dorin-Ballard | 38 | 1.4 | | 2 | | 20 | | 23 |
| 6. | Cara Honeychurch | 32 | 1.6 | | 8 | | 8 | | 21 |
| 7/8. | Kim Adler | 36 | 1.25 | | 4 | | 15 | | 20 |
| | Kelly Kulick* | 26 | 1.1 | | 11 | | 8 | | 20 |
| 9/10. | Dede Davidson | 37 | .5 | | 3 | | 9 | | 11 |
| | Marianne Dirupo | 36 | .72 | | 4 | | 8 | | 11 |

An examination of my theoretical calculations show that if a Professional Tour (PWBA or LPBT) was active from 2004 through 2014 Liz Johnson would today be the winningest female professional bowler of All-Time. The All-Time winners list would look like this:

| | Name | Titles |
|------|---------------------|----------------|
| 1. | Liz Johnson | 38 (Projected) |
| 2. | Leanne Hulsenberg | 33 (Projected) |
| 3. | Lisa Wagner | 32 (Actual) |
| 4. | Aleta Rzepecki-Sill | 31 (Actual) |
| 5. | Michelle Feldman | 27 (Projected) |
| 6. | Wendy MacPherson | 26 (Projected) |
| 7/8. | Tish Johnson | 25 (Actual) |
| | Patty Costello | 25 (Actual) |
| 9. | Cathy Dorin-Ballard | 23 (Projected) |
| 10. | Cara Honeychurch | 21 (Projected) |

While Liz Johnson sits at the top of my “Virtual” Titleist List there is still a possibility that she could end up at the top of Bowling's Actual List of Titleists when she retires. She is still active and may easily add to her actual total of 24 PWBA Titles and 3 PBA Titles (One National and two Women's Series Titles).

Old timers might wonder how many Titles MARION LADEWIG might have won had there been a full blown Women's Tour during her hey day. Remember, Marion won eight (8) Women's US Open Tournaments from 1949 to 1963. She also won five (5) World Invitational tournaments during that period. That's 13 Championships in 14 years (there was no US Open in 1954) with only one or two tournaments a year. Her winning percentage (about 50%) during those years when applied to a season of 14 to 20 tournaments a year would translate into 7 to 10 wins a year during those 14 seasons. That would translate into 98 to 140 lifetime Titles! Those numbers would be “RUTHIAN” and unapproachable.

Okay, you have heard the evidence and now you can judge for yourself who should be Bowling's All-Time winningest female professional bowler.

*For purposes of my projections, Kelly Kulick's average number of Titles won per year takes into account her wins before 2004 and after 2014 because she only competed for two years prior to 2004.

For purposes of my projections, Kelly Kulick's actual number of Tournament victories include her wins between 2004 and 2014.

Carol's Corner

The sun is playing hide and seek. The mountains are covered with snow and over 6000 people are still homeless here in Southern Oregon.

My daughter surprised me yesterday with a treat that brought back a dozen sweet memories. A box of CrackerJacks!!

The summer that I was 10 years old, my aunt in Independence Missouri invited me to visit her family for a couple of weeks. I lived in Chanute Kansas. Population 10,198. So, I was put on the Streamliner and headed North.

We went to the zoo, a movie, Swope Park, rode the trolley cars and ate in a Café, all in Kansas City. Chanute didn't have a café!

One rainy day we stayed home. She brought out a beat up cigar box, shook it and carefully opened the lid.

It was filled with prizes from boxes of Cracker Jacks! All kinds of plastic doodads, rings, tiny books, puzzles, etc. etc. etc. We spent hours checking each treasure. She could spin a good tale and had a laugh that could be heard for blocks. A day I'll never forget. Thanks to a box of caramel popcorn.

The 2021 CrackerJacks still have peanuts and prizes. Treat your family and friends. Maybe they have a story to share.

P.S. My aunt played the organ every Sunday at the Christian church that the Harry S. Truman family attended. I got to visit the Truman Memorial years later.

Looking Back 2008

by Carol Mancini

I'll be highlighting headlines and scores for January thru June this time.

- Fountain Bowl hosted the PBA open in January.
- Team number 8 in Forest Lanes Trios was named "Kicks Butt!"
- Michael Summers - Eagle Lanes rolled his 300 game in the senior league.
- The TAT at The Orleans offered $600,000 in prize money.
- Spectator tickets for PBA at Fountain Bowl was $10 a day.
- 43 centers and 5 associations were listed on directory page.
- Dean added a weekly Bowling News Sudoku.
- Dick Sanders was in charge of the Western California Senior Tour.
- Del Rosa Lanes in San Bernardino was still open and "home" base for a lot of regulars.
- Gary Kowarsch, former manager at Cal Bowl took over at La Habra "300" Bowl.
- Cal Bowl "King" in January was Emerson Wafer. Started off the year with 300, 299, 238/837. (He thought the 300 was number 68 not sure.)
- J.T. "Action" Jackson rolled his first 300 of the year at Del Rio Lanes.
- David Yamauchi provided plenty of action for teens every week-end. He's still at it in 2021! Way to go!
- Wes Mallot won the Medford, Oregon PBA Open, he beat Rhino Page.
- Budweiser was named the official beer of the BPAA.
- E.J. Rogers was perfect in the "neighborhood" of Anaheim.
- Regal Lanes closed January 31, 2008, all 72 lanes.
- Yorba Linda Bowl had auto scoring installed.
- Forest Lanes - Four fellows shot 300 in "Football League", James Maloney, Jason Woody, Kevin Trambley and John Mil-lison.
- Canoga Park Bowl Biggie in February, Mike Johnson 300.
- Southwest Bowl saluted Deborah Sanders for her first 300 game. Kelly Gold racked up 12 for 300 at Corbin Bowl.
- Dave Piazza was (and is in 2021) the top gun at Keystone Lanes.
- Writer Joe Lyou died of a stroke at 88.
- Texas paid the USBC $693,000 to move from Greendale to Arlington.
- Cal Bowl announced a hiring of the new general manager Vincent Rachel.
- Corbin Bowl perfect's for Gary Gurney, Ron Riffert and Dericio Atkins.
- Some guy named Dave Wodka chalked up 235, 300, 268/803. Yup that's a "Lotta Wodka."
- Bowling News scribe Frank Kietz joined Joe Lyou on God's team. He was 91. He was responsible for the ABC rule change "Whites Only Could Be Members" At last - all men would be treated equal.
- Junior bowler Brittlan Halperm rolls his first 300 at Pinz.
- Wendell Rainwater won the NABI using his STORM ball.
- Southwest Bowl closed. It opened in 1958 in L.A. - Ken Del-Conte was owner/manager.
- Robbie Robinson designer of the Robbie Glove passed away April 24, 2008. He must've donated 5000 gloves to any organiza-tion who asked. Five ladies sewed the gloves five days a week. He invented many items from shoe covers to positioners.
- Pat on the back for two Orange County gals. 300's for Tennelle Milligan and Stacy Rider.
- Number one ball driller in Southern California Mike Fessler passed away in his sleep on May 8. Dozens wrote stories about their friendships.
- The first night of the Big Bear League at Cal Bowl will always be remembered by employee Eric Snow, he piled up the wood for 279, 259, 265/803. Remember???

These were the highlights of the first six months of 2008. For a complete news, you can read all issues online at CaliforniaBowling-News.com. Enjoy.

PBA Playoffs Return to Fox April 24th

by JLauffer

The PBA Tour's top 16 bowlers to compete for first place prize of $100,000

NEW YORK, NY – The Professional Bowlers Association has released more of the 2021 Guaranteed Rate PBA Tour season, with the highly anticipated return of the PBA Playoffs on FOX Sports starting April 24th.

The PBA Tour's high-stakes event is back for a third-year in a row with Bill O'Neill and Kris Prather as champions in 2020 and 2019, respectively. The Playoffs will once again feature a $100,000 first place prize and a title on the line as the Tour's top 16 players compete head-to-head in a bracket style, race-to-two-games elimination tournament. Ties will be determined by a 9th/10th frame roll-off.

The top 16 players will earn their spots in the Playoffs based on 2021 points accumulated at the PBA Players Championship, Tournament of Champions, World Series of Bowling (inclusive of all five events), U.S. Open, and the USBC Masters.

The PBA Playoffs will take place from April 24 – May 16, location to be announced at a later date.

The TV schedule is as follows:

PBA Playoffs: Round of 16 – Saturday, April 24, 11 a.m. ET on FS1

No. 1 vs. No. 16

No. 8 vs No. 9

PBA Playoffs: Round of 16 – Sunday, April 25, 1:30 p.m. ET on FS1

No. 4 vs. No. 13

No. 5 vs. No. 12

PBA Playoffs Round of 16 – Saturday, May 1, 11:30 a.m. ET on FS1

No. 2 vs. No. 15

No. 7 vs. No. 10

PBA Playoffs: Round of 16 – Sunday, May 2, 7 p.m. ET on FS1

No. 3 vs. No. 14

No. 6 vs. No. 11

PBA Playoffs: Quarterfinals – Sunday, May 9, 12 p.m. ET on FS1

Matches TBD after Round of 16

PBA Playoffs: Quarterfinals – Monday, May 10, 8 p.m. ET on FS1

Matches TBD after Round of 16

PBA Playoffs: Semifinals – Saturday, May 15, 11 a.m. ET on FS1

Matches TBD after Quarterfinals

PBA Playoffs: Finals – Sunday, May 16, 2 p.m. ET on FS1

Matches TBD after Semifinals

Fans can catch all the action of the 2021 PBA Tour on FOX and Fox Sports' FS1, and live stream the PBA on the FOX Sports and FOX NOW apps or at FOXSports.com. Select highlights will be available on @FOXSports social handles across Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube.

Additional details on PBA Tour events, tournament formats, host bowling centers, and more post-May will be announced at a later date.

During this uncertain time, the PBA's main priority continues to be the health and safety of its players and staff. The PBA is taking all necessary precautions and following local and federal COVID-19 guidelines to reduce risks and modify procedures as needed. For a complete list of the PBA's COVID-19 related standards and procedures, please visit PBA.com.

Five Titles Up For Grabs At 2021 PBA World Series Of Bowling

by Lucas Wiseman

One of the most important stretches of the PBA Tour season is taking place starting March 7th when the 2021 PBA World Series of Bowling gets underway.

JOIN NOW to watch the 2021 World Series of Bowling.

With five PBA Tour titles on the line, including the season's third major, there will be action from AMF University Lanes in Tampa, Florida, every day from Sunday through March 17.

FloBowling will provide live, exclusive coverage of every qualifying and match play round of every event. The finals will be broadcast by FOX Sports (U.S.) and FloBowling (international).

The 96 players in the field will compete for titles in the PBA World Championship (a major), the PBA Cheetah Championship, PBA Chameleon Championship, PBA Scorpion Championship and the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship.

In all, the World Series of Bowling will offer a total prize fund of $650,000. The animal pattern events and the doubles event will pay $30,000 for first place, while the PBA World Championship features a $100,000 payday for the winner.

The field will feature all of the players in FloBowling's PBA Power Rankings, including Francois Lavoie, Kyle Troup, Anthony Simonsen, Jason Belmonte, Jesper Svensson, Bill O'Neill, Tom Smallwood, Sean Rash, Dick Allen and EJ Tackett.
