L.A. X Upsets Defending Champs, Advances to PBA League Elias Cup Finals Clutch spare by Jason Belmonte, strike by Parker Bohn III eliminates New York City WTT KingPins

ALLEN PARK, MI — A clutch ninth-frame spare by reigning Professional Bowlers Association Player of the Year Jason Belmonte followed by three equally clutch 10th frame strikes in the Baker team finale by Parker Bohn III gave L.A. X a 5-1 victory over the defending PBA League champion New York City WTT KingPins and a berth in the 2014 Elias Cup finals.

The first PBA League semifinal round match at Thunderbowl Lanes aired Sunday on ESPN. The second semifinal match will pit actor/comedian Kevin Hart's Philadelphia Hitmen, led by captain Bill O'Neill, against the Silver Lake Atom Splitters, owned by "Nerdist" creator Chris Hardwick and led by captain Chris Barnes, on ESPN on Sunday, April 6, at 1 p.m. ET. The Elias Cup finals will air on ESPN on Sunday, April 13, at 2 p.m. ET.

The Baker team game, worth a decisive three points in the PBA League elimination competition, was a three-pin contest when Belmonte left the 3-4-7-10 split in the ninth frame, and converted the difficult spare. The spare forced New York City captain Pete Weber to double in the 10th frame to take the lead, but Weber left a 4 pin on his first ball, giving L.A. X. a chance. Bohn, needing a mark and good count, struck out for a 218-204 win to send Los Angeles Clippers star Chris Paul's team to the Elias Cup finals.

The win was redemption for the Los Angeles-based team that missed a trip to the 2013 finals by two points. It probably wouldn't have happened if Belmonte hadn't converted the split he left in the ninth frame.

"I wasn't too confident; that was an interesting looking spare," the Australian two-handed player said. "I didn't know whether to hook it or throw my spare ball, but I threw my spare ball straight at it and it paid off."

"We get one shot on each lane in team event and I went through the nose on that lane in practice, so when we came back to that lane, I made a five-board move left and threw it really good," he said of the shot that resulted in the split. "I thought it was a strike off my hand, but then I saw it hook and there were grandma's teeth staring at me."

L.A. X is now ready for whichever opposing team advances to the Elias Cup finals.

"We wanted to improve on our position from last year. Our goal was to play in the finals," Belmonte said. "We accomplished that today. I'm stoked. We gelled as a team. We lifted each other. We made spares when we had to. We struck out when we had to. It wasn't just one guy. We have a great team."

In the singles game between team captains to start the match, Belmonte claimed the first point for L.A. X with a 234-208 victory over Weber. The decisive shot was Weber's pocket 7-10 split in the ninth frame.

L.A. X added its second point on a near-perfect performance by Mika Koivuniemi and Bohn in a 299-216 romp in alternate-ball doubles. The perfect game was spoiled when Bohn left a 10 pin on the team's 12th shot.

The KingPins, owned by women's sports icon Billie Jean King and presented by GEICO, averted a sweep with a 249-235 come-from-behind win in the Baker trios game. L.A. X, presented by GoBowling.com, was cruising behind Belmonte, Andres Gomez and PBA Rookie of the Year E.J. Tackett until Tackett failed to convert the 10 pin in the ninth

NORM DUKE TURNS 50, TO MAKE PBA50 DEBUT IN PASCO COUNTY OPEN APRIL 12-15

NEW PORT RICHEY, FL — The PBA50 Tour will make its 2014 debut April 12-15 when Lane Glo Bowl hosts the Pasco County Open in New Port Richey, Fla. Among the field of 100-or-so players will be another PBA Hall of Famer making his PBA50 debut.

Norm Duke of Clermont, Fla., turned 50 on Tuesday. Duke, who still holds the PBA record as the youngest player ever to win a PBA Tour title, will join the ranks of 50-and-older players 31 years after that memorable event. Duke was 18 years and 345 days old when he defeated Tom Milton of St. Petersburg, Fla., 238-204, to win the 1983 Cleveland Open.

Duke, who is tied for third place on the all-time PBA Tour titles list with fellow PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber — last year's PBA50 Rookie of the Year — is eligible for PBA50 competition in 2014 along with 33-time PBA Tour winner and hall of famer Parker Bohn III (who turned 50 last July, at the close of the 2013 season), along with PBA Tour titlists Dave Arnold (New Year's Day), twin brothers Mike and Mark Scroggins (March 12) and Rick Steelsmith (June 1).

Duke wasn't sure if he wanted to bowl on the so-called senior tour or not, but as his 50th birthday grew closer, he examined his options more closely and decided he should participate.

"I polled some of my close friends and they all told me I'd be missing the boat if I didn't bowl," he said. "Not only will my fans want to see me compete, but maybe I can do some good for the senior tour. Look at what Pete (Weber) has done, and Walter Ray (Williams Jr.) and Mark Roth and Earl Anthony before him. It began to make sense, and Storm — my ball sponsor — also wanted me to be there."

SO-CAL DEAF TRAVEL MAKES RETURN VISIT TO GABLE HOUSE AT NOON APRIL 6

TORRANCE — Last November 17 Southern California Deaf Traveling League made its season first visit to Gable House Bowl and there Dan Flores rolled his career third 300 game for this league’s historic third perfect in its 54 years. This Sunday the six teams all deaf bowlers trio league returns to Gable House for another exciting day.

In the previous travel league action at Jewel City Bowl Flores rolled 13 consecutive strikes but they were 7 at end of first game and the front 6 of 2nd game. Also during the same action Flores’ opponent Mark Fisser was flirting with 300, with 10 in row 289 in third game and 11 in row 299 in fourth game. As well Bob Jones who hit a 300 earlier in March in his league, had his string of strikes interrupted by a couple of 7 pins for a 265. Let’s see what they will do Sunday at Gable House Bowl.

Sunday’s action will have Flore’s S F Valley against Leroy MacMonagle’s Orange County, league leader Jones’ Eagle Rock versus third place Abakumoff’s Riverside and 2nd place Fisser’s Anaheim against 4th place Jeff Stansell’s Mid City.

The league voted to have its May 18 sweepstakes at AMF Riverside Lanes, the site of Memorial Day Week-end 73rd annual Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Tournament. The league plans to have three teams bowling in the tournament.

BECKY ELEVAZO Rolls Career Highs

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Becky Elevazo is a super senior, super person, and super bowler. She has been bowling for only three years but has improved over fifty pins from a 120 average to a 171 book.

Silver coach BOBBY LY-ONS has taken Becky under his wing and it shows.

Her display of poise and textbook form make me believe her potential is unlimited. She looks more and more like a professional bowler everyday.

Becky started bowling only after retiring. She served as a registered nurse for decades, dedicating herself to the healing arts. She gave bowling a try just thirty-six months ago to have fun. She wanted to keep active and socialize with her friends. Bowling was the perfect fit.

Over the last two weeks Becky has rolled the highest game and series of her ten pin career. First, she rolled a 245 and 589 (245 - 180 - 164) in her senior Laughlin League. She used her Roto Grip Hyper Cell. Then on the following Tuesday, in her Odds N Ends League, she bowled 598 (201 - 203 - 195). Her Tuesday night score was bowled with her Hammer Assassin. Her balls were drilled by ZACH JELLSEY, manager of the Bowlers Junction Pro Shop, within Empire Bowl.

Becky is grateful to Will Mossontte, owner of Empire Bowl, for providing a great bowling environment. My thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our Citrus Belt lady bowlers.

Youth Scholarship Opportunities

NEW HAMPSHIRE — There will be a new NCAA women’s bowling program in southern New Hampshire next season (2014-2015). Kim Berit, Head Women’s bowling coach at Franklin Pierce University in Rindge, New Hampshire says they are looking for high school seniors who are interested in a scholarship opportunity to not only bowl for us but create history at our university. Some advantages these women will have is they won’t have to compete with a full roster to make the travel bus. Everyone on the team will travel to every tournament and have an equal opportunity to bowl.

Not only will those selected have a chance to receive a bowling scholarship, they can also receive an academic scholarship which ranges from $8,000-$19,000. Depending on the family’s financial situation, they can also qualify for financial aid for around $42,000 (including room and board.) Costs could be as low as $15,000 a year. Of course numbers do change depending on the student’s financial aid needs as well as academics. If you have any questions or a student athlete who would like to contact me, my information is below. Thank you!

ABTA Returns to CAL BOWL Saturday (One Day)

ANAHEIM — We returned to Linbrook Saturday and had a light turnout of 166 entries in our one day event. The scores for a strange reason were OVER the top and produced Very High Scores. The cut scores were Men +119, and Ladies at a near record +91. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Ben Bagaioisan +119, Alan “The Dragon” Aguilar, and Jim Moore +109. For the women it was Carla Sanchez +74. Super Seniors are men 63 and over. For the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 46 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

For the qualifying squads, our top qualifier for the Men was Michael Duran +282 YES+282 including a perfect game!! Deborah Sanders led the women, and both get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $4,400. Mr. “300” Duran drew an Unmatched 131. The Match Series will surely go for $5,000 (FIVE GRAND) Saturday at CAL BOWL, with the remainder starting the new BACK –UP Reserve Pot!. For the 3-6-9 qualifying we had Sean Johnson, and Joey Rodriguez not able to eliminate one another, so the Pot goes for $2,900 at CAL. BIG BUCK$ at CAL My Friends!!

In our optional doubles finishing first were Jo Jo Barcelona and Jarret Handa 1658. Mike Moore and Mark Fisser 2nd at 1636 due to the very high, scores not many entered the doubles. We still paid out 20 places and $1,250 with low to cash 1525.

In the semis we saw pretty Ada Wong lead the field with a +170 to sit out and bowl for the title this week. Coming in second was Jarrett Handa at +148, to sit out the first round. It took a +77 to make the top 16 Single Elims. Included were 4 Women!!

Top Seed Ada Wong had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $935. 131. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had no bowlers who matched that score. We will estimate the new pot at $2,400 Saturday at CAL BOWL. This week we had six new bowlers join us. Let us welcome these new bowlers, and assure them that we do not usually have such scores anywhere as such.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals. In the first round seven losers were eliminated. They received checks of $100 each. In the round two, the losers were Gerritt Fisser, Ken Morris, John Camisa, and Jarrett Handa and got checks of $107.50. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. One match saw Vuong Do edge Angela Lung. Hong Kha downed Alan Basto so Angela, and Alan are 4th and 5th and checks of $115. The semi-final match Mr. Kha vs Mr. Do and the horse winner to be decided. Do paying $23, and Kha $77. It would be Vuong to down Crowd Favorite Kha in a 263-213 margin. Hong is 3rd with great bowling and $200 with Do on the meet the top seed Ada Wong for the title. The investors of horses on Vuong got $23 for each $5 entry.

The title game is on. Lanes Ada, being the top seed, elected to have Vuong lead off the match. Vuong would strike and Ada countered by a strike, spare, clean!! Vuong split and open in frame 3. Ada had a big lead but she then opened frame 4 and struck frame 5. Vuong with a strike, spare and split in the 7th opened. Ada then whiffed a 6 pin and after 7 frames Ada led by 23. But Vuong doubled in the 8-9 frames and Ada opened 8-9 frames. Vuong with no pressure doubles in the 10th to win the Title by a 225-188 handicap score and took home a tidy $2,800. Ada did so well until the final frames to finish second. She could have won this one, but her day will come! She took home $500 in the runner up position with fine bowling by a fine lady!

Congrats to Vuong, a fine young gentleman, who has not missed many ABTA Events since he joined 9 ½ yrs ago. This is his 6th Title in that era.

BURBANK — Believe it or not, bowling once had a dress code. I’m rather sad this tradition was slowly demolished. It gave bowling a dignity that all other sports still have. From pro to peewee, all sports wear team uniforms. Not in bowling, not now.

Up until the early 70’s, female bowlers were required at tournament to wear skirts. Team shirts were a must for all members. Everyday leagues wore matching team shirts and pants. Teams had names and/or sponsors. The local businesses would provide shirts to bowlers for advertising. Leagues gave Sponsor Trophies to encourage this.

At tournament, awards were given to the teams who looked the best and wore matching shirts. Slowly, the jeans crept in and they were the only no no to women bowling state or nationals. League bowlers started to give up on finding sponsors and naming their teams and showed up in tee shirts, jeans and shorts. Whatever was clean, I suppose. Soon, tournament and league requirements gave in and all you need do was show up and pay your fees.

It was a slow death, but a death all the same. Could this be the reason you hear, “Bowling is not a sport.”? Have we sacrificed our dignity, our style, our sportsmanship for beer and convenience? Try wearing team shirts, even if they’re matching tee shirts. Give your team a name, silly or otherwise. You’ll be very surprised how it changes your team’s perspective and oddly enough, pride.

“That’s what I needed to hear,” he continued. “If my sponsors think it’s important, it’s important to me. My career goal, from the very beginning, was to bowl against the very best in the world and beat them, but when you look at it from the viewpoint of what your sponsors want, it’s a whole different landscape.”

But Duke said he isn’t going to approach the PBA50 Tour as a leisurely hobby.

“I’m going to be prepared. I’m not going to approach this like it’s retirement,” he said. “It’s something I’ll take very seriously. I’m not going just to play; I’m going to compete.

“I thought about Pete and Walter Ray and Amleto (Monacelli) – guys who were the heroes while we were all bowling on the PBA Tour – I don’t remember bowling in events when those guys weren’t my competition. So I want to go out there on the PBA50 Tour and equal or exceed what they’ve already done. It’s like starting my quest all over.”

Duke said his current plan is to bowl the first three PBA50 Tour events in Florida and North Carolina, plus the PBA Senior U.S. Open and USBC Senior Masters in Las Vegas in June. At that point he’ll re-assess his plans for the duration of the PBA50 Tour’s 12-event 2014 schedule.

This Ain’t No Joke!! On 12-01-13 in NBA at Del Rio Lanes, Ron Kraft strung together 12 perfectos for a 300 game!! Congrats from all your friends in the Friday Vegas League at Del Rio!!

Week 2 - Round 5

by Mancini the Great

DOWNEY — What a great night on the lanes this week for the Ebonite bowlers. After 30 weeks and five different oil patterns, the “house shot” provided a condition that didn’t “drive bowlers to think”.

There were no 300’s registered, but Eric Snow was close with his 298. Bobby Campagnale came back strong after missing a few weeks, 290/792. I hear he wanted an 800 bad!

Advisors Pot? Snow and Campagnale! “Steady’ Eddie VanDaniker threw in a 279 to round out the side-pots.

Next week “Short Oil” will be the game — scores won’t be the same. 2 weeks of THAT fun, then 2 weeks of “Long Oil” leading up to the final weeks and roll-offs. The league couldn’t possibly repeat the 219 Monday Night’s average again this season.

J.A.T. has yo-yo’d up and down the standings all year, usually being the spoiler, at the same time adding wins but no $’s. Another night like Monday would be great! Check this folks. Kurt Arakaki 688, David Yamauchi 670, Kevin Valmonte 697 and Larry Campbell 788 for 2843. The big 5/0 win over POWER HOUSE VIDEO GAMES strapped them into third over-all with THREADWORKS - 91 1/2 EACH.

ZUNIGA’S and LINDER INSURANCE (Yes! They have been fighting the lanes and paying their dues!) will be under the microscope this week. Keeping tabs will be the four teams tied with 8 wins this round; A.B.T., PINO’S PIZZA, A.B.T.A.- $, and BOWLERS DEPOT.

ERICKSON FOODS is hanging on to the HIGH SCRATCH TEAM GAME 1028, which might stand till the end.

PRO APPROACH-BOWLIUM has a claim on SCRATCH SERIES, 2950. Both the 1028 and the 2950 seemed locked in with six weeks to go on difficult conditions.

There are 3 ladies who may not be the greatest bowlers in So. Calif., but have courage to step foot on the lanes and compete. Big noise for Nicole VanDaniker, Debbie Abahazy and Jessica Diso!

A lot has been said, by the bowlers, watchers and me, about the dastardly legal lane conditions this year — voted on by the members. BUT, for anyone comparing entering averages to current averages, only 14 bowlers are 3 to 10 pins lower. Even 3 of them have had medical problems. Kudos!
