By ElaineBaker Executive Director

VICTORVILLE — The finals for the Annual Citrus Belt Masters Tournament were held at Victor Bowl on April 23, 2005.

B.V.L. is one of the bowlers charities, started in 1942 by bowlers. The first purchases were fighter bombers! After W.W.II bowlers continued to support veterans in hospitals. The numerous wars since then have kept the V.A. hospitals full and in need of recreation equipment. 90% of all dollars collected is used to purchase vans, lanes, balls, T.V.'s, computersanything a veterans hospital requests on behalf of their patients. Plus, supports RE-CREATION (all volunteers) on their entertainment tour of hospitals around the U.S.A.

Linda Johnson, W.B. A. State President invites all bowlers to attend the opening of the State Tournament. Of course she also has a number of other invites.

Invites you to keep score, sell merchandise, collect 50/50 monies, be a sub, or be a gopher. Volunteers are always needed, subs are a premium. Meet new friends, be a part of a great happening in the San Gabriel Valley. Call Linda at 626-859-6216.

Council and Leseberg Take 2004-2005 GLAJAS League Championship by David Yamauchi

CERRITOS-The Greater L.A. Junior All-Stars had their league championship roll-off last Sunday at Cerritos Lanes. The 4 round winners and a wildcard team faced off in a dual bracket showdown on the lanes.

The first round was a twogame total-pins match. In the "A" bracket, 2nd seed team C7 Clothing- Ryan Council and Brian Leseberg matched up against wildcard team Professional Approach-Theresa Rusas (sub) and Anthony Dancel. C7 Clothing came out striking and never looked back as they defeated Professional Approach 810 (459-351) to 707 (368-339). In the "B" bracket, 3rd seed team Monster Energy-Ellie Schilling and Jason Dutcher matched up against 4th seed Del Rio Lanes-Alyse McGinnes and Mark French. Ellie and Jason started red hot with a 496 game, but it wasn't enough as Del Rio Lanes came back to win 855 (473-382) to 850 (496-354). This set up a semi-final match of C7 Clothing versus Del Rio Lanes. This time C7 Clothing came out striking and never looked back as they took the match 854 (408-446) to 729 (365-364). Ryan Council and Brian Leseberg then moved on to meet topseeded The Bowler's Image.

The Bowler's Image team of Kevin Valmonte and Jeff Spiesman were ready to meet C7 Clothing's Ryan Council and Brian Leseberg for the league title. They were bowling a bestof-three match for the league championship. In the first game, the lead-off bowlers Ryan Council and Kevin Valmonte started strong with games of 221 and 235 respectively. Jeff Spiesman never looked comfortable on the first pair and C7 took the first game 449-395. The second game moved one pair right, and this time it was Valmonte's 231 and Leseberg's 248 games high on the pair, and Council adding a 211 game pushing C7 Clothing to a 459-402 win and a 2-0 victory in the match. Congratulations to Ryan Council and Brian Leseberg of C7 Clothing on the 2004-2005 League Championship!

The Greater L.A. Junior All-Stars will hold its annual awards banquet with the JAT and JAT Farm Club on Saturday, June 4th at 11:30 a.m. We will be holding the event at Dave and Busters in Arcadia for a great afternoon of fun and games. Please check the paper/website for ad-

Sundara Wins Second ABTA Title at Keystone

Two Share Match Game $975, Match Series Est. $1,000 This Week at Premiere Mothers Day Special May 7 in Early Event at Chaparral Lanes

NORWALK–Good Guys win again this week? Yes, they do!! As Sun Sundara stepped up and won his second ABTA title the hard way, winning five straight matches in the top 16 single elim final in our contentious event at Keystone Lanes.

He finally downed top seed Ken Puleston in a title game that went to the final frame, final ball 246-245 to take home a nice $2,200 top prize for his superb effort in the two day event!

In our return to Keystone, Sun and Ken weren't the only ones performing well as the cut scores were decent. Saturday Men +60, Ladies +25 made the cut. The board was frozen with 1 in 5 entrants for Sunday's finals. Sunday's big 10 AM squad also took 1 in 5 and the cuts were near the same men +61 and the women -1 (oops)to advance to the semis.

A nice turnout of 183 entrants saw 43 semifinalists take the floor in hopes of making the top 16 Single Elim finals. Leading the Semis was the pride of Torrance, Ken Puleston with his huge +125 edging a late starting Marvin Crowder Jr. at +103. Kenny would sit out and bowl in the title game with Mr. Crowder receiving a first round bye. It took only a +16 to make the top 16 which included three ladies.

The top 16 single elims got going. Losing in the first round of the finals were Greg Kokanour, Jimmy Wong, Dodie Sajonas, Matt Scholes, Kristy Yahiku, Tony Rodriguez and Frank Robenoil. They got $100 finishing in 10-16th places.

In round two we had Crowder Jr. enter the field and he downed Chris Ragunton 220-199. Stan Por edged Donnie Johnson in a good one 214-209. Sun Sundara struck late to down Vickie Flanders 223-194. Billy Hambly got to Kevin Collier 192-169. The losers got $107.50 in 6-9th places.

Round three had Por come from behind and pull away from Crowder in a 231-201 win. Sundara had to pick up a 10 pin on the final ball to edge Hambly 200-192. Marvin Jr. and Bill were 4th and 5th with fine bowling and Por and Sundara to meet for the right to bowl Puleston for the title. They got $115.

This game was also a nail biter and tense to say the least. In fact it went to the final frame and Por needing a mark and 8 to win. After a key spare in the 10th went high and got a six count. Sundara, knowing that he at least had some luck on this day advanced to bowl Puleston for the title after the 223-222 handicap win. Por was third with a great showing although I am sure he'd like to throw that count ball again! Stanley got a check for $200.

The Title game was set and 27-28 was the pair. We would have a two time champion, both Ken and Sun have won and in fact in the past year. Ken elected to have Sun begin and he split in frame one and opened. Ken then answered with a double. Not to be denied, Sun then had a three bagger and held a nice lead as Ken guttered on a strike in frame 5 due to a noise at the ball return. After 6 frames Sun led by 15 with handicap. Kenny then came right back with a four bagger and finished 233/245 so Sun would need a double and 8 for the win. He got a break with a brooklyn for the first one and then carried a high pocket hit under pressure and now needing 8 pins for the win he went a bit high but got the 8 count and a 215/246 score. Good for the title by one pin and a nice $2,200. Great bowling Sun. You performed well under pressure winning three close matches. We are proud to have you as a two time champion!

Great bowling by a great guy Ken Puleston who came so close. He is not only a great bowler, but a fine man. Ken likes the two day and early ABTA Events.

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Angel Chau +179 and our lady hi qualifier was Terri Justin +46. They receive paid entries.

The optional doubles were taken by Stan Por and Chris Ragunton who had a nice 1385, good for $140 edging Ping and Chris Romero 1376 and $120. Glenn M'Brackets' Matsumoto and Simon Rojas at 1368 3rd and $100. We paid 9 places on the doubles.

Nathan Domino had 11 9's or better and then shot for $1,200 in the 3-6-9 rolloff, where he needed five 9's or better. He got the first 4 and then come up high on the final ball for a 7 count. We will go for $1,200 this Saturday at Premiere Lanes. He settled for a $50 Consolation prize.

The Match Game 3 was matched this week by two of our finest being Romy Bautista, and Bohner San Pedro. Their fine 170 game got them $408 each! The Match Series also was UNmatched due to the 465 drawn by hi qualifier Angel Chau. So with the $998 carryover we will have well over $1,200 in the match series this Satur day at Premiere Lanes and for only a $2.00 entry fee.

This week's winner of the Columbia "300" Ball of his choice is none other than Thomas Licauco, and he opts for the new Columbia Professional Ball. Thomas was quite happy to say the least and he thanks Columbia for being our sponsor.

Champion Sun Sundara hails from Diamond Bar and he is single. He used a Storm drilled by Ginny Adams at Linbrook Bowl.. He thanks all his fans and special thanks to Brian Moreland and Imee Ahorro (ABTA member) for support, and The ABTA staff for a great tournament and Keystone Lanes. Ken Puleston is from Torrance and married to a beautiful lady, Sylvia. The own and operate S & K Pro shop located in Gable House Bowl. Ken thanks his lovely wife Sylvia for support and the ABTA Staff.

Stan Por is from Long Beach, and Single Ladies! He toils as an Agent for New York Life! In fact he is my New York Life Agent and I am his Tournament Director! :-) so I know that my money is in good hands. He thanks his bowling buds especially Chris Ragunton, Keystone Lanes and the ABTA Club. Stan will be in our Big Las Vegas event in July at the Gold Coast.

We had several new members join at Keystone and first time cashers were Donnie Johnson, and Matt Scholes,

Join us this week at Premiere Lanes in a One Day Event. there are five squads 1-2:30-4-5:30 & 7 PM, 3-6-9 and semis begin at 8:45 PM. Check in early in this event! Premiere is easily freeway accessed and located at 13210 E. Telegraph Rd in Santa Fe Springs, Take 605 to Telegraph 3 miles East-or- Take 5 freeway to Carmenita North 2 miles to Telegraph, west 2 blocks and the phone there is 562-941-0271

The following week we visit Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas in an Early One day Special Mother's Day Event. There will be drawings for the Mothers who bowl there.

It is history as Sun Sundara enters the archives as a two time ABTA Champion.

Many people have inquired of the well-being of ABTA Member Resty Sanchez who suffered a mild stroke. Resty is improving daily, and says he will be back to visit soon. With therapy he will be just fine in time. I had the honor of being invited to Resty's Daughter's Debutante Birthday Party held last Friday Eve at the Buena Park Holiday Inn. It was a magnificent gala affair and the nicest Birthday Celebration that I have ever seen. Resty was there and received a standing ovation from the crowd of approximately 300 guests. He is well liked and respected to say the least. Get well soon Resty we are pulling for You!

BOWLING NEWS

LAS VEGAS, NV. Mickey Curley. La Habra "300" Bowl. The PBA $200,000 TV showdown. Dick Weber. Mega Buck tournaments soon, in L.V. Good grief! Where do I start? This every-otherweek-gig is catchin' up to me. (And...I need some room to 'splain to Mother Mancini that Brunswick and me can't compare. It's tough when yer publisher is as goofy as the wierd author.)

Each of the subjects would fill a column. We'll squeeze in what we can and go into detail down the road:

* Some rumors have been makin' the rounds that La Habra "300" Bowl will be closing. Fact: THAT is a crock! Simple enough?

* La Habra "300" part "B" concerns Mickey Curley. She will be stepping down as the General Manager of the famed center at the end of the month. Like, Mickey has been the GM there since forever. She must own all the longevity records for a GM in one center. Naturally, there is a reason. She has done a brilliant job, not only for the owners, but for bowlers and bowling. A remarkable lady...a Hall of Famer...will remain at the center in an advisory capacity a couple days a week. During her tenure, a home for the Orange County H of F was established at La Habra, and she handled with dignity the wrongful refusal of the ABC to honor bowling's first and probably only legitimate 900-the one by Glenn Allison in 1980. I probably would have blown up the ABC headquarters, but the steady hand of Mickey Curley proved to be bigger than the dunderhead decision of the "leadership" of our sport. Mickey has been one of the brightest lights, ever, in bowling center operation. Quite a gal!

* Kudos to the media, everywhere, for the tremendous coverage of the passing of Dick Weber. Bowling got it right-the greatest ambassador the sport has known. Will anyone ever come close? I suggested to Jim Goodwim, publisher of the Stars & Strikes, that Norm Duke might well become our next caretaker. Jim mentioned Jeanette Robinson has also made that comment.

The PBA's "Roll to Riches" was a super battle of six PBA stars in a two-day, two-hour scramble that was every bit as exciting as golf's Masters the week before. It was a $200,000 winner-take-all showdown rolled on lane conditions far too easy for these stars... it did away with spares for most of the show, but the pressure of that much money was an equalizer throughout, with the final segment for the loot going to the first player of the two remaining, to get six strikes. Chris Barnes amazingly did it in six frames, a pace Tommy Jones could not equal. While the show had the regular announcing team and other short comings, the biggest was the miniscule audience... but few knew about the event due to lack of pre-event promotion. Maybe ESPN will re-run it. This thing was fabulous, almost in spite of itself. With a little spit and polish, it could become a raging success as a season finale... featuring the top six point earners for the year. Skip the fan vote, let the players earn a spot ... and count the cash "towards the PBA's season totals.

* The Big Buck tournaments roll into Vegas soon, but, for some reason, they will not all be here at the same time. Usually, the trio of the High Roller (Sam's Town), TAT (Texas Station) and the Mini Eliminator (The Orleans) coincide their visits over the July 4th week, giving bowlers a big-time selection of events. This year, for some inexplicable reason, TAT and High Roller folks decided to come in around June 26 thru July 4...the same dates that Bowl Expo will be running in Orlando Florida. That means all the "A Team" experts for the ball companies will be in the South, not available for those two tourneys until possibly the last day. The ball giveaways and especially the drilling expertise and advice are MAJOR components of the Big Buck events. This year, ONLY the Mini Eliminator will have the Brunswick All-Star technical staff for the duration of their spectacular. This seems to me to be an odd move by the pair. Perhaps they just don't want to knock heads with the Mini's Steve Sanders, in my book, one of bowling's top promoters and innovaters.

If it comes to picking one tourney to enter, I'd have to go with the July 2nd to 12th Mini Eliminator. Not only is it at the "usual" time for these events, but I noted the prize fund from top to bottom is guaranteed, plus other goodies such as the MoRich Match Play 20-grand battle on July 2 & 3 and a new Mixed Doubles event, loads of Sweepers and Brackets ... plus the famed Kegel Co. will take care of the lanes!

I always look forward to the three events in town at the same time. The change a surprise ... and I hope the odd choice by TAT and High Roller doesn't end up hurting all three tournaments. Besides, that Mini 150th place $1,000 guarantee would surely make up my mind. I know ... what mind? All three events are outstanding, it will be a load of fun for me, just watching.

P.S.: Mother Mancini, I checked with Brunswick ... they have a much bigger inventory than ol' Steffi (This pertains to M.M.'s comment in this spot, 4/14.)

ding anniversary trip to Maui coming up in June. Jan has been bowling for about 45 years and is a charter member of the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) - joining back in 1977. Jan bowls in the ABT league on Friday nights at Brunswick Orange Bowl and has a high game of 300 and a high series of 782 to his credit. He used a Storm Trauma bowling ball drilled by Dick Braasch at Braasch's Bowling Supply in Westminster. Jan wanted to thank his good friends Joe Tonetti and Mike Malinick for helping him with his game and Cathy for all her love and support. Jan also wanted to thank Brunswick Orange Bowl for hosting the tournament this Saturday and the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff for running an outstanding tournament week after week. We drew the Mystery

Pot of Gold game number and score after our final squad. Game #4 and 201 were drawn for this week. There was no winner for $1000 dollars. The second chance score was 176 in game #4. One bowler did shoot the score of 176 with handicap in game #4, but they were not in the Mystery Pot. The third chance score drawn was 251 in Game #4. No one shot 251 with handicap in Game #4, so the Mystery Pot of Gold carries over to next week.

Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5 for a chance at $1000.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Brunswick Orange Bowl for hosting our tournament last Saturday. Our next scheduled event will be this weekend, on Saturday, April 30, 2005 at Linbrook Bowl. This will be a special 4 game Beatthe-Board Classic and Masters Combined Singles tournament format. All members (Classic and Masters) are eligible. Handicap will be 80% of 225 for this tournament. Squad times are at 12:30 PM, 2PM, and 4PM only. We will offer $100 sidepots at the 2pm and 4pm squads with just 20 entrants. First place will be GUARAN-TEED at $800 for only a $50 entry fee. We will offer an estimated 1st place of $1,600 with our optional Win, Place, and Show Pot. We recommend you arrive early (at least 1/2 hour before squad time) to guarantee your spot. We hope to see you this Saturday, April 30, 2005 at Linbrook Bowl.

Jon Brandon (Iron) Sears Pins For 801!

DOWNEY - The Brunswick. A name synonymous with tradition, competition, quality and of course, bowling. Same goes for the league at Del Rio Lanes. Now down to the last three weeks of rolloff competition, the cream is rising to the top.

This week's top gun is Jon Brandon. On scores of 264, 279, 258, Jon hit the 800 mark. Congrats. Jon drills his own equipment and was using "The Professional".

Another congrats goes to "Vayle Floria" for his P.B.A. win in Hawaii last week, using his ole faithful Columbia Black U-Dot. Of course he uses a Brunswick ball on Mondays?

Sorry, Randy Myers has computer problems this week, but promes to be back with the stats next week. For this week top eight standings, and a couple of comments from Randy.

"No team had a four game sweep this week." "24 teams will be scheduled to bowl each other again this coming week." With the "position every week" format, teams often bowl each other week after week.

The T.D. Rowe foursome was the only team to have all 600's. Carlos Castillo 630, Julio Vasquez 621, Derek Lee 673, and Jeff Hickenbottom 629. Nice clean set guys!

Their opponent-Transcon Logistics was only 16 pins short overall. 2553/2537. Steve Brode 551, Dan Cerio 600, Larry Gray 680 and Steve Schroeder 706. They will be matched again this week.

Pro Approach-Lakewood will battle Reback's Plumbing again; well darn...... All the top eight teams are rematched this week! Can you believe it?

Come on guys, give us a show!

Donkee Champion Dennis Barrett Loves Premiere Lanes and Pockets $1,400

SANTA FE SPRINGS-First of all a big thanks to Manny and his great staff for always being so pleasant. Thanks.

Our gentleman Dennis Barrett is fifty seven years old and is self employed with Western Data that provides data processing services. Dennis has four children Tom, Tim Denise and Natalie and is no stranger to the bowling game. . Dennis mentioned that he almost didn't come to this tournament. He was out playing blackjack all night but after about four and half hours of sleep decided to bowl. Good move.. I think he played Blackjack at Pala Casino and came home with some loot from Pala too. He said it was really crowded.

This tournament at Premiere Lanes makes win number five for Dennis. His last win was at West Covina Lanes January 2005 against Arnold Cheesman. To date his highest game is a 290 rolled at Valley View Lanes and his highest series is a 756 bowled at Concourse lanes in Anaheim. For his big win Saturday he happily pockets $800 first place money $500 Jack Ace money and an added $100 bonus for wearing his Donkee Logo Shirt . Congratulations go to a great Gentleman who has a nice smile and a good word for evervone.

It seems that bowlers enjoy one day tournaments. Our next tournament at Carter is also a one day tournament. Three Squads. First squad is at 12:30PM. 2:00PM and last one is at 3:30PM.

Dennis wishes to thank Frank Bellinder in the Premiere Pro Shop for maintaining his bowling equipment. Thanks Frank. If you need help with your bowling or your bowling equipment go see Frank. He is a Pro and really knows the bowling game. Dennis also wishes to thank the Roll'n Donkee staff and Premiere Lanes for hosting a great tournament.

We have a bye this coming week-end April 30th/May 1st.

Donkee Champion Dennis drew the mystery number a 133 game. No winner.

There is a little change in the squad schedule. The first squad which was to be at 11:30Am at Carter is eliminated.

Return Of The Two Divisional Format Is Paving Off More Places Now In The WCST Ebonite Tournaments. More Super Seniors Ages 60 And Up Are Now Returning And Joining The Organization

BOWLING NEWS

by Dick Sanders The two divisional format for the regular division and the super senior division returned to the WCST Ebonite Tournaments starting with our first tournament of the year in 2005 last January. Since that time, many of the past WCST members, who are now eligible to be a super senior have rejoined, and we have had many new super seniors also bowl as guests and are rejoining. This is an excellent opportunity for the super seniors to enter our tournaments and as every bowler entered is bowling for the regular finals on Sunday, super seniors who do not make the regular division finals, and their scores are high enough to make the super senior finals, that bowls on Sunday as well as the regular division finals. The highest qualifying scores for the super seniors will dictate what finals they will bowl. They will have No choice of what finals they wish to bowl in.

The super seniors are very important to the WCST, as they will provide more bowlers to the tournament, which is good for the tournament, the center and the organization. To get more information on how you may join the WCST, and enter our tournaments, please call the WCST Office at 760-363-8141.

The next WCST Ebonite Singles Tournament will be at AMF-Bowling Square in Arcadia, CA. This 40 lane center can hold a maximum field of 80 bowlers, and at the time of this article there were 51 entries.

The tournament is scheduled for the week-end of May 14-15, 2005. One squad for the qualifying only to start on Saturday, May 14th at 11:00AM. The Entry Fee is $165.00 for current WCST Members, and guests to add $15.00. The tournaments pays one place for every 3 entries in each division.

Bowlers will bowl 10 straight games for the qualifying. On Sunday, May 15th, the finals for both divisions begin at 8:30AM. Number of finalists and number of games in each division is determined by number of entries of each division. Age Eligibility: Regular Division Men, 45 to 59, Ladies 40 to 49, Super Seniors, Men, 60 and up, Ladies, 50 and up. Make your reservations now by calling 760-363-8141.

Next two tournaments after, Arcadia are both WCST Ebonite Singles Tournaments. June 18-19, Keystone Lanes, Norwalk, July 23-24, Riverside Casino Lanes in Laughlin.

ATTENTION BOWLING LEGENDS

By DON CECIL

ALHAMBRA — Well everybody, here I am again, a brand new person. As you know I have been under the weather for about three months.

Finally the West Los Angeles V. A. Hospital has gotten to the problem. On Monday, the 11th of April, they did an Angiogram on my arteries. They found 65% blockage in my left artery. While I was out they went ahead and did angioplasty and that eliminated the blockage. I am a new person again. Walk a mile every other day, walk nine holes of golf so far of which I haven't done in 25 years.

What a great feeling! I hardly can believe it. Thank God for looking after me. Enough about me.

We are back at the promotion of the Bowling Legends again, along with Mike Camarrata of Del Rio Lanes in Downey. Mike has been so cooperative with me. It's great, the Pro-Am Eliminations are going to start in the next two weeks. Flyers and entry blanks will be out.

There is another person I feel is in my corner. That's Carol Mancini of the Bowling News. Carol has been so great. I owe her a lot. Thanks pretty lady!

Yes I am going back to seeing and calling the Legends of the past 50 years. Just to make sure they're coming on the 3rd and 4th of July. For the finality of the big event, I have some 25 or 30 commitments already and going after a lot more of the big stars of history in bowling.

I have obtained two great sponsors and shooting for a third—to be announced real soon. Also trying to get Monday nite rolloff between the two highest pro scores in the Pro-Ams, one game match to be covered on live television.

It doesn't hurt to go all out. Bear with me everybody, I will get it done and God Bless ev-

NABI San Diego-Kearny Mesa hosted the NABI tournament last weekend, & John Fowler finished first with a terrific display of consistent bowling (& a lot of great carry!) John was the #2 seed, & bowled a nice 234 in his first match, then turned around and rolled a spectacular 287 in the championship. Congratulations, John! The rest of the top five contestants were Jared Evans, Frank Ehbrecht, Simon Nophalath & Curtis Huffpower.

Collecting $50 guaranteed sidepots were Zirie Benton, Norm Rauch, Beto Rivero, Bryant Brazier, Nophalath, Evans, Ehbrecht, Huffpower, & Fowler. Pizza Hut tickets went to Nophalath, Ehbrecht & Tim Knight.

In perpetual pot action, five bowlers split the 3-6-9 for $30 each-Phil Horn, Paul Willey, Jr., Nophalath, Ehbrecht & Knight, while Beto Rivero receiver $100 for shooting 9 in a row.

The next NABI San Diego event is this Saturday, April 30 at Parkway Bowl & is one of the few times each year we run tournaments on back to back weekends. Check our ad in this issue for complete tournament details. See you the 30th at Parkway

It Pays To Enter the High Roller Early!

LAS VEGAS-It's been a while since we have had such great response this early in the promotion!

With the 1st early entry deadline coming up this week (April 30 pos

NORWALK–Glenn Davis, a native of Southern California, was an extraordinary individual. He was an athlete of superstar stature, a graduate of West Point, and handsome enough to date Hollywood's most glamorous stars.

I say was, because Davis, a resident of La Quinta, near Palm Springs, died on March 9 of complications from prostate cancer. He was 80

Davis gained national prominence as a running back for Army in the mid-40s. Known as Mr. Outside-because of his blazing speed in circling the ends-Davis teamed with Felix (Doc) Blanchard, a hardrunning fullback who was dubbed Mr. Inside. They were also known as The Touchdown Twins.

Davis and Blanchard were an unbeatable combination. In their three years with Army, the unbeaten Cadets posted a remarkable 27-0-1 record. A scoreless tie against powerhouse Notre Dame in 1944 was Army1s only blemish.

In 1945, Blanchard was voted the Heisman Trophy, while Davis was the recipient of the coveted award in 1946, the same year he was named Associated Press male athlete of the year.

At West Point, Davis, who was 5-9 and 170, earned a total of 10 letters in four sports—football, baseball, basketball and track. The speedy Davis ran the 100-yard dash in 9.7 and set a West Point record of 20.7 in the 220.

When Davis was on furlough in 1948, he met and dated Elizabeth Taylor. But the affair cooled and later Davis married actress Terry Moore, the first of his three wives.

After completing his Army commitment, Davis signed a pro football contract with the Los Angeles Rams. His gridiron career, however, was cut short after two years because of a serious knee injury.

In 1954, Davis was employed by the Los Angeles Times as assistant director of special events. He became the director in 1960, heading The Times numerous charity sporting events until 1987, when he retired. He settled in La Quinta with his third wife, Yvonne Ameche, the widow of 1954 Heisman winner Alan (The Horse) Ameche.

Before West Point, Davis starred at Bonita High in La Verne, just northeast of Los Angeles. Winning 13 letters in four sports at Bonita, Davis even today is often hailed as the most versatile athlete in the history of California prep sports.

There¹s no doubt that Glenn Davis was a superior athlete, who excelled in any sport he tried. That is, in all except one-bowling.

I knew Davis when he was with The Times and I was a member of the sports staff at The Mirror. Both papers were owned by the giant

Times-Mirror Company. Although we weren¹t on the same team, both Davis and I bowled in the Times-Mirror League, which often boasted of more than 50 five-man teams. Davis, a friendly chap, was very popular with everyone

On the lanes, Davis was so uncoordinated that he had a difficult time averaging 135. He still had a good time bowling, though, and enjoyed the challenge of trying to knock down the pins

At the end of each league session, Times publisher Norman Chandler would host a grand awards banquet, noted for its lively entertainment and robust good fellowship. In other words, plenty of dancing girls and lots of beer.

Memorial services for Davis, who donated his Heisman Trophy to Bonita High, were held on March 14. Burial was four days later at the U.S. Military Academy in West Point, N.Y.

I will always remember Glenn Davis as being one of the good guy

Hall of Famer Andy Marzich said something recently that caught my attention. He stated: ³Bowling on the pro level requires more skill than golf at the pro level. I asked him why, and here¹s how he replied: Basically, the difference comes down to this—golf is not played on a surface. You can play golf while it's raining or a terrible wind blowing. All reasons why you should, maybe, be in a bowling center. In bowling, you can be on lanes that all look alike, but each one is different. Hobby bowlers don't even know that no two lanes are alike. In golf, they wear shoes so they don't slip. In bowling, we're subject to some approaches that are impossible to play on ... too sticky or too slippery.

In golf, you have a different club of every shot. What's tough about that? Only when golfers get on the greens do they play on a surface. That's as clear as I can make my argument. The public has been led to believe that golf is such a tough game. For the weekender, golf may be tough, but no tougher than bowling. People will say, Well, anyone cn bowl. I say, Anyone can play golf.

To reach the levels of pros in any sport takes an awful lot, and only a few reach that level. And you can quote me!

Marzich, who was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame in 1990 and the ABC Hall in 93, won six PBA titles during the 60s. He also won three ABC Tournament championships and had three other top-10 finishes.

After his pro bowling days, Marzich, who was a member of Billy Welu's famed Falstaff team, bought a bowling center in the L.A. Harbor city of San Pedro. He named it Andy Marzich's Pro Bowl-Where Good Friends Gather.

When Marzich sold the center, he retired and settled down in Torrance, where today he lives in a deluxe senior apartment complex. He says he is still irked by the absurdity of the PGA (Professional Golf mark), many players have apparently already made their plans to attend the July 4th High Roller at Sam's Town. And, experienced players realize that as long as they are coming, it pays to get your entry in early.

Those early entrants will receive a free entry into the new BID (Best In Division) Singles tournament, a $60 value. The BIDSingles takes place during the High Roller. Players staving at Sam's Town Hotel & Casino will receive an additional entry into the BIDSingles. Call 1-800-634-6371 for room rates as low as $34!

From June 26th to July 4th, High Roller will attempt to set a "modernday" record for number of players making a profit! That's right, 1 in 8 will win $1,000! And not just the good bowlers, or the younger bowlers.....as there are 4 separate age divisions and the 205 & Under average division as well. Each division - 1 in 8 wins $1,000. You can win $1,000 every day!

And, new this summer, each division is guaranteed to advance players each day to the rich Grand Finals to shoot for top prizes up to $30,000! Also, each division will have bowlers advance to the finals of the BIDSingles.

What do you have to do to make a profit in other Las Vegas events? It might even be a little easier this summer. Many of the better bowlers will be attending Bowl Expo in Florida during most of the High Roller.

Hundreds of players will also win a Storm high performance ball during High Roller week. Storm, the Bowler's Company is the presenting sponsor.

Plenty of new features make this High Roller real strong! The new Winner Take All (in divisions), discounted entries and great prizes in the Advantage Club, Scoring Insurance (win a $175 re-entry for $20), the free Recruiter's Purse. Cheeper Sweepers and much more give bowlers many opportunities to earn prizes.

Big news this year is that inactive bowlers since 2000, or 1st timers are guaranteed to cash! That's right, the 1st 200 of those players will win $100 if they don't win $1,000 before they re-enter.

So make your plans now! Enter online, it's easy, fast and secure! Visit us at www.high-roller.com or call us toll free 1-800-257-6179.

High Roller has now paid over $76 MILLION to bowlers since 1982!

Assn.) prize payoffs, which has always troubled me as a bowler. ADDENDUM: While bowling continues to decline, golf is more popular than ever. Bowling centers are closing all over the country, but nearly 500 new courses were built in 2003. Bowling has lost almost 5 million members in the last two decades; meanwhile, more than 3 million have taken up golf since 1999.

The growing popularity of golf is attributed to the personal magnetism of Tiger Woods. It's called the Tiger Effect. And it doesn't hurt that former Presidents George H. Bush and Bill Clinton are playing golf all around the globe, garnering tons of worldwide publicity for the sport.

FINAL ITEM: Danny Wiseman is one of my favorite bowlers. Why? Because bowling's Baltimore Belter doesn't hesitate to let you know when something's on his mind. And he always tells it like it is.

A widely-read publication recently handicapped the PBA Player of the Year race. It stated that Patrick Allen was the one to catch, and only four other pros were given a chance to overtake him-Walter Ray Williams Jr., Chris Barnes, Mika Koivuniemi and Tommy Jones.

That prompted Wiseman to exclaim: What am I? Am I that invisible? Don't forget, I have more top-10's than anyone, and I've been up there (in the PBA tournament statistics) all year long.

What do I have to do-something stupid-to be Œnot forgotten1? What gives? It's just like the PBA omitting me from their (recent) surveys. I guess we'll just have to wait until the end of the year and see what happens, huh?

Wiseman gof off to a fast start this season when he captured the Miller High Life Masters Presented by the American Bowling Congress . He needs to bag just one of the remaining two majors, as of this writing, to thrust himself into the heart of the PBA Player of the Year race.

Funny thing...no sooner did Wiseman let his feelings be known when the PBA announced that he was one of six pros who will compete in the new Motel 6 Roll to Riches promotion on April 14. It'll be a winner-take-all competition, with the last man standing collecting $200,000. Sounds like fun.

Glusman, Hair, Danforth, And Carmichael All JST Titlists at New Yorba Linda

by Brian Carmichael

The Junior Scratch Tour returned to its home, New Yorba Linda Bowl, this past Sunday, and it was once again another great tournament. There was a great turn out from the bowlers, making it another great field of bowlers out there, all vying for the prestigious JST titles, and the huge amount of scholarships we have to offer. This would be another exciting tournament, with 3 of the 4 divisions seeing repeat winners from the last tournament. Over $800 in scholarships were paid out to all the winners and placers at just this tournament, making our season total of scholarships distributed out as high as usual.

Now onto the results...

The Novice Div. would be the only division having a different winner from the last JST tournament, as Sean Beever rolled his way to high game and high series points with a 200 game, and nice 727 series in qualifying. The division was then cut to the top 4 for two games of match play to determine the 1-game roll off, and newcomers Jeff Glusman would take the 2nd spot, with Kyle Frederick taking the number 1 spot. Both bowlers bowled very well with many 200-plus games in match play to get them there, but things slowed down in the championship match as Glusman defeated Frederick 149-134. Congratulations to Jeff on his first JST win, good for the $50 scholarship.

The Intermediate Div. saw some nice bowling from Candice Galvan, who shot both the high game and series of qualifying with a nice 242/825. The top 6 went to four more games of match play as last tournament's champ went up to 1st, Galvan down to 2nd, and Steven Sensabaugh making his 2nd roll off appearance in a row, in 3rd. It was the same fate for Sensabaugh, as he fell to Galvan in the first match 131-248. Hair was then looking for his 2nd title in a row, up against Galvan, looking for her first JST title, and it would go to the final frames with Hair getting the win, 182-170. Great bowling out to Charlie, and winning the $75 1st-place scholarship.

The Advance Div. saw 33 tremendous bowlers come out and make it the biggest division of the day, as they would take the top 16 to match play. Justen Danforth went into match play as the leader shooting a nice 917 four-game set. Shane Peck rolled a huge 289 game in qualifying to receive high game points. Danforth kept the bowling up remaining in the number 1 spot for the roll off, as Peck fell from 2nd to 5th. Justin Cook jumped a few spots into 2nd, Dayton Crossley as well into 3rd, and Jeremy Glover taking 4th. Glover always has done well at New Yorba Linda, and he showed why as he defeated Peck in the first match with a great 267 game, and then defeated his fellow friend Crossley, 213-192. Glover kept it up in the semi-final as he easily defeated Cooks 205 game, with another great game of 258. The title match was then set and the drying lanes made the match interesting, as it went down to the final frames, and making it another clutch performance by Danforth. Danforth would need the first strike in the tenth, and he got it, winning the game and his second title in a row with a 196 to Glover's 179. Congratulations to Justen on another exciting win, good for the $125 scholarship.

The Open Div. had some great bowling as Preston Fukumizu started the day with a great 287 game, and ended qualifying with a nice 944 set. Movement was seen in match play, as Brian Carmichael jumped the most from 6th to 1st, all while William Jackson Jr. moved from 5th to 2nd, Fukumizu down to 3rd, and Ashkan Tahvildaran taking 4th. Fukumizu looked like he wanted to taste victory for the 2nd time this season, as he beat Tahvildaran in the first match 248-187, but then fell to Jackson in the semi-final, 197-227. Jackson was in his second title match of the season, and he knew he would have to bowl a huge game for the win. Carmichael showed why he thought that, as Carmichael struck every frame but one in the final game, rolling a nice 279 game to beat Jackson's 233 game. Congratulations to Brian on his 2nd title in a row, good for the $125 scholarship, and his fourth title of the season. That was great bowling from everyone, and I think most of the bowlers found the lanes in their favor. We would like to thank our sponsors once again; Storm Bowling Products Inc., and B&W Bowling Equipment. We could never thank them enough. Our next tournament is the last regular tournament of the season, and it is May 15th at Action Lanes in El Monte. Remember this is a mandatory pre-enter, and you can do so by calling Butch or Lenni Hesketh at (951) 684-7941 by Saturday night, May 14th. Also remember this is the final tournament to count for points, and it will be a big one, with it being worth double the points. This is your final chance to get yourself in the Tournament of Champions and High Points if you are not already eligible. You can get more information on this tournament and more, on JST's website, www.jstbowl.com. With that, we hope to see everyone at Action on May 15th. Good luck to all the bowlers who qualified for Pepsi State Finals, and are bowling it on the weekend of May $7^{th}-8^{th}$. Show the state what the JST is made of. Good luck once again, and take care.

National Deaf Bowling News Jerilyn Keller Wins GLDWBA Queens & Scores 1911 In All Events

by Connie Marchione MERRILLVILLE, IN-The three time Deaf Team USA member Jerilyn Keller was mad and disappointed at herself for her poor showing in the Deaflympics last January in Australia. Albeit she shared in winning bronze medal in women's trios and silver medal in women's team. she was embarrassed with her overall average which was twenty pins below her normal average.

Back home in San Antonio her new ball, Dyne Thane was nit working for her, so she went back to her Icon 300. The results were good as last February Jerilyn had a 728 series in her league and also she won the Austin Deaf Women's Classic.

Last weekend in the prestigious Great Lakes Deaf Women's Bowling Association Tournament at Merrillville, IN, Jerilyn atoned for her poor Deaflympics performance. In the Friday's GLDWBA's 15th annual Lillian Kernz handicap Queens Championship with 45 women entrants, she qualified near the top in her first 3 games. In the next round, she stayed near the top going into the top 16 match plays.

In the afternoon's one game double-elimination match plays Jerilyn went through 4 rounds without a loss. While she waited in the championship finals, her friend, a former Deaf Team USA member Stacey Thompson, Olathe, KS with one loss, fought her way up to the title finals.

In the one game finals, Stacey beat Jerilyn and since each had one loss, another one game match was required. In that one Jerilyn came back to defeat Stacey 198 to 178 for the coveted GLDWBA Queens title.

On Saturday in the GLDWBA team event, Jerilyn rolled 190-192-225 for 607 in her team Fire 'n Ice's 2779 scratch total and 2884 with handicap. Her team mates were Stacey Thompson, Deaf Team USA member Cheyenne Rogers, LA, Jessica Carrizales, TX and former Deaf Team USA member Kim Wroldsen, KS. At this time it is not known if their 2779 is the high scratch score. Also with their small 105 handicap, their 2884 is too low in handicap standings.

On Sunday's singles and doubles events, Jerilyn scored 205-244-212 for singles scratch total of 661 plus 24 handicap for a 685 total. Then she added 222-216-205 for 643 and her doubles partner Cheyenne 617 for a 1260 scratch total plus 30 handicap 1290 total.

Still we do not know where these scores stands but their 1260 is a new GLDWBA doubles actual record and the first over 1200 actual score in its 58 years history. Th highest it ever had was 1197 made in 2002. In singles Jerilyn herself holds the GLDWBA record singles event score of 703 made in 2001 in which at that time she won both actual and handicap (738) prizes,

For all events, combining her team 607 series, singles 661 and doubles 643, Jerilyn has her personal best 1911 total. Impressive total but it is not a GLDWBA record. It is 15 pins short of the record 1926 total made by Stacey Thompson in 1999.

Again, counting Jerilyn's handicap of 24 for each event, she has a 1986 handicap total, which is a mere one pin short. GLDWBA's record handicap all-events score of 1987 was made by Sheila McClish in 2002. That McClish must have a large handicap because that year Jerilyn notched the high actual all events score with her 1826.

Anyway, Jerilyn is happy with her efforts and looks forward to know what places her team, doubles, singles and all-events are in when the results are officially counted. Also we will wait for that and inform of any corrections to this story.
