Can U.S.B.C. Sanction Allison's 900?

by Stephen Lindsey

NORWALK—Allison turned 75 on 5-22-05 and is still going strong, physically and mentally. He remains a competitive bowler and his bowling accomplishments will “shock and awe” (how’s that for a plug for a particular bowling bowl?) those of us who wish we had half his bowling ability and knowledge. A Hall of Famer who is best known as “Mr. 900”, the first person who legitimately rolled a 900 series, yet was denied ABC official recognition and sanctioning. Glenn has personally conveyed that evening’s event to me numerous times. I’ve seen the documents and I’ve talked with some of those who were present. What was ABC thinking when they denied such an historical display of talent!!

Glenn Allison

Since the 80’s our game has suffered greatly. Often it is not referred to a “sport”, but rather as a “game” and does not carry the same weight or respect bestowed other professional events (referring to the PBA). In fact, many think the television presentation of the PBA Tour is a joke, a “circus”, and cannot be taken seriously when compared to World Championship Poker or The Little League World Series! How sad is that?

People have lost interest in the game even though the change in equipment and lane conditions have increased averages and caused honor scores to go through the roof. A few decades ago you had to be a “spare shooter” and wait for the strikes to come to you in order to average in the 190’s-200.

Packard Leads After Day Two

LAS VEGAS—He's one of the most successful bowlers in the history of the PBA Regional Tour. Now Ross Packard is trying to become one of the stars of the PBA Senior Tour.

Packard, who is tied for 7th all-time with 27 PBA Regional Tour titles, averaged 251.40 in his five-game block Monday to take the lead after two days of qualifying in the 2005 Senior ABC Masters at Suncoast Bowling Center.

The 2005 Senior ABC Masters is the second of two majors on the 2005 PBA Senior Tour schedule.

Packard, San Jose, Calif., was on fire in his five games, shooting 248s in games one and three, sandwiched around a 258. He then shot 278 in game four and finished the set with a 225, ending the day with a 2,426 10-game pinfall and the lead heading into the final day of qualifying. “I didn't do anything different today than I did yesterday, but my carry was just very good today,” said Packard, who was 25th after Sunday's first session. “Last week (in the 2005 PBA Senior Tucson Open) I shot 160 in the last game of qualifying to just miss the cut. I'm in a good spot now but I'd still like to qualify as high as I can.”

Junichi Yajima, Tokyo, who has won a record 41 Japan Professional Bowlers Association titles, fired a 279 in his final game to finish 2nd with 2,406. Craig Kistro, Granada Hills, Calif., is 3rd with 2,401, while Mike Henry, Brunswick, Ohio, is 4th with 2,396. Takeo Sakai, Higashi, Osaka, rounds out the top five with 2,386.

2004 PBA Senior Tour Rookie of the Year David Ozio, Beaumont, Texas, is 63rd with 2,206.

The 384-bowler field will bowl its final five games on Tuesday, starting at 8 a.m. PT. The top 63 bowlers after the 15 games of qualifying will join defending champion Gary Dickinson, Edmond, Okla., in double-elimination match play starting Wednesday at 9 a.m.

The only undefeated player to come out of the winner's bracket will face the winner of the loser's bracket Thursday at 4 p.m. to determine the winner of the $20,000 top prize and a berth in next season's PBA Dexter Tournament of Champions.

the game. Today, you can throw a ton strikes and shoot 600 without making any spares. Amazing!

Membership in the ABC had continued to decline over the decades due to poor leadership/management, distrust, the lack of interest in the game, the loss of legitimacy, and the continued closing of bowling establishments. A bowling alley today is a real estate transaction waiting to happen, and it's happening way too often.

So who is to blame for the present condition of our sport? Well, in my opinion, we have to lie part of the blame directly at the feet of the ABC, the PBA, and the bowlers themselves. We need to take control of this game and bring back the glory of days past if we are to ensure this going to be a future. We need to create heroes as well as recognize the hero's of the past that did not get their just awards. We need to bring back "pot games", big scratch leagues (including the All-star Traveling Leagues), have more local tournaments. Bowlers also need to stop complaining about the cost of league fees and entry fees to tournaments. They need to support this game, take bowling lessons, get serious and get competitive. Furthermore, we should turn our backs on bowlers who are upset and wrongfully complain about the fact another bowler beat them, and shouldn't have.

Anyone on any given day can win, period! A winner should be congratulated and shown the respect they deserve, especially by the loser. Anyone who is not willing to lose should not participate. Leave your equipment at home and go to the movies.

With all that said I now turn back to Glenn Allison. Recall the word "hero" and ask yourself who is more entitled to such recognition in our sport. He has been wrongfully and maliciously denied that which "he earned" and all of us can only wish for? Glenn should be officially recognized for that "900" and the time is now!!!!!! The ABC is no longer and the new national organization has a chance to right a terrible wrong. The PBA, state and local associations should put continued pressure on the USBC and force them do what should have been done many years ago. This is a wonderful opportunity and the USBC should take advantage of it. Recognizing Mr. Allison's "900 series" is the first step to legitimize this sport and correct the mistake. We need hero's in bowling, real hero's! Half the U.S. population is now over 50 years of age and that is something the USBC should think about when it comes to membership and marketing. How many of us are 50 and over? How would sanctioning Glenn's "900" affect potential membership? The bottom line here is, "the USBC should do what is right" and there is no better time than now. What a perfect way for the new national association to begin.

Whatever happens, Glenn will always remain one of my true bowling hero's, a legend, my teammate, my coach, my friend.

Enough said! It's now up to the readers of this article to add fuel to the fire or walk away and let it burn out, forever.

From the Gutter, 14shoe, Out. Paddy.

Editors Note: Thanks for the story, where should we send the fuel?

NEW EVENT WANTED:

DEAF TEAM BRACKET TOURNAMENT

by Connie Marchione

This writer got a fax from Gardy Rodgers requesting an opinion on a new event that he had on his mind and to pick a place and time to discuss on it. So I suggested a lunch at DuPar Restaurant in Studio City. During lunch in DuPar, Gardy started off with that the deaf clubs having teams playing in deaf basketball and softball tournaments and we do not have a bowling tournament for deaf teams competing like that. I told him that we do have team events in Southern Nevada-California Deaf and Pacific Coast Deaf tournaments. Also we used to have the now terminated So. Calif. Deaf Mixed Bowling Tournament and asked if he wanted to revive this tournament for Southern California deaf teams only like the singles classics we have running.

Gardy replied that he knew about the usual team event tournaments and there is no excitement in that. Also that I did not get what he wanted and further explained that the deaf basketball and softball tournaments use bracket system and that is where the excitement and competition is but he never seen any deaf bowling team bracket tournament and want to start one. Also asked if there were one, he would like to copy. Finally I got what he meant and yes; team bracket tournament is exciting and competitive. I told him that there were none around for deaf bowlers but there is one I knew of, which is Intercollegiate Team Championship conducted by USBC. They have separate 16 five men and 16 five-woman bracket tournaments and uses the Baker system scoring format for best 4 of 7 games to save time and money. Gardy did not understand what Baker scoring system was.

I explained, instead of having the 5 men bowl one complete game each which takes too long, so each man bowl two frames like, lead-off (1st) man bowl 1st and 6th frames, 2nd man 2nd and 7th frames, 3rd man 3rd and 8th frames, 4th man 4th and 9th frames and anchor man (5th) bowl 5th and finish the 10th frame. This goes on till the first team to win 4 games in 7 games advance to next round. After that, Gardy said he thought of having eight 4-men teams with each man bowling 3 full games with winner advancing to next round. Also each team pays $200.00 ($50.00 per man) entry fees for a prize fund of $1,600.00. I told him it will take 2 and half hour to finish 3 team games and 12 games each team per round will cost money in bowling lineage.

It can not be a $1,600 prize fund because who pays for the bowling games? Perhaps consider having best two of 3 games to save some money. Also that double elimination will take longer and more money than single elimination. And of course bowlers might not like to pay entry fees and lose in first round and ousted in single elimination. With that, I asked Gardy if he plan to have scratch or handicap. Nearly all deaf singles classics use handicap. So Gardy wanted handicap and limit each team to have one 200 average bowler. I told him okay but with that limit of one 200 ave. bowler and to be fair with other teams, there should be a cap on team average like 700 or 675 limit per team.

Also I advised that with a limit of 8 teams to start with, it would have to be a first come first served until 8 is filled. How the positions of each team are decided? By draw of numbers? What if he gets more than 8, have a qualifying round from which the top 8 teams enter in match plays? But this would mean more money to pay for the games. At this end, Gardy said he would contact others for their opinions. By all means yes, get as many bowlers interested in this team concept so that other ideas can be considered and added. Let Gardy and/or this writer know what you think of this.

TEN PIN SLANTS

by Joe Lyou

The Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge is beginning to generate some buzz...in fact, quite a bit of it. But it's no wonder, for the $1-million top prize is, by far, the most lucrative ever offered in the history of bowling. And the money is absolutely guaranteed.

This historic tournament is going to be held Oct. 22-30 at the newly-renovated National Bowling Stadium in Reno. Prospective entrants are advised to log on to www.kingpinchallenge.com for the tournament format and official rules.

In our last Tenpin Slants column, we wrote about an unscientific poll we had conducted to determine whether the Kingpin Challenge would actually get off the ground. After all, similar million-dollar events have been attempted in the past and they never saw the light of day.

Tenpin Slants listed several reasons why we definitely thought that the Kingpin Challenge would be conducted as scheduled. One of the reasons was because Dave Husted, the highly-respected PBA Hall of Famer, had been hired as tournament commissioner of the Kingpin Challenge.

Husted, who had read the column, requested the opportunity to respond to some of the material appearing in the article. We were more than happy to oblige, so here's the feedback from Husted...

We appreciate Mr. Joe Lyou's latest column regarding the inaugural Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge. The overall article was very good and we gained a great insight from the input of your chosen bowling professionals (who participated in the poll). However, there were a few comments regarding the event's structure and marketing that we wanted to clarify and hopefully answer any unanswered questions that might arise in the future from this article.

Certification: The USBC has lent its endorsement to the tournament, with a unanimous vote of its Board. The Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge's management team has been working closely with the USBC, using them as a sounding board and garnering their expertise to fine-tune the concept and implementation of the event. The USBC shares our vision in believing that the sport of bowling is ripe for this type of event to take place and we believe it will enhance the image of bowling to the general public.

Marketing and Publicity: As the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge is facing its inaugural year, relationships with bowling centers, associations including the United States Bowling Congress (USBC), bowling product manufacturers and bowling professionals are in the formation state.

For over two years, the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge's management team has been positioning our event and management with various key organizations and corporations involved in the bowling industry to petition their acceptance. Now that we have completed the appropriate due-diligence and have their approval, our marketing can begin in earnest, including over 100,000 promotional pieces and entries that are being printed and distributed via direct mail and bowling publication inserts. Additionally, we have confirmation from a number of companies involved in the industry about their involvement as sponsors. Announcements regarding each of the sponsorships will be made once the contracts are finalized."

Competition: "The Kingpin Challenge's divisional structure is set so that it is in reality six tournaments in one. There are two instances when a bowler will face an Open Division competitor, or any participant from a different division: when the runners-up from each division face off for the Wild Card Round, with a winner advancing to the Million Dollar Final Round. Even a player who finishes seventh in the Kingpin will win $50,000.

Entry Fees: While the $695 entry fee is higher than most megabucks tournaments, the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge has completed extensive research and analysis on our fee structure. With sweepers/brackets and re-entries serving a common role in most tournaments, it is not out of line for a bowler to spend $1,000 and up in fees during an event. The Kingpin's unique format enables each division winner to take home at least $50,000, equal to the top prize in many of the other tournaments.

The person that wins the 60+, Women's, or Open Divisions will have competed against only 299 of their peers to earn that money. As you know, these are very good odds, given that in other tournaments a player usually competes against 1,000+ bowlers.

Hopefully, this letter has cleared up any points of confusion. Again, we appreciate your interest in the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge and thank you for including it as a feature in your column. We hope that you will continue to support us with future coverage and insights on the evolution of the Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge. We are all excited and committed to putting on this exciting new event and believe that it will set the standard for amateur tournaments in the future.

Sincerely,
Dave Husted, Commissioner
Kingpin Million Dollar Challenge

As most fans of the PBA Tour know, Danny Wiseman is a long-time fancier of automobiles—all kinds—so it was no surprise to learn that he had taken in the recent Indy 500 Race.

While there, Wiseman renewed his friendship with Sam Hornish Jr., an Indy Racing League driver and member of the famed Penske/Marlboro racing team. Hornish, an avid bowler, invited Wiseman to the first annual Bowling Charity event, to be hosted by the Texas Motor Speedway Children's Charity the following week in Fort Worth. The Baltimore right-hander, who owns 11 PBA titles, was the lone pro bowler who was invited to participate.

Wiseman said he had met Hornish "two years ago during a PBA Pro-Am event in Indianapolis and we became good friends."

Although results of the Bowling Charity event are not available, we do know that Hornish finished a close second—by 0.534 seconds, or less than a car length—to Thomas Scheckter in the IRL race at the Texas Motor Speedway. In this same race, Danica Patrick, who dazzled Indy 500 fans by placing fourth, struggled this time to a 13th-place finish.

FINAL ITEM: Did you read about that story in which a bowler from Florida went to the ABC Tournament in Baton Rouge and returned home $745,000 richer? It happened to Debra Orlando of Fort Myers, Fla., who actually won the money while playing a quarter Wheel of Fortune machine at a local casino. Orlando, after only one spin of the wheel, hit the progressive jackpot worth $745,131.84.

How did she do in the tournament? She shot 471 in doubles, 430 in team and 424 in singles for a somewhat modest 1,325 all-events total. Not that she cared after hitting that monstrous jackpot.

How come things like that always happen to other people?

Personal message to my long time friend Dick Stoeffler...
I'm betting on you! - Joe

Vasquez Wins 1st ABTA Title at Linbrook

All Pots Carry Over to Valley View This Week

Las Vegas Rooms Still Available

ANAHEIM—Roger Vasquez parlayed his top seed into the championship game by leading the semifinals, finally winning his first ABTA title, downing pretty upstart and fellow Linbrook Bowler, Imee Ahorro in the title game at hospitable center in Anaheim.

Roger bested 174 entrants for the win which produced cut scores of men +53 and the ladies making a +55 for the Saturday cut. Then on Sunday the scores were a bit higher taking men +73 and the ladies lower at +40 and two Super Senior men and one Super Senior Lady to the board being Simon Rojas, Ray Varela, and Bobbie McCollum. A total of 43 semifinalists took to the floor in the Semis the with hopes of making the top 16 single elim finals.

Leading the Semis was the pride of Linbrook, Roger Vasquez who blasted a big +145 to be top seed, sit out and bowl in the title game with the runner-up Imee Ahorro at +116. She would receive a bye in the first round of the finals entering in round two. It took a nice +33 including 4 ladies to make the top sixteen finals.

The top 16 single elims got going. Losing in the first round of the finals were Stephanie Fenwick, Alan “The Dragon” Aguilar, Julian “Iron Man” Conwi, Darryl Lamont, William Baskin, Chris Sollie, and Cris Apunatar. The losers finished in 10-16th places and $100 each.

In round two we had Speedy Bryant, Eric Volk, Marc Sy, and Laura McIntosh fall in their matches. They cashed in 6-9th places and checks of $110.

We are now down to the top five. We saw Imee Ahorro edge her female counterpart Angela Lamont 217-200. Tri Vo struck often eliminating the crowd favorite Ely Cruz 264-218. Ely and Angela were 4th and 5th with Imee and Tri to meet for the right to bowl Roger for the title. It was a good match and Tri came from way back to make it a game but the pretty lady prevailed in a 221-200 match. Tri was 3rd and $200 with fine bowling and upstart Imee to meet Roger Vasquez for the title.

This game started and Roger spared, as did Imee. He then threw a big double, then Imee chopped a spare, and then got a split. Roger opened in the 5th giving her a chance. She seemed to have lost her stroke and chopped another spare. Roger struck and opened and she still had a chance going into the 9th was down by only 22 pins and could still win by striking out but it wasn’t meant to be. Roger won his first title 169/197 to Imee’s 146/180. It is nice to see another Young gentleman win in our Club! Roger is a very respectful young man. Great bowling Roger! Title #2 is in his future!

Imee bowled great in the runner up finish. She is one of out most faithful members , and has a sparkling record this year. She has been at every tournament and had many trying times. She always has a great time and is well liked by all in the ABTA.

Great bowling by Tri Vo, ABTA regular. For sure did so well and one more break or carry, he would have been the titleist . He is one of the Nice guys also in the ABTA!!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were John Conway +178 (men), with Stephanie Fenwick leading the ladies +103 and they will get paid entries.

The optional doubles were taken by Tri Vo, and Julian Conwi with their 1495. They got $130. Conwi “the Iron Man” also teamed with Marv Crowder for 2nd with 1481 and $100. We paid 8 places in the doubles.

Bo Bonneau was last standing in the 3-6-9 roll off. He missed on shot four. So we will go for a nice $500 this Saturday in our One day Event at Valley View Lanes in Garden Grove.

The Match Game 3 was Unmatched again this week due to a (269) drawn by Conway. With the carryover of $785 we will estimate a $1,750 Match Game this week.

The Match Series was also unmatched, a 630 was drawn by Roger Vasquez. So with a carryover of $430 we will estimate a $700 Match Series and for only a $2.00 entry fee.

The Columbia 300” ball of the week went to Conway again? Yes, “Lucky John” is an ABTA regular and a fine guy is the winner. He thanks Columbia 300 for the fine gift.

Champion Roger Vasquez hails from Fullerton, and used an Ebonite drilled by Alan Bloom. He thanks friends, and family for the support , Linbrook Bowl and the ABTA Staff.

Imee Ahorro is from Anaheim and single guys! She used a Vertigo drilled by Ginny Adams at Linbrook She thanks her friends Beth, Sun,Lito and Bob and the ABTA staff for support. Imee is going to Vegas with us and will be having fun there also!

Tri Vo is from Anaheim and used a Storm drilled by John Ray. He is single ladies! He toils for the Naval Hospital, as a dental tech. He thanks all his friends for support especially Minh Dang, Heather and Teddy and the ABTA Staff.

Congratulations on a Happy 25th Wedding Anniversary to Anthony and Beth Borci who celebrated Saturday night after the tournament. They look so young to be married for 25 years and let’s say they have many more left. They are great people and Super ABTA Supporters. Congrats!

San Fernando Valley Women's Bowling Association News

By Shirley Stark
SAN FERNANDO VALLEY — Our "Golden" Anniversary Party on June 5th is just another treasured memory. The location was Encino Glenn with dinner, entertainment, speakers, congratulatory proclamations from WIBC, the "Governor" Arnold Schwarzenegger, Mayor James Hahn and a plaque from the Los Angeles Men's Association to add to the enjoyment of the evening. From the welcome speech by Ella Boyd, President, to the final remarks from Roberta McBeth, 50th Anniversary Chairman, it was a fun and nostalgic occasion.

The 16th Annual Senior Tournament was held June 12th at Canoga Park Bowl. As expected, "A" Division, which is age 70 plus had the most entries (over 50%). A rose was presented to the two most senior ladies, Marie Fukushima and Velma Boekhaus. Each bowler received a gift-wrapped package when she checked in; cookies and coffee were served.

The winners were as follows: A Division: Judy Campisi 645, Ginny Boisvert 605, Joann Hollis 599, Kaye Hummel 574. B Division: Arlene Bonino 651, Connie Wannomae 631. C Division: Dottie Kajiki 611. D Division: Sue Mivelaz 692. Congratulations to all.

OCBA/ABC HonorScores Hit 446

GARDEN GROVE — Orange County Bowling Association Executive Director Robert Hartmann reported that the organization applied for 446 ABC honor score awards the past 2004-2005 season. We have a few more days to go for a final figure.

The tally: 300's 173; 299's 83; 298's 25; 800 series 37, and 11-in-a-row 128.

The highest 800 was 869 by Mike Bradley at Brunswick Rossmoor Bowl.

San Jose Bowler Moves Into ABC Senior Masters Qualifying Lead

LAS VEGAS - With a 242.6 10-game average, Ross Packard of San Jose, Calif., emerged as the American Bowling Congress Senior Masters, a United States Bowling Congress event, second round qualifying leader Monday at the Suncoast Bowling Center.

After posting 1,169 for his first five games Sunday, the 57-year-old left-hander bowled 1,257 Monday with games of 248, 258, 248, 278 and 225. He holds a 20-pin lead over second-place Junichi Yajima of Tokyo with 2,406.

"I seemed to carry a little better today," Packard said. "I've been able to make the right adjustments and stay with the same ball but you never know, tomorrow's another day."

Packard owns 27 Professional Bowlers Association regional and four senior regional titles.

Yajima, the all-time leader in career Japan Professional Bowlers Association titles with 41, bowled 1,189 in Sunday's qualifying and came back with 1,217 Monday with games of 198, 258, 235, 247 and 279.

"I'm surprised I bowled as well as I did," Yajima said. "I really didn't feel at my best and my timing was not there. I need to eat well and get rested for tomorrow."

"The competition is very tough here in the U.S.," he added. "I will need a lot of energy and bowl my best to do well here."

Yajima has bowled in three Senior Masters with his best finish a sixth in 2002. He finished seventh in last week's PBA Senior Tour event in Tucson, Ariz.

Qualifying continues Tuesday with a final five-game round after which the top 63 players will join defending champion Gary Dickinson of Edmond, Okla., in three-game double-elimination match play beginning Wednesday. Match play continues on Thursday with the championship match scheduled for 7:30 p.m. (EDT, 4:30 p.m. PDT).

The ABC Senior Masters features a $180,000 prize fund with $20,000 going to the winner.

Team High Series went to C7 Clothing with a 2024 set, while Team High Game went to Bowler's Depot's Will Jackson and Devin Bidwell with a very nice 544.

We would like to give special thanks to everyone who donated prizes and bid in our auctions and raffles. We were able to raise over $1000 in scholarship funds to be distributed between the organizations. Without the help and dedications of all the parents and bowlers these organizations would not exist. All the directors thank you for your support!

Sunday mornings. The Greater L.A. Junior All-Stars celebrated their 38th season of scratch travel league competition. They bowl September-May on Sunday afternoons. Brent Burns The Wood With A

“300” In Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Three weeks into the Rocky Marsh Doubles at Linbrook Bowl, saw smooth-stroking lefty, Terry Brent, shoot a 300 game. All righties know lefties have all the advantage (just a little humor), but this lefty thrilled the league with 12 pocket hits and we congratulate him. This is Terry's 2nd perfecto in less than 6 months so even though (boo-hoo) he will not get an ABC award, just recognition, he was awarded a $50 check by Linbrook so he's a happy camper!

One would never guess Stacey Rider had not thrown a bowling ball for a couple of years as she promptly got down to business, recording ladies high series of 725 and a 940 four-gamer. The following Friday she shot a 276 game, so I guess it's safe to assume she's b-a-a-a-ck...!! I think I'll sign up for lessons.

A ton of great scores have been shot in this league over the past three weeks and the following are from this past Friday: Willy Bordenave 244-901, Bob Gosnell 237-884, Stacey Rider 255-838, John Conway 248-833, Ralph Wingert 235-830, Terry Brent 226-818, Shirley Anderson 213-803, Josh Rahm 217-801, Martin Angulo 235-801, Rose Williams 218-800, Shig Shozi 255, David Wright 245, Mike Barcenas 240, Tony Chaco 237, Nancy M. Smith 228, Rey Ortiz 224, Kantrell Williams 223, John Phillips 221, Ronny Thompson 220, Al Lara 216, Marie Brooks 215, Bob Zentner 211, Larry Green 211, Frank Bellinder 210, Gino Vassallo 209, Roger Vasquez 205, Pete Kizziah 204, Brian Roberge 204, Rod Cantrell 203 and Joe Rouette 201. Until next week...
