CORKY De MAIO'S 833 is A Empire Bowl Senior Record

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Corky De Maio rolled a huge 833 (236-299-298) set last week in Empire Bowl's Senior Noonlighters League. The series is a new senior league record for the house.

The previous record (828) was set by Bobby Lyons and tied by Larry Boyd. It has been nearly five years since Mr. Boyd tied Bobby's record.

Corky has been bowling for over six decades. He has many honor scores and a personal high of 847. His pocket is full of victories and so many memories. While many of his past seasons have been rich with highlights this season is starting out as if it could be his best ever.

Just several weeks ago Corky won his eleventh West Coast Senior Tour (WCST) title. He was 77 at the time, making him the oldest bowler to win a WCST event. He is currently averaging 238 in the Noonlighters League and that is three pins higher than his career high book of 235. Now he rolls a house record. What a start to a new season. A season that could be Corky's best!

Corky DeMaio

De Maio used a Storm IQ Tour Solid to roll his record score. He received the ball in his Pro Shop from Jim Callahan, Storm's Regional Sales Manager. De Maio is grateful for Storm's support and the confidence Mr. Callahan has exhibited in him.

It is great to see Corky bowl so well. While he is a Citrus Belt Hall of Famer the last few years have been tough.

Two years ago he suffered a rotator cuff injury and it has been a difficult road back. While he is still not 100% it does appear that he is not far from a full recovery.

Congratulations Corky and thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting California senior bowlers.

CIMINELLI WINS BOWLMOR AMF U.S. OPEN FOR FIRST MAJOR TITLE

GARLAND, TX – Top qualifier Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, New York, captured his first major title by winning the final match at the Bowlmor AMF U.S. Open on Sunday.

Ciminelli, who led the field by 461 pins to earn the top spot in the stepladder finals, held off Dominic Barrett of Colchester, England, 236-223, in the title match at AMF Garland Lanes.

"I thought I would get a major eventually in my career, but never in a million years did I think it would be the U.S. Open, especially the first one," said Ciminelli, who was making his fifth TV show appearance in a major. "I said it before and I'll say it again, I just don't believe it."

Holding a four-pin lead heading into the final frame, Ciminelli knew he needed the first two strikes to close out Barrett, the No. 4 seed who had won three matches to reach the final.

"I was just focused on one shot at a time, not looking at the eagle, not looking at the jacket, and just bowling the best game I could bowl," said Ciminelli, the only left-hander in the field to reach the 24-player cut to match play. "When I needed those two in the 10th to lock him out, I knew I couldn't give him a chance. Both of our looks were good and then I would have had to rely on a bad break or something. I wasn't OK with that. I wanted to win on the approach and not sitting down."

Barrett had taken out the defending champion and two hall of famers to reach the title match.

"I bowled really well this week and almost made the most of it," Barrett said. "Ryan is a very deserving champion. He ran away with the lead and he did deserve to win."

In the semifinal match, Barrett slipped past five-time U.S. Open champion Pete Weber of St. Ann, Missouri, 218-200. After failing to convert a 3-4 split in the sixth, Weber struck in the seventh and eighth to have a chance but then left back-to-back 10 pins.

FRANK DeLUCA World War II VETERAN Bowler and Duca de Del Rosa

by Frank Weiler

Frank DeLuca

SAN BERNARDINO — Yes, Frank DeLuca is the Duke of Del Rosa (Lanes). The Ducal moniker may be the result of a rumor that this native of Italy is the great grandson of the Grand Duke Alfredo Alonzo DeLuca DeBrazio. Since Frank denies any ties to DeLuca DeBrazio it is more likely that his "title" is the result of his good looks and impeccable wardrobe.

No matter the reason for Frank's title, he is bowling royalty. Why, because rumor has it that he is a loyal league bowler who has never missed a league session in 50 years! He is the toast of his teammates because he is gracious, caring and humorous while still being a tough competitor.

Frank was born Francesco Antonino DeLuca on July 16, 1924 during the period just before the end of "OLD EUROPE". A time and way of life destroyed forever by economic upheaval and World War II. His dad Luigi and mom Isabella were farmers. They had five children, four boys and a girl, and four cows. The farm was located in San Constantino in southern Italy, the Calabria region. The countryside there was beautiful, the people genuine and life then was like it had been for centuries.

Farm life in those days was hard but love made everything easy. Life was carts not trucks, pumps not faucets, wicks not switches and drafts not flushes. Frank says one doesn't notice when that's all you know.

DeLuca was a young teenager when World War continued on page 6

Why Bowl in Leagues? Here’s Why

by Fred Eisenhammer

*About.com lists 10 reasons to join a bowling league.
Here are the reasons along with my comments:*

1 – The Characters

About.com Bowling: League bowling brings out some of the most colorful, interesting, baffling personalities in the world. You have no idea these people are in your community until you join a bowling league. From unbelievably talented bowlers to inexplicably strange humans, you get a cross-section of society you didn’t realize existed.

Fred Eisenhammer: Because there are so many characters, there is absolutely no shortage of individuals to write about. You never know when you encounter a bowling league icon like Ken Borshell among the mix of players. Borshell is someone who for 30 years has traveled round trip more than 200 miles once every week just so he can bowl in Los Angeles on the same league team as his good friends. Borshell hit the road from Bakersfield for the first seven years and then drove from Palm Desert for 23 years. He’s now decided to bowl closer to home.

2 – Camaraderie

About.com Bowling: Bowling leagues, especially with your friends (or strangers who will become your friends), are great ways to spend a few hours a week.

Fred Eisenhammer: It’s a great way to make friends, especially for widows and widowers.

3 – Fun

About.com Bowling: Whether league bowling or not, it’s fun to bowl.

Fred Eisenhammer: Not only is it fun, but it’s exciting. Recently, Guys and Dolls anchor man Greg Kolski prepared to bowl in the10th frame of his second league game knowing that the game was on the line. Kolski needed to mark to seal the victory for his team. Considering his average was a robust 186, Kolski’s teammates were feeling pretty confident. Then Kolski drilled a pocket shot that inexplicably left the imposing 6-7 split and it was apparent that the bowling gods had intervened to upset the norm. There were no groans from Kolski’s team. It was more like shock. Then Kolski threw his big hook for his second shot, and again it was another huge surprise. He clipped the 6 pin gently on the right side and the pin slid over and barreled into the 7 – an improbable shot that snatched victory from the jaws of defeat.

4 – Gambling

About.com Bowling: Small-time gambling is acceptable in most bowling leagues. Often, half your league fees go toward your bowling and the other half goes toward the prize fund. At the end of the season, you and your team will receive prize money based on where you finish. Individual prizes are usually up for grabs, too. Other ways to win a pit-tance during league bowling involve card games and strike pots.

Fred Eisenhammer: It’s not usually a tremendous sum of money up for grabs, but bowlers are a competitive group – and even a little money means a lot.

5 – Fitness

About.com Bowling: Repeatedly hurling a heavy sphere requires strength and endurance, and you can burn a significant number of calories bowling.

Fred Eisenhammer: Bowling may not be the exercise program prescribed by your doctor, but even a little exercise is better than none.

6 – Pizza

About.com Bowling: Never mind you’re counteracting the exercise portion while cutting into your prize fund – it’s delicious.

Fred Eisenhammer: No mention of beer?

7 – Television

About.com Bowling: If bowling isn’t enough for you, many bowling alleys have TVs playing whatever most of you want to watch (typically sports). Depending on the time of your league, you can watch entire hockey and baseball games while bowling.

Fred Eisenhammer: Hockey? No thanks. Thumbs-up on football and basketball – and any game involving the Los Angeles Dodgers or the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

8 – United States Bowling Congress Membership

About.com Bowling: You’ll be a part of the USBC, which costs less than $20 a year (and is often hidden in your league fees, so you don’t even have to think about it if you don’t want to). Membership qualifies you for awards and gives you discounts with various merchants, including hotels and rental cars.

Fred Eisenhammer: As a USBC member, a bowler is eligible to participate in many tournaments, such as the West Coast Senior Tour, which often has events in the Southland.

9 – Relaxation

About.com Bowling: Except on the nights during which you’re bowling so poorly you find yourself doing anything but relaxing, the sport can give you a nice respite from the workday or workweek. Show up, relax, throw a few frames and have fun.

Fred Eisenhammer: Relaxation is nice in theory. Fact is, even a small pot of money at the end of the rainbow creates a competitive environment. And many bowlers feel the tension during the ninth and 10th frames. But competitiveness is a good thing. It’s fun to show that one can come through when the chips are down. A bad thing is when some bowlers resort to gamesmanship – deliberately distracting the other team’s bowlers or “disappearing” so the other team’s players bowl ahead of them in the 10th frame.

10 – Status

About.com Bowling: You’ll be amazed by how many people are impressed when they find out you bowl in a league.

Fred Eisenhammer: Perhaps more importantly, bowling in a league could provide a boost to your self-esteem. Your first 200 game, your first 500 series – it shows that you can accomplish things in your 30s, 40s, 50s, 60s, 70s, 80s and older. It’s no coincidence that some of the most successful people are avid bowlers.

Perhaps It's Time Women Bowlers Lend a Hand to PBA League

by Fred Eisenhammer

Late last month the Professional Bowlers Assn. League announced the core players for its eight teams that will be competing next year for the Elias Cup.

The two-time defending champion Silver Lake (Calif.) Atom Splitters, for instance, will return franchise player Chris Barnes along with Dick Allen and Tom Daugherty.

The L.A. X, which finished second to the Atom Splitters the past two seasons, will have back franchise player Jason Belmonte along with Stu Williams and Martin Larsen.

It will be the fourth season for the PBA League with the competition starting in April in Portland, Maine.

But has anyone noticed? Does anyone really care?

Of course, there will be a following for any pro sports league, but the PBA League seems as if it's still struggling to catch on.

A story detailing partial rosters for the 2016 PBA League drew an absolute yawn when it was posted on website Bowling Evolved, which is read by more than 1,200 people.

A paltry total of 22 people viewed the story – contrasted with almost 600 views of a photo of newly named United States Bowling Congress Hall-of-Famer Joan Romeo with her Hall-of-Fame bowling daughter, Robin Romeo.

ESPN has shown the PBA League action on a tape-delayed basis each season – another indicator that fans aren't pining to watch the matches.

Fact of the matter is that the telecasts aren't exciting enough. And all of the ESPN and league gimmicks can't elevate fans' interest in the PBA League.

When the Elias Cup broadcasters fail to report that the L.A. X and Silver Lake Atom Splitters both represent the City of Angels in a "Battle of L.A.," there's a definite problem somewhere.

Five-time PBA Tour titlist Eric Forkel, one of the clearest-thinking bowling analysts around, was asked to address the PBA League's sagging popularity.

His response: "There's a lack of interest in professional bowling and it's been that way for a long time. Back in the '80s and '90s, it was the lead-in to Wide World of Sports on ABC. I think that's when it was great and a league at that time may have been great. I think now it's like just OK or no big deal.

"I think the only way a league like this could be great is if the teams would represent different cities – like they do in all the other major sports. The way it's set up now to me is not that exciting. I mean they have all these names, but they really do not represent the cities.

"To me, they should have a team from L.A., San Francisco, Chicago, New York, etc. and the teams would have their own venue to bowl out of. You have something like that, they could get behind it and promote it. To me, that's how you make it something special.

"The way it is now, it's no big deal and maybe that's why people don't care about it that much."

The league has had eight teams since its first season – two from L.A. But the league has not made an appearance in L.A. and it won't be here in 2016 either. Furthermore, there is no L.A. presence among the players from the two local teams – or even a California connection. PBA League player Scott Norton lives in Orange County but he will be toiling once again for the New York City WTT Kingpins.

So what can be done?

On the surface, the PBA League has plenty to like. It's bowling, after all, and that can be fun to watch at times. And it's nice if bowling athletes can receive some exposure on TV – and by a prominent national sports network.

If bowling can't qualify for the Olympics, at least bowling has a pro league that can be viewed across the country. It just has to be made more interesting.

There are a lot of bowling fans who are willing to tune in to ESPN to watch such giants of the game as Belmonte, Barnes, Pete Weber, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Wes Malott, Sean Rash, Parker Bohn III, Bill O'Neill, Norton and all the rest. And after they do, it's important to keep them watching.

One of my favorite recommendations has gone unheeded by PBA League officials, but some day they may regret they haven't tried to add some zest to the league competitions.

Simply add some Showtime. Enough with the dull.

Invite some of the Professional Women's Bowling Assn. members to take part. Form a team of top women – and there are so many of them.

Just in California, a team could be formed of formidable women bowlers who likely would be competitive with any of the current franchises. How about a California team of Robin Romeo of Newhall, Missy Parkin of Laguna Hills, Paula Vidad of Sun City, Kimberly Power of San Leandro

Kelly Kulick gave the PBA League a little sparkle when she bowled two strikes for the New York City WTT Kingpins in the league's inaugural Elias Cup. She's the only woman to bowl in the PBA League. Courtesy of USBC and Michelle Silver of West L.A.? Would people watch the women get their chance to show their talent? I would think, most definitely.

That would certainly bring some pizzazz into a league that badly needs pizzazz.

One woman bowler actually made a brief appearance in the PBA League. That was back in the league's first season and Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., was the one who got the shot. She had a cameo role for the Kingpins during their Elias Cup victory over the Motown Muscle.

The right-handed Kulick, the only woman to win a PBA Tour title, calmly rolled a solid strike on her first shot. Then on her second – and final shot of the day – Kulick rolled another no-doubt-about-it strike.

That championship match held some excitement on its own, but perhaps the most pulsating moment came when a woman took center stage – and showed she could bowl just as well as the men, if not better.

The PBA League should duly note.

LAKEWOOD — In our return to Cal Bowl a hot James Borillo won his 4th title downing Bert Pamintuan in the title game to take a nice $2,700 home to Lakewood.

Others bowling well making the top 16 finals 10-16th were Norma Gaddison, Matt Goodlowe, Ping Romero, Freddie Catamisan, Alan Aguilar, Bob Selner, and Bedell Vasquez. Checks of $100 each.

In 6-9th places were Jeremy Coltharp, Cyndi Kelley, Lord Ferguson and Ramon Alliman $105 each. Then eliminated in round 3 are Michael Duran, and Dom Laguardia $110 each in 4th and 5th places.

Now it was Bert Pamintuan and Annaliza Agoncillo to meet for the right to advance to the title game. Bert won in a close match with Annaliza, 3rd $200. Big Bert off to the title game vs Borillo!!

The title game was on. Bert led off and in a bad start went 9 out. Borillo was clean through 5 frames and Bert having problems on the left land opened again in frames 3 and 5. Borillo took a 17 pin lead. Bert having a nightmare opened in the 6- 7th frames. Borillo in his only bad shot went 9 out in the 6th then spared and tossed a Three Bagger to win his 4th Title in fine style 239-159. All scores include Handicap. James is with us 10 years and One of the Good Guys. He dedicated this Title to our Friend and ABTA member Pilbert Colian who is battling Cancer at this time. We all wish him the best, and a Super Recovery!! Congrats to a very Improved bowler!!

Bert Pamintuan finally cashed after a long absence of bowling. He is back now 4 months. He is One of the Good Guys. He is classy and a good friend! Nice Bowling Bert !!

Annaliza Agncoillo, the crowd favorite, bowled well in 3rd place. She could have won it all with a break or two. Ana is one of the nicest ladies you will meet and a Super ABTA Director who is Friendly and Good to all. She has one title to her name, a few years back at CAL BOWL.

James Borillo of Lakewood used a Track Paradox drilled by “Iron Mike” Villarreal, ABTA Member. He’s married to a sweet lady Carolyn who was on hand for the win and 3 kids Carl, Chris, and Christian!

It began but before the fighting was over he was a sailor in the Italian navy and a man. By that time in 1945 the Nazi's were driven out of Italy, Mussolini was dead and the Italian navy was fighting along side the Allies. Frank served on two battle cruisers, the Duca Da Osta and the Duca Degli Abruzzi. During his twenty-six months of service shipmate DeLuca was a "cannoneri" (cannoneer or gunners mate). He helped keep a twelve inch gun humming.

After the war Frank came to America and started out working on the line in a spaghetti factory. It was a natural fit for a guy who knew spaghetti, loved spaghetti and ate spaghetti. From there he became a food service specialist and manager in the VA Hospital system. He retired in 1986.

Joan Romeo's Answer Was Short and to the Point

by Fred Eisenhammer

A week ago, newly elected United States Bowling Congress Hall-of-Famer Joan Romeo was asked what she thought of the career of daughter Robin Romeo, likewise a USBC Hall of Famer.

Joan knew quite well all of Robin's accomplishments – which remain in full gallop amid Robin's graduation to the senior bowling ranks.

In the same year Joan was named to the Hall of Fame for meritorious service, Robin became the first bowler to win back-to-back USBC Senior Queens titles. Robin outscored Hall-of-Famer Tish Johnson, 212-191, in the championship match in May.

Just three years earlier, Robin won the 2012 U.S. Senior Women's Open to become to the first player to claim both a U.S. Women's Open and Senior U.S. Women's Open championship.

Just as impressive is that Robin holds the record for advancing to 78 consecutive match-play finals when she was competing on the Professional Women's Bowling Assn. Tour.

And while Robin was waiting around to win all her majors (she's won five all told), she stunned her male counterparts by winning a West Coast Senior Tournament title in 2004 in Arcadia. That just so happened to be the first time she had entered a WCST event and it's the only time a woman has won a WCST title.

So what was Joan's reaction to all of Robin's laurels? "She's been remarkable," said Joan succinctly.

It was during his spaghetti curling days that Frank was introduced to bowling. Our sport came easy for him because before rolling his first bowling ball Frank was a Bocci champion. He simply applied his bocci ball skills on the lanes. He used his bocci form, ball control and ball placement with great success. His transition reminds me of Walter Ray's move from Horseshoes to Bowling.

At 91 Frank is currently averaging 167. He competes in two leagues, continues to roll a sixteen pound ball and continues to exhibit the agility and strength of a much younger man. His best average is the 183 he posted in his mid eighties. How many 85 year olds do you know with a 183 average?

Frank's high game (268) was rolled when he was 71 and his high series (684) when he was 74. His favorite ball is his Columbia 300 Blue Knight, serial number OF95098.

Robin Romeo glows after winning the 2014 USBC Senior Queens in Reno, Nev. She defeated Tish Johnson, 241-188, in the championship match. A year later, Romeo won her second straight Senior Queens title, beating Johnson once again – this time in Green Bay, Wis.

He averaged in the 180s for years with what he calls his "cannon ball".

Who is Frank's biggest fan? It's his wonderful wife Helena. While she doesn't bowl, she is always by Frank's side and cheering him on. They have been married for nearly half a century and neither can remember a day that they have been apart.

Paisan. Frank is 100% Italian and he loves everything Italian. His favorite food is spaghetti and he has a plate at least twice a week. Can you imagine this guy managing a spaghetti factory?

His other Italian favorites include Gina Lollabrigida, Sophia Loren, Pavaratti and Bocelli. Forget about Sinatra and Bennett, Frank is into vocalists in the Caruso mold. Besides Gina and Sophia his favorite actors are Vittorio Dicira and Victor Gasman. He would love to meet Carlo Rossi the vinter responsible for Paisano, his favorite dry red wine. According to Frank the best bowler in the world is "Norman Duca" (Norm Duke). In Frank's opinion Norm is exciting to watch. He is gritty. He never gives up. He told me to watch how intense Norm becomes when a game is on the line. His face is so expressive. You can see how focused and determined he is and that usually leads to victory. Best of all, Norm rates with Parker Bohn III and Tony Reyes when it comes to being fan friendly. Norm Duke is a genuinely nice guy. Thank you Seaman Frank DeLuca for serving honorably in World War II. You are a VETERAN, a HERO, a bowling hero.

CENTRAL VALLEY MASTERS 2015 OPEN – ANOTHER FINE EFFORT WITH GREAT BOWLER TURNOUT!

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

BAKERSFIELD, CA — Hats off to the Central Valley Masters Bowling Tournament Club as they hosted their inaugural Central Valley 2015 Open event, October 17-18, hosted by Regency Lanes.

This was the big one with prize money guaranteed for Team, Doubles and Singles events and the group’s first attempt to handle a tournament with three events!

The event kicked off Saturday with the Team event at 9am and 2pm. The strikefest began with Bakersfield’s Bowler of the Year as well as a Director of the CVM, Zack Newman, rolling the first 300 of the event to contribute to his team. But, also making a statement was 2014 Glover Masters Champion, Dupree Dickey, from Oakland, who brought his “A” game and bowled a 300 for his team event as well. But it didn’t stop there as Dupree went on to post a nice 813 series to go with his 300. And the 300 fest continued with CVM President John Curtis rolling one, followed by San Jose’s Chris Murray adding one of his own and another by Toni-Ann Lupo of Clovis. Fresno’s Riley Chin posted an 814 series as well. And this was all just from the Team event!

Saturday night CVM put on an optional 3-Game Sweeper that drew 24 bowlers who still wanted more action. And, again, EBI Ball Staffer, Zack Newman, returned to do some damage and that he did by starting off with a 300 for his first of three games followed by a 277 and 278 for a great 855 series to show how well the EBI line of balls work for him.

Then along came Sunday where the Singles event was held at 9am and 2pm, and the Doubles at 11am and 4pm. Dupree Dickey had a good night’s sleep and woke up ready to strike with his doubles partner, Necole Johnson of Long Beach. Together they posted a 1658 total for Doubles with Dupree bowling steady and contributing an 837 series while Necole, a 175-average bowler, posting games of 233-278-232 for an awesome 713 series! But Dupree was just getting warmed up as he bowled another 800 for his Singles event with yet another 300 game with scores of 232-300-279 for an 811.

Local Youth stand-out, Zack Long, from Taft, bowled in the Singles event and ended with a scratch 702 series which guaranteed him a place in the standings!

Add to that, Mike Hefley, owner of Bowler’s Edge Pro Shop at Regency joined in and entered in the Singles and also rolled a 300 game.

But the big moment for Sunday was watching Fresno’s Christina Day bowl her 800 series with games of 258-290-265 for an 813 in Doubles to show her girl power and to the amazement of many of the top male bowlers at the event!

The event drew a total of 295 entries--28 for Team, 49 for Doubles and 85 Singles. Kudos to Central Valley Masters Bowling Tournament Club for another successful event in the books!!

Valley 500 Club Draws a Crowd at Winnetka Bowl

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA — First it was the San Fernando Valley 600 Bowling Club that rolled into Winnetka Bowl.

Two weeks later, the San Fernando Valley 500 Bowling Club stopped at Winnetka Bowl to hold a tournament.

Just like the all-women 600 club, members of the all-women 500 club faced a requirement for eligibility. In the 500’s case, each woman had to bowl a sanctioned 500 series.

Of course, some of the 500 members have bowled much higher than the qualifying standard. Santa Clarita Valley resident Kaitlin Silva, for instance, has blasted a 289 game and has scored well over 700 many times. Silva averages an impressive 207.

This past Sunday, the 500 club staged a no-tap, handicap invitational tournament at Winnetka Bowl. Members were allowed to invite non-members to take part in the club’s fourth tournament of the year.

For this event, 42 members participated along with 13 guests.

Tournament director Myra Kendall said the club’s tournaments used to attract about 100 bowlers, “but times have changed.”

Carie Heydon won the Class A division for women with a handicap-aided score of 843 (645 scratch: 211, 157, 277). Joanne Messina claimed the Division B title with a score of 815. And Roxie Rock prevailed in Division C with a score of 716.

Jose Blanco recorded the lone perfect game and also won the men’s Division A title with an 884 score. Frank Spano finished first in Division B with a 781 score.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

RESULTS OF 19TH ANNUAL DEAF SENIOR BOWLERS OF AMERICA TOURNAMENT

With thanks to DSBA Secretary-Treasurer/Tournament Director Ed Abakumoff for the program book and score results of every entrants from which this article is made

62 MEN AND 24 WOMEN 50 YEARS & OVER ENTERED IN 19TH ANNUAL DSBA

LAS VEGAS — The 19th annual Deaf Senior Bowlers of America held last month (Oct. 13, 14 and 15) at The Orleans Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center drew 62 men and 24 women, 50 years old and over bowlers. That is small drop from last year's 71 men and better than last year's 18 women. The prestigious men's Match Play Classic drew 45 men and women's Queens' Match Play event had 18 entries.

The tournament began with singles and mixed doubles events on first day, four games qualifying round on second day for the top 16 men and top 8 women for their respective Match Plays on the third day.

GENE TAKINEN TAKES MEN'S SINGLES $630 WITH BACK TO BACK 257s IN 761

Arizona's 194 average Gene Takinen (AZ) rolled 199-257-257 for 713 plus his 48 handicap 781 total to top the 62 men for the $630.00 first place prize. Second Place $315.00 went to Richard Pennington (NV) for his 661 (232-216-213) plus 84 handicap 745 total. Sonny Ingram took 3rd place $130.00 with his (208) 661 plus 144 handicap 691. The low score to cash was 662 total in 16th place by David Campbell.

Takinen's 257 and 713 are the event's scratch high game and series.

FRANCINE LAUER-SKEDMO WINS LADIES $240 SINGLES PRIZE WITH 701

Former singles titlist (2013) Francine Lauer-Skedmo (CA) did it again with 208-167-137 for the event's high series 512 plus 189 handicap 701 total winning the 240.00 prize. Defending champion Lyndene Higginbotham (AZ) came close, closing with the event's high game 210 in her 478 plus 207 handicap for 685 total to place second for $120.00 prize. Third place $95.00 went to Patricia Morford (CA) for her 507 plus 168 handicap 675. The low score to cash was 8th place 641 by Estelita Murray (CA).

BURKHALTER-MILLS/DOWNING DUO WINS MIXED DOUBLES $860 PRIZE WITH 1375

200 average Texan Billy Downing broke DSBA's all time 724 high series record with his 733 from 237-217-279 while his partner LuAnn Burkhalter-Mills () closed with a 189 for 468. Their combined scores of 1201 plus 174 handicap 1375 led 42 other doubles teams for the $860.00 first place prize. Downing's 279 is the tournament high game.

Californians Paul Taffolla (499) and Leroy MacMonagle (211-226-192/629) had 1128 plus 234 handicap for 1362 total beat by one pin for 2nd place $430.00 prize. Mixed doubles team of Barbara Loniewski (216/532) and Don Craig () 583 had 1115 plus 246 handicap for 1361 for 9rd place $210.00. The low score to cash was 1297 in 11th place by Lyndene Higginbotham and Kirby King.

DOWNING 1435 WINS MEN ALL-EVENTS & MORFORD 1338 TOPS LADIES ALL-EVENTS

Texan Billy Downing rolled 642 in singles and record 733 in doubles for 1375 plus 60 handicap for 1435 to take men's all-events $90,00 prize. On the ladies' side Patricia Morford (CA) combined singles 507 and doubles 495 for 1002 plus 336 handicap 1338 total for her second all-events title and $50.00. Morford previously won in 2009.

The Classic and Queens qualifying round and Match Plays will be reported later.

champion Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, in the opening match, 221-217, and was on the ropes against two-time U.S. Open winner Norm Duke of Clermont, Florida, in the second match.

Duke, needing two strikes to close out Barrett in the 10th, struck on his first shot but then left the 10 pin on his second. Barrett stepped up and fired three strikes in the final frame for a 259-255 victory.

“I was just trying to figure out the lanes and make good shots,” Barrett said. “That setup in the 10th against Norm to strike out was one of my better frames. I bowled solid, had a good idea what I was doing. It was one of my better TV shows.”

The starting field of 275 bowlers at the 2015 U.S. Open completed 24 qualifying games over three days before the field was cut to the top 92. The 32-game pinfall totals determined the 24 players for the 24 games of match play. After 24 games of match play, the top five advanced to the finals.

Bowlmor AMF, the largest operator of bowling centers in the world, committed to hosting and providing television sponsorship of more than $250,000 for the U.S. Open and U.S. Women’s Open.

JAT Sport Junior Recap

Julian Zavala Closes in on Junior Gold Berth

by David Schiada

NORWALK — Julian Zavala opened with a 257 game and never looked back on his way to a big 854 series for four games during last Saturday’s JAT Sport Junior action at Keystone Lanes. Julian kept his first place status, sweeping all five points on the Tower of Pisa pattern, including a closing game of 225. After dominating on Saturday, Julian took his hot hand to La Habra 300 Bowl on Sunday where he was champion of the JAT tournament open division. Julian will look to secure his berth in the Junior Gold Championships next week.

Solomon Salama returned after a brief hiatus and didn’t miss a beat, rolling a 735 series including a 200 game. Nick Caner kept the pressure on Julian, taking all five points in his match with a 693 series. Kylie Shishima was next with a 681 series. David Schneider, who was in second going into Saturday’s action, will be making up his games adding to the drama in the battle for first.

Upcoming Tournaments: November 22 - JAT Thanksgiving Holiday Event at Covina Bowl; November 28-29 – JBT at Bowlmum, Montclair.

JAT Sport is a league for advanced juniors who are serious about competitive bowling. Don Julio Tequila & DV8 Lead After Two Weeks

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — The combination of the new lane surfaces and the tough patterns are baffling the bowlers in Downey on Monday nights. With few exceptions, good scores are very hard to come by and spares in key frames are changing the fortunes of teams as the second round continues at Del Rio Lanes.

The 80 bowlers in the league tonight shot 3 games each. A total of 240 games bowled. Only 41 were over 200. 56 were under 150.

The first pair of lanes saw two teams coming in excited to start the round with 5-0 records. The match was between the J.A.T. team and the guys from DV8. Scoring was very low, as it was across the house and 2040 from DV8 was enough to win 2 games and totals, for a 4-1 victory. Scott Poddig actually led DV8 with 520. David Yamauchi posted 224/590 for J.A.T., but it was only good for one win.

The second pair was a tight battle between Relax-Release-Repeat and Linder's Insurance. Relax-Release-Repeat opened a big lead, winning the first game by almost 100, mostly because of Vernon Adams 254 game. Linder's Insurance made a great comeback winning games 2 and 3, but fell a little short for totals, giving R-R-R a 3-2 victory. Vernon stayed hot, leading the pair with 673. Kurt Arakaki was high for the Linder's team with 233/584.

Keystone Lanes and Don Julio Tequila both came into their match with a 4-1 record for the round, but will be on opposite sides of the standings next week. Don Julio swept all five games in the match behind strong sets from Buddy Lucas and Bobby Campagnale. Bobby led the way with 239/669, edging out the 246/667 of Buddy.

The next match saw the Ketel One Vodka team easily sweep Cook's Bowling Supply, winning totals by a little over 250 pins. Led by Eddie Van Daniker's 242/636, Ketel One improved to 8-2 and will be amongst the leaders going into next week. Matt Schermerhorn had 214/610 for Cook's in the losing effort.

Los Altos Trophy joins other teams at 8-2 after sweeping all five games from Herzog Insurance. Los Altos edged Herzog by only 17 in the first game, but won the next two by over 300 to run away with the match. Lee Liu started poorly with 129, but came back with 224-507 to lead the Los Altos Trophy team to the easy victory.

Paul Barraco was one of the only bowlers in the league to break 600, using his first game of 245 to squeeze out 611. His big series total led the way for Sysco to take 4 out of 5 games from Alhambra Coin Center. Johnny Sikkens did his part for the Coin Center with 599, but a lack of help and consistent play from Sysco led to the win.

The Professional Approach team, not satisfied with their first round victory, or their 1-4 start for this round, took advantage of the GJC Janitorial team and swept all five games. Billy Myers had the high set on the pair by a wide margin with his 220-246-201/667, and really was the only factor on his team, leading them single handedly to the sweep. In fact, nobody else on the Pro Approach squad had a single game over 180. Gary Duran led GJC with 209/583.

Pino's Pizza took 4 games from Forest Lanes. Ramon Torres posted a very nice 653 series, in spite of a 167 in the middle game. He bookended it with 247 and 239. Strangely, the one game he struggled in was the only game that his teammate Leonard Ruiz was locked in on, with 245. Jon Diso finished his set with a 219 for 548 to pace Forest Lanes in the losing effort.

Wowo's Smokin' Hot BBQ got five needed wins from the Cremation Centers of CA. The scores on this pair were brutally low, as Wowo's posted 645-647-675 for the three games and still won all five, and totals by 225. In fact, Brandon Kraye led the difficult pair with 508!

The final pair in the league was also a 5-0 sweep, as Threadworks evened their record at 5-5 by taking every game from Erickson Foods. Jamie Carrington, Paul Varela and Eric Snow rotated throwing games just good enough to pull out the wins. Paul Varela led the team with 203/565. Matt Garcia was pretty steady for Erickson Foods, but wasn't able to help his team get any wins.

Sidepots went to Vernon Adams in the first game (254), Leonard Ruiz Jr. in the second game (245) and Bobby Campagnale took $234 in the 3rd game super pot with 239.

The Financial Advisors pot was won by Billy Myers Jr. with his 246 game for $220 edging out Leonard Ruiz Jr. by only 1 pin!

Come down Monday at 8:30 and check out some of the action, and watch some of the best bowlers in Southern California struggle in ways you haven't seen before.
