Fred Riccilli Passes

by Joy McGregor

ORANGE COUNTY — The bowling world was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of a bowling legend, Fred Riccilli on March 3rd. Fred passed peacefully at his home in Seal Beach. He was 93 years old.

Fred was the epitome of friendliness and a mentor to many. Fred will always be remembered as the co-owner-manager of Champion Lanes in Garden Grove for 35 years. Champion Lanes was a hustling and bustling center in the day and saw many, many champions grace those lanes. Fred always put out a fair shot and kept his center immaculate. He would often come out onto the lanes to chat; everybody's friend!

Fred managed the atmosphere of Champion with his jovial good-nature while Hope kept the books in order. They were a wonderful team. Their motto was, "Champion Lanes, where the happiest people bowl." In their coffee shop you could get the best fresh hot fries and malts. They met on the bowling circuit and were married in 1960.

Fred's illustrious bowling career was highlighted by many 300 games and numerous accolades, including winning the prestigious 1952 Peterson Classic in Chicago. He was an avid bowler, carrying an average over 200 for many years. He was also honored in 1969 when he was inducted into the Orange County Hall of Fame. If you venture to La Habra 300 Bowl you will see all the Hall of Famers proudly hanging on our "Wall of Fame" and you will see his lovely wife, Hope who was inducted for Meritorious Service in 1978.

A few tidbits of Fred's life you may not have known, Fred was a master accordionist by the age of 10, had his own band and even played on the radio. He loved baseball and played often. He even played in the N.Y. Yankees farm team. His later years found him having season tickets to the Angel games and watching them on TV when they were out of town.

Fred married his high school sweetheart, Theresa and it was Theresa who introduced him to bowling which as we all know, became his lifelong passion and career. Fred and Theresa later parted ways. They had 2 children.

After retiring from Champion Lanes in 1992, he continued to bowl his leagues and then several senior leagues. Fred lovingly cared for his wife Hope for many years while she was stricken with terminal rheumatoid arthritis. After her death in 1999, he cared for her gravesite until his own health began to fail.

Fred is survived by daughter, Melinda and her family; step-daughter, Verla Ann and her family; brother, Al; several grandchildren and 1 great-granddaughter. His services were held March 13.

R.I.P. Fred. You were a mentor and great friend to many and will be greatly missed. Condolences go out to the family. The saddest moment

PAUL NILSEN Challenges House Record

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — So close yet so far. Maybe better to say "SO CLOSE AND NOT SO FAR." However you say it, Paul Nilsen was just two strikes shy of bowling a Cal Oaks house record 859 last Tuesday night. The current house record 858 is held by JUSTIN BORLAND and JEFF LEWEN.

Paul started his night with a 280 and 300. He then began his third game with five consecutive strikes. At that point he had rolled 27 strikes in a row. A sixth frame stone nine pin ended his string of strikes. Paul followed with two more strikes, a ten pin and another strike. On the eleventh shot of his third game he finished his night with a 4-7-10. His third game 233 resulted in a 813 series. If Paul had struck on his ninth and eleventh shots, in the third game, his score could have been a record 859!

Nilsen used his DV8 Diva to roll his big score in the Sun-coast Rollers League. While the Diva was the ball of choice on Tuesday night, Paul has used a variety of balls to roll big scores in the recent past.

High scores are nothing new to Mr. Nilsen. He has rolled several 300s and 800s the last couple of years and regularly books in the 230s. Paul has also bowled in the PBA World Series Of Bowling (WSOB) on two occasions.

Congratulations Paul and thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

Closing Date Nearing for Tri-Senates Championship $15,000.00 Tourney

by Maurice Hultz, President, Southern Cal Tri-Senates of TNBA

LAKEWOOD — Three years in a row our Tri Senates Championship Tourney has been one of the top draws in Southern California. Closing date for our entries is rapidly approaching. Our Tri-Senate Championship Tournament has sold out three years in a row. Although our entry closing date is March 31st, 2015 we will continue to accept entries until our tournament is full. Bowlers don't wait!! If you want to secure your specific squad times being held one big weekend, Saturday and Sunday, April 11-12, 2015 at Cal Bowl, in Lakewood, California, now is the time. Last year we had bowlers all the way from Ohio with a team from Las Vegas Nevada winning the grand first place prize money of $15,000.00. The $15,000.00 first prize is guaranteed based on 165 entries. Yes, this tournament is open to all USBC/TNBA bowlers. However, if you are a current USBC member but not a TNBA member; you may still bowl in this premier event by simply purchasing the TNBA annual membership card for an additional $20. You may include your annual membership purchase with your entry form. Therefore, virtually EVERYONE is welcome to bowl!

This tournament is designed to attract bowlers from all skill levels, including "recreational bowlers," "senior bowlers" (over age 55) as well as the high average bowlers! This is a handicap tournament that is based on 100% of the difference between the team entering average and 1050. The maximum team entering average is 1050 which is designed to make sure a team cannot consist of more than just a few high average bowlers. Teams whose total entering average is 900 or less, will be in the running for bonus prize money for the highest scoring teams in that category. Also, bonus prize money will be awarded to the highest scoring all senior teams. The bonus team prize pay offs will be based on the total number of entries.

Our tournament offers multiple ways to cash, especially within that squad. Every squad bowler will have the opportunity to participate in the optional flat fee round robin "sweepstakes" doubles event, allowing bowlers to compete as doubles partner with all others selecting that option for that squad. Brackets and side pots will also be offered and paid immediately after the squad. The round robin will be paid out with the regular prize fund.

Bowlers are allowed to participate multiple times as long as they change the team rosters with at least two different bowlers each time. All teams must be mixed teams of five members and must have at least two women and two men. There are five squads available to choose from, Saturday, April 11 at 9am, 1pm and 5:30pm or Sunday, April 12 at 9am and 1pm. For your convenience an advertisement with the entry form is available in this issue of the Bowling News or you may download your pre-fill entry from <http://www.socal-trisenates.com>

Last year our Squad Organizers helped our tournament become an absolute success. If you have an interest in becoming a squad organizer contact one our Tournament Directors below.

For more questions or more information you may call the following Tri Senate Tournament Directors: Eugene Richardson 310-762-9589 or Karl Downs 909-829-1217.

Stay Tuned for the roll out of our newest and largest tournament ever. The Tri-Senate City of Lights Tournament in Las Vegas Nv, September 18-20, 2015 at the new South Point Bowling Plaza, Open to all USBC/TNBA Bowlers. First place will pay MEGA BUCKS.

The Lorentz Family Lineup Expands

by Therese Lloyd and Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — Long time Citrus Belt Area Director DANIEL LORENTZ is celebrating the recent birth of his eighth grand child, Gage Workman. I am sure Gage is a boy with a bowling future. Why? Because when grand daddy Lorentz placed a bowling ball in Gage's crib Gage rubbed the ball with one hand while waving his other hand and displaying a big smile.

Gage is only a few months old but grand dad Lorentz is already musing about future leagues and tournaments. Daniel can't wait for the first Junior - Senior Tournament he competes in with Gage.

Daniel loves bowling. He is a very good bowler sporting a 205 best average and 300 game. Better yet, Daniel gives back to our sport. He has been a Citrus Belt volunteer Area Director for about ten years.

As a volunteer he distributes awards, attends meetings, works tournaments and helps with lane inspections. That adds up to hundreds of volunteer hours every year.

Thank you Daniel for your service and congratulations on the birth of your eighth grandchild. Thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

HELLO TO BOWLING: Part III

Shakespeare said it best, “To be, or not to be?” Do you want to be envied as a bowler or not? That is the question. Over the past couple weeks I’ve been introducing you to the fundamentals of bowling; principles and secrets everyone should be taught when they first take up this sport. Those create the foundation upon which an enviable bowling career can be built. Advancing as a bowler is much easier with this basic information. To be, or not to be somebody is up to you.

Lesson #2: A solid house is built on a solid foundation.

There are two more items to learn before you’re ready to pick up a ball; how the lane is designed to help others beat you, and what you need to know to prevent that.

A targeting system is built into every lane. It consists of three rows of dots embedded in the approach and arrows set into the lane. All dots and arrows occur on the same board leading to the center of a corresponding pin. For example, the first dots on the right are on the same board as the first arrow and the center of the ten pin.

The first two rows of dots are used to precisely locate your feet. The dots near the foul line let you determine how straight you walk during your delivery. The arrows are targets at which you will aim your ball. These markers provide amazing accuracy for those who use them. Knowing how to use them gives your opponent an incredible advantage over you! Do you get my point?

Using the system is super easy but explaining it is not, so I’m going to simplify the process. There are a total of seven arrows in each lane and they occur on every fifth board from the gutter. As a beginner you can totally ignore all but the second one. Once you start bowling, you will aim every ball at that arrow. It will be your target for as long as you use equipment supplied by the house.

I know what you’re thinking: “How am I supposed to knock down different pins if I keep throwing the ball at the same target?” The answer is that you can make the ball hit different pins by rolling it over that one target from different directions. Let me try a simple explanation.

Starting at the back of the approach, a ball moving straight down the center passes directly over the middle dots. It then rolls over the fourth arrow and keeps going straight until it hits the head-pin dead on. Got that? Good.

Now consider this: Starting the ball left-of-center at the back of the approach changes the angle at which the ball approaches that center arrow. This time the ball will end up hitting pins to the right of the head-pin. Likewise, starting to the right-of-center and rolling the ball over that same arrow will take it to pins which are left of the head-pin. That’s the secret to using the targeting system; make the ball hit different pins by using one target but different starting points. Take a moment to digest that.

You’re probably wondering why you can’t just use the fourth arrow and that’s a fair question. Here’s the answer: A ball rolling down the center of the lane causes bad things to happen when it hits the head-pin dead on. It splits the array down the middle and can leave pins standing that look like a hockey player’s smile. Making those spares is almost impossible and that hurts your score.

Using the second arrow makes the ball strike the head-pin at an angle. This creates a chain reaction which mixes the pins much more effectively. Remember, you need all ten pins to fall, but the ball only contacts four of them. The domino effect takes the others down and angle enhances that effect. That’s all you need to know about targeting for now; aim for the second arrow and use the dots to alter your starting point left or right.

Now there’s only one last preparation to make before you’re ready to start learning how to deliver a bowling ball. We need to determine your starting position.

NOTE: I teach a five-step approach because I believe it produces superior results. That is debatable and you should know that.

Obviously, where you place your feet on the approach is critical. So how do we find the best place for you to start? That’s easy. Get up on the approach and, facing away from the pins, place your heels near the foul line. Take five and one-half normal steps, turn and face the pins. Look down and note where your feet are. Now you know, roughly, how far away from the foul line to begin your delivery.

Next we need to determine where you should start from right to left. As a beginner rolling your first ball, we can’t possibly know exactly where you need to start, but we can make a pretty good guess based on what we do know.

We know that you’ll use a house ball, so it’s probably going to go straight. We know that you’re going to aim for the second arrow. Since you’re right handed, we know that the ball needs to make contact with the head-pin slightly to the right of dead center. That’s all the information we need.

Step up onto the approach at the distance from the foul line previously established by your five- and-a-half foot stroll. Put a yardstick down on the approach pointing directly at the second arrow and the head-pin. Now stand up, face the second arrow and position your right shoulder directly over the yardstick. Look down and note the location of your feet in relation to the dots. This will be the starting point for your very first delivery.

That’s the end of today’s lesson because I’ve given you lot of information to process. You have a place to stand and a target to aim for. Next I’ll introduce you to the skills that will enable you to hit that target over and over.

Comments or questions? Email them to us at: news@californiabowlingnews.com

P.S. I shouldn't tell you this yet because you already have too much to think about, but there won't be a better time..... so here goes. Take the yardstick and point it along the line formed by the second arrow and the ten-pin. Again, stand with your shoulder over the yardstick and face the second arrow. Look where your feet are now! This exercise shows how moving your starting point takes the shot where you want. Repeat this process for the seven-pin. Cool, huh? Now go home and try to not think about what you just learned. Remember, this game is addicting!

Some Bowlers Relish A Behemoth Burger

There were quite a few happy bowlers Tuesday night at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills. And none of them were hungry. Getting a taste of Bowlmor AMF's hospitality, some league bowlers feasted on the bowling center's much-ballyhooed "behemoth burger" that was heated and ready to eat. The bowling center rolled out its five-pound, 14-inch-round burger that is designed to be shared by five or six people. The burger had become the talk of the town because of its hefty price ($54.99) and tremendous size. The "behemoth burger" has been a strong seller at certain AMF Bowlmor bowling houses but had encountered more resistance at Woodlake Lanes. Still, there were a number of Woodlake Lanes bowlers who consumed a sizable portion of the burger, such as Geoff Gast, who gave it a thumb's up. "It was good, really good," Geoff said. "And it was free." Woodlake Lanes General Manager Richie Clark said the "behemoth burger" was meant to "show appreciation to every one of our bowlers and create a nice buzz [for the burger]. We also wanted to give everyone something to talk about when they went home." The reception was good for the "behemoth burger," but not everyone wanted to share in the fun. Diane Weed said she passed on the chance for a free meal. "There's no reason to eat something that big," she said with a smile. "And I also ate before I came here." Added Carol Tucker: "I like veggie burgers."

Jo Ellen Wyman and Mason Basore, 10, get a close view of a "behemoth burger" that was presented to league bowlers at Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills. Greg Kolski watches from behind.

(Copeland-Tibbs-Cooper)

presented by Kimberly Hudson and Family

Peggy’s love for the bowling business began in 1961 while stationed at Evreux AFB, France where she worked as Day Manager until 1965. Upon her return to the U.S. in 1967, she went to work at Kings Bowl in Millbrae, Ca as a door to door sales person for day league bowlers. She transferred to Country Club Bowl, San Rafael, Ca as League Coordinator. In 1970, the Air Force transferred the family to Guam and she obtained a job at Anderson Air Force Base Bowling Lanes. She returned to Country Club Bowl and worked from 1972-1974. In 1974, the Air Force transferred the family to Spain. While in Spain she worked for Col. Battle Lanes from 1974-1977. She took a position with Active West at Arrowhead Lanes, San Bernardino in 1977 as League Coordinator and 9 months later became General Manager until 1983. In 1983, she moved to San Jose and managed Futurama Bowl until 1985. After retiring from bowling, watching her daughters and grandchildren bowl and running into her bowling family gave her great joy.

Among her many accomplishments the ones that gave her great personal satisfaction and pride were her: 3rd Place finish in an International Bowling Tournament in Paris, France in 1965 where she represented the USA; she was the first woman in Europe to bowl in pants which at the time was unheard of; Organized and chartered the 1st Women’s “600” Club on Guam in 1971 and the first club President. President of Women’s Bowling Association Torreon, Spain from 1976-1977; Organized special groups (Easter Seals, School of Hope, VA Hospital Therapy program, Special Olympics); Raised in excess of $30,000 for charity through bowling from 1979–1983; Helped increase the Inland Empire Special Olympics from 60 bowlers to 200 bowlers in 1983; First woman to be General Manager within the Active/West Company.

The Pins Flip Over

Rick Auerbach's Perfect Game

by FRED EISENHAMMER

Rick Auerbach has a touch for the dramatic. He showed it last week when he crushed his fifth perfect game during league play at Corbin Bowl in Tarzana. The right-handed Auerbach kept the suspense – and the favorable pin action – going until the very end of his 300 game. On his final shot, Auerbach seemed to hit his target, but it didn’t appear solid enough as the crowd of on-lookers sighed at what appeared to be a near-miss. “I hit the pocket and the seven pin didn’t go down and everyone was moaning,” recalled Auerbach, who played in the major leagues for 11 seasons from 1971 to 1981. “Then it went from moaning to cheering as the seven pin fell late! It was FUN!” Richie Gardner, Auerbach’s teammate, recalled that Auerbach’s final strike was a “good shot, but it was a light hit. And the seven [pin] fell extremely late – almost when the rack was coming down. It was really dramatic. No one could believe the seven fell so late. Jaws were dropping.” Auerbach’s first shot in the 10th frame similarly was another hold-your-breath strike. This time it appeared he left two pins, the five and the seven. But both pins were upended late, keeping alive the 300. Earlier in the game, Auerbach appeared to leave the dreaded 7-10 split, but both pins eventually fell. It was that kind of night. The 300 marked Auerbach’s first perfect game at Corbin Bowl – his other perfects were rolled at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills. Additionally, Auerbach rolled an 818 series at Woodlake Lanes. Auerbach finished with a 707 series with games of 226, 181 and 300 in Corbin Bowl’s Super Stars league.

Coincidentally, Auerbach’s big night came just three days after he celebrated a birthday. “I’m calling it my Medicare 300 series since I just turned 65 and went on Medicare,” Auerbach said.

Laughlin Junior Tournament to Honor Barry Gurney

by FRED EISENHAMMER

LAUGHLIN — A junior bowling tournament has been scheduled for Nov. 15 to honor Barry Gurney, the late, great left-handed bowler from West Hills in the San Fernando Valley.

The tournament will compete under an unusual format in which about 30 teams of three bowlers will take part. Each team will consist of two junior bowlers and one professional. One of the junior bowlers will be under 13; the other will be over 13.

Bowling Evolved will sponsor the tournament, which will take place at Riverside Lanes in Laughlin, Nev.

Gurney, one of the preeminent bowlers to come out of the San Fernando Valley, died in July 2013 at 71 after a battle with cancer. He was a four-time Professional Bowlers Assn. PBA50 Tour champion who joined the PBA Senior Tour in 1991.

Gurney also was a longtime competitor on the West Coast Senior Tour, winning 18 titles, one fewer than his good friend, Eric Forkel, a longtime San Fernando Valley resident now living in Henderson, Nev.

The Laughlin tournament, which will be sanctioned by the United States Bowling Congress, is the brainchild of Dustin Markowitz, who co-hosts the Bowling Evolved talk show with Forkel.

The tournament underlines Gurney’s dedication to youth bowling. He also was an immensely popular coach who provided guidance to Valley-area bowlers for 13 years. He once estimated that he had given lessons to more than 1,000 bowlers, many of them youngsters.

“He loved the game and all the things that went with being a pro,” Forkel said.

Markowitz said none of the tournament players will be aware of their teammates until a random draw is held to put together the three bowlers. “It’s a unique part of the tournament,” Markowitz said. “I think it will be very exciting.”

As part of the festivities, a five-game scratch tournament will be held Nov. 14. Markowitz added that a portion of the money raised during the two-day event will be used for scholarships.

Gurney was the first well-known player to announce that he was taking part in the February 2013 Laughlin Cup bowling tournament, which was staged by Bowling Evolved. Gurney would later join the team of Bowling Evolved, which started as a bowling talk show on the Internet and has been rapidly expanding.

Markowitz said of Gurney: “Barry was really one of those people who just managed to put a smile on your face with his personality and passion for bowling and life. I was a fan of his from his [Bowling Evolved] TV appearances and considered it one of the biggest honors of my life to have him not only be willing to bowl under the BowlingEvolved.com banner but also for him to publicly support what we were trying to do with the show.

“More importantly, however, I sincerely cherished Barry as a true friend.”

Said Joan Gurney, Barry’s widow: “Dustin and Eric had always been great friends to Barry. I hope this tournament turns out well for them. Including the Juniors is a great idea.”

Bowling Evolved had planned to rename its Laughlin Cup in honor of Gurney and stage a second edition of the tournament in 2014. But the tournament ultimately had to be scrapped for various reasons.

Markowitz said that event’s cancellation may turn out for the best – paving the way for this year’s junior tournament.

“Things unfortunately didn’t work out the way we had hoped,” Markowitz said. “Sometimes the stars aren’t always aligned and sometimes you have to wait until they are.”

Lefty Barry Gurney in his hay day.

BURBANK — Spring has sprung, the IRS is celebrating and, before you know it, the bunny will be dropping chocolate eggs everywhere!

Again, we barely get the green beer down before the annual Pepsi Youth Scholarship Tournament is being held. Today, Coach Dan and I worked the Sunday squads helping with photography, selling 50/50 tickets and all the while keeping an eye on Pickwick's finest Youth Bowlers! Joining us to cheer on their minions were Coaches Terron and Sly.

Most of our bowlers this year were new to the Pepsi Tournament and it was refreshing to see the excitement and fun that not only they were having, but their parents as well. Pickwick is very fortunate to have so many great parents and families involved in the youth program.

New Spring session of 10 weeks bowling will begin this coming Saturday for the Bumpers, Preps and Juniors. Please consider signing up your young ones in this fun and rewarding sport. If you are already signed up, bring a friend! Sign up forms are available at the desk.

Round 5 Underway... Four Teams Sweep Week 1

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — Normally I would not lead with the round winners match, but I must make an exception when it features the top scoring team, led by the top individual series and the nights top two games! Erickson Foods closed the gap between #1 and #2 seeds by sweeping past Keystone Lanes 5-0, to pull within 4.5 games. Erickson ended the night with 2450 Team Series, led by #1 Bobby Campagnale 269/704 and #3 series, Super Sub Sol Cericos 665. Say that five times fast! Andre Rounds had the top game of 277 for 624 to lead Keystone. The next match paired round winners SYSCO and Forest Lanes with Forest coming out on top 4-1 behind the dual effort of Jon Diso 248/663 and Mason Sherman 242/610. Charlie Kinstler led the way for SYSCO with 634. For those still trying to qualify, it was Team DV8 blanking CASAMIGOS Tequila 5-0 as the dynamic duo of Sam Hitchcock 657 and Ashkan Tahvildaran 630 provided the punch to wash down the Tequila team. CASAMIGOS was paced by Vernon Adams 597. Joining DV8 at 5-0 was the perennial power Pinos Pizza. Pinos swept past American Harvest Vodka as Joshua Tajiri sho 610, while Kevin Jones with 591 led American Harvest. Also making it through the week unblemished was The Professional Approach as they swept past BOWLIUM in a low scoring match as Jared Lawrence topped the pair with 567.

Threadworks used a strong team effort to be next in the standings at 4-1. Eic Snow led Threadworks with a 610, while Kurt Arakaki was high for Linder Insurance and the pair with

643. In a battle of Jonathans, it was Herzog Insurance coming out on top 4-1 as Jonathan Gale shot 615 to overcome Los Altos Trophies Jonathan Huezo who led the pair with 617. TIFCO Industries was next at 3-2 as they got by Power House Video Games. All four bowlers for Tifco bowled well as only 13 pins separated them, led by Kevin Gagnon 605 and Gary Duran 603. For Power House it was Eddie VanDaniker 255/666 and Lee Liu 609 scoring. Blizz Yogurt used the 244/651 of Greg Neuer to pull Game 3 and total to end the night at 3-2. David Yamo led J.A.T. with 599. Our True Anchor award is a family honor as daughter Tiana Tipton was low with 414, followed closely in second by her pops James Tipton with 441.

We have several teams battling to make the rollofs by winning this fifth and final round. It is unique as it consists of two weeks on each of the four patterns used earlier. The competition will be intense each week as we bowl for position each week. To witness it firsthand, come down to Del Rio in Downey next Monday at 8:30. Hope to see you then, have a blessed week!
