Super Senior Corky Demaio Wins By One Pin & Jr. Matt Voeltz “Cruises” at Del Rosa Lanes

by Paula Vidar

SAN BERNARDINO—Corky Demaio of San Bernardino struck out in the 10th frame to win his 9th Super Senior title by 1 pin. The excitement in the final match play position game included Vaughn Doody and John Cocchi both of Las Vegas. Only 59 pins separated the 3 finalists. 2nd place Cocchi shot a 249, 3rd place Doody fired a 267, and both collected 30 bonus pins for the win. Not knowing what he needed, current leader Demaio calmly struck out for a 239 and a 1 pin victory over Doody. Demaio used a 4-4 match play record for the $700 top prize and was also Saturday’s high qualifier with a 2350 for 10 games. Corky would like to thank his wife Shirley and daughter Chris for their support, Del Rosa Lanes, and Jan & Sue Niblett of Luster Cote, Inc. for their sponsorship. Demaio owns Corky’s Pro shop in San Bernardino.

Winning his 2nd SST Junior title, Matt Voeltz of Moreno Valley had the opposite championship path. Leading by 282 pins heading into the final game, Voeltz cruised to his $700 prize using a 4-4 record and averaged 240. Voeltz’s impressive march began on Saturday as high qualifier shooting 2493 that included an 832 his first 3 games. Matt would like to thank the SST for a smooth running tournament. Voeltz is Co-

Owner of Buy for Less Pro Shop at ABC Lanes Moreno Valley and at Arrowhead Lanes in San Bernardino.

The “King of the Hill” match saw Junior Division champ Matt Voeltz defeat Super Senior Corky Demaio 269-236 in a one game match for SST bragging rights and $50.

300 game was rolled by Vaughn Doody and Matt Voeltz shot 296-268-832.

Congratulations to Don Jackson of Bonita, CA. His prepaid entry was drawn and he receives a FREE pair of Dexter Bowling Shoes courtesy of Ricky Corona.

The SST would like to thank Del Rosa Lanes G.M. Mary Cassin and staff for hosting the tournament and look forward to returning next year. A special thanks to Jan & Sue Niblett of Luster Cote, Inc. for their continued sponsorship and support.

Next event – September 4-5, 2005, Pacific Cal Bowl, Lakewood, CA. Special Note – This event will be held Sunday and Monday.

Come bowl with the best Super Seniors (60+ Men, 50+ Women) and Juniors (45-59 Men, 40-49 Women) in the West!

Bobbe North, Loved To Bowl, Teach and Compete

By Frank Kietz

LA VERNE — Bobbe and Ron North made their home in Southern California, bowling, teaching, organizing and competing. Both have passed away. Ron a few years ago, Bobbe just last week. According to reports she died in her sleep in her triple-wide coach, here in La Verne.

Both were scratch league bowlers and liked to take their chances against the pros. Bobbe claimed a couple of WPBA titles and a wall full of Western Women Professional Bowler awards, and the reason for her triple wide coach.

Bobbe loved to laugh and make jokes on the lanes. Her teammates enjoyed competing with and against her.

In her peak she lived across the street from Del Rio Lanes (Downey) because that’s where the action was, 950 Scratch Leagues. Manager Walt Stuetz hosted many tournaments and directed (managed) the women’s regionals. Walt loved Bobbe, she was amazing, win, lose or draw, ready for the next event.

She earned her way, first on the 1968 Women’s All-Star Team along with Marge Fox,

Keystone Lanes Summer Doubles Round-Up 2005

NORWALK—Herbert Jones & James Tipton, Tournament Directors & Staff for the Summer Doubles reports the tournament processed 155 entries and paid out $6,200.

Herbert thanks all the bowlers that participated and a special “BIG THANKS” to Moejo Ellis

Betty Ann Friedman, Betty Mivelaz and Bobbie Soldan. In 1973 she was elected to the So-Cal Women’s Hall of Fame.

Ron didn’t make the pro tour but he got his share of glory with the tournament clubs and scratch league play. In those days leagues were big money affairs, a few are still wheeling and dealing.

Bobbe made the All-Star Teams for years, ’68, ’69, ’70, ’71, ’73 and ’74. The Los Angeles’s WBA elected her to their Hall of Fame and their honor score roster. She was also elected to the San Gabriel Valley W.B.A. Hall of Fame.

Since 1974 Bobbe has used her skills teaching and helping many of the other women legends, Donna Adamek, Betty Mivelaz, Robbie Frey, Connie Pick, Carol Fuller, Debbie Stewart, Jean Worthy, Carmen Elias, Cheryl Kominsky and many more.

Yes, she also taught the kids, many are still bowling, coming out of the junior ranks taking an occasional fling in the So-Cal scratch sweepers, or a PBA regional.

Yes, we will miss Bobbe’s smile and a “Can I help you?”

for bringing 24 teams from the WOODCHOPPERS CLUB.

Jones is already planning the next Doubles Tournament which will be scheduled for early Fall.

Check for the results of the Summer Doubles in this issue of the Bowling News and watch for the Fall Doubles ad.

Titan’s Ken Maxey Win’s FL 6-Gamer

LAKE FOREST — You must learn to read, read the lanes, if you want to score high enough to win the big money. Well, that’s what Ken Maxey did, winning Forest Lanes’ 1:00 p.m. Saturday 6-Game $300 title. Maxey has an edge, he manages Cal State-Fullerton’s Titan Lanes.

Mario Marquez director, said, “Look how close the scores were, 1412 to 1411, 290 to 289 and 779 to 792, and they both averaged 234.

Ken learns fast. He barely broke 600 the first block, 633 but the second block he was almost perfect starting with a 290, coasting down 255 and 234 for a 779 set and a winning 1412 to Ed Regehr’s 1411.

Ed had the first block pat, 738 on games of 247-234 and 257. He didn’t do his homework — a 673, on 238-201 and he had to win the last game; he only tied 234-234.

Greg Neuer had trouble with his X’s the initial block, 213/577. Greg was near-perfect the third block, 289-256 and 247 and a tourney high 792 series.

The total payout was $771; Maxey won $317, Regehr $167, Neuer 1369 $194, and Evan Tolson 1358 $84.

We Were Hoaxed, And It Wasn’t An April Fool!

by Carol Mancini

NORWALK — For weeks I had been receiving the story of the Mars Spectacular, which we published last week.

This week we received an e-mail from “HOAXBUSTERS” saying — “Most of the information in this one is true, but it was in 2003 not 2005. Someone apparently found an old e-mail about the closest approach of Mars in 2003 and sent it around again, not realizing that the event was over two years ago”.

EDITOR’S NOTE: We apologize for getting excited about a lunar/Mars happening. And thanks “Hoaxbusters” for the correction.

LAKEWOOD—The 48th season for the Las Vegas Travel League started Monday at Cal Bowl and 16 full teams opened standings in it's usual competitive way. The 16th place team is only one game out of first place and two teams tied on 1.2 games.

Although scoring was not spectacular, it was consistently good with lots of 480 and 490 series. The honor roll spotlighted LaRuth Murray 205-581, Karen Mauricio 203-568, Doris Lewis 231-528, Gladyce Perrin 525, Madeline Majick 211-411 and Roberta McNaught 507.

The first day of bowling was full of hugs and one that we missed most was for, and from, Erma Palmer. Erma has been a member for so many years but the past season saw her health decline and she had to stop bowling. Cathy Wyatt is taking her place this season, however, she will but return the spot to Erma next season if Erma can return to bowl. We also missed medically sidelined bowlers, Penny Hirsch, Ada Burri and Margo Martin and hope they will be back soon. Incidentally, we reported Betty Klemin's heart medication was keeping her on deck but alas, we named the wrong Betty. It is Betty Moore that, on the same team, that suffers a cardiac condition and she was present for opening day.

NOTICE: The Orance County USBC incorporation ratifying meeting is slated at 9 a.m. Sunday, August 28 at Westminster Lanes and it's open to Orange County association members. It would be interesting if the more than 16,000 bowlers turned out for the meeting but we know the apathy displayed by members in the past will prevent that from happening.

Hopefully though, bowlers that still care about our membership success will turn out to voice opinions and to vote for line and staff officials necessary to operate our local associations. There will be nominations from a committee, and from the floor, for qualified candidates. For more information call Orange County office (714) 554-0111 or 554-1880.

Barrett is ABTA Titleist at Valley View Solowitz and Traquena share $3,500 Match Game

Match Game 3 Est. $3,000, Match Series $750, and 3-6-9 is $1,300 This Week

GARDEN GROVE—Dennis Barrett was having trouble making the board for the semifinals for some time in the ABTA. He finally made it firing a big 268 game. The rest is chronicled in the ABTA History Book as he won from the top seeded position in the top 16 single elims at Valley View Lanes, edging pretty Youna Yun in the final frames. It surely was an exciting title match that went down to the wire Youna Yun had him on the ropes only to lose in a thrilling finish, as Dennis edged the pretty lady in a 151/171-134/160 game. He took a nice $2,300 top prize home to Placentia.

Dennis bested a nice turnout of 222 entrants which saw cut scores of Men +54 and the Ladies doing a decent +34 to make the semi finals. Super Seniors added to the board were Leo Tartamella, Paul Passarino, and Imee Ahorro. 51 bowlers advanced to the semi finals.

The 51 bowlers in the Semis took to the floor, hoping to advance to the finals. We saw ABTA Regular Barrett lead the way in the semis blasting a huge +152, to be the top seed, giving him the benefit of sitting out to bowl in the title game. In second was Fernando Alatorre who was way behind at +74 but he would sit out round one entering in round #2.

After the Semis it took a nice +28 for the men, and -25 (ouch) for the three guaranteed women to make the top 16 finals. The bowlers took to the lanes. The losers in round #1 were Ping Romero, Bohner San Pedro, Tomeika Johnson, Bryan Datuin, Ted Nguyen, David Yun and Steven Hower. They cashed in 10-16th place and $107.50 each.

In round two we had Alatorre enter, and down the affable Rolly Cueva 203-176. Youna Yun took out Albert Balais 211-199. Mike Morgan out struck Danny Guevarra 231-214. Bo Bonneau bested Katrina Fujikami 217-191. Losers of round #2 got checks of $120 in 6-9th places Round three had Youna Yun, on a roll, down Alatorre 217-193. Bonneau edged Morgan in a good one 198-196. Michael and Fernando were 4th and 5th with fine bowling and $135 each with Youna and Bo to meet for the right to bowl Barrett for the title.

This match had Bo lose his line that he previously had. Youna prevailed in a 217-193 win with Bonneau in third with a great performance and $215. Youna was off to the title game vs Barrett.

The Title game was set and Youna led off, but opened. Dennis struck, then spared and after five frames both had opened twice. Youna led by 9 pins as Barrett was having his troubles. She then marked in frames 6-7. Barrett nightmarishly opened again in the 7th. Things looked bleak for him. Youna had a split in the 8th and Barrett somehow dug deep and miraculously threw a big double in frames 8-9 to close the gap but then opened the 10th again for his 151/171 score. Youna then threw what appeared to be a perfect shot but the 8-10 stood. She then got only 8 out so would now need a spare/strike combo to tie or a double to win the title. She tossed again a great shot leaving a solid 10 pin. She then barely whiffed it and the title (a tough one) went to Barrett in a 171-160 win, the nice $2,300 prize. Great bowling! Dennis, luck seemed finally to be on your side? That clutch double was the key in your win. You came through when you HAD to. Dennis is a great supporter of the ABTA and we are proud to have him as a three time titleist, Great going!

Great bowling by Youna Yun who with husband David and friends are well-liked and respected in our club. David was in the top 16 this week also, and pretty Irene Kang (my masseuse) :-)) just missed by two pins, (great People) Great bowling Youna!

Great bowling by Bo Bonneau, Fernando Alatorre, and Mike Morgan also! Many great games in this event on some decent lanes especially in the semi-finals.

ABTA Notes:

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were the husband-wife tandem of Kerwin and Katrina Fujikami, as he led the men +181, she the ladies at +71. They get paid entries.

Josefat strikes again? Yes! He teamed with James Mathews to top the optional doubles with 1378, good for $130. Rey also teamed with congenial Tommy Newman in 2nd at 1373 and $110. We paid 9 places this week in the doubles.

Demetrius Cash, a crowd pleaser if there ever was one, was last standing in the 3-6-9. He missed on the third shot so we go for $1,300 this week in the 3-6-9 at Bowlm Lanes. "Cash" got a $50 consolation and headed to the bar :-)) He will be back folks!!

Marvin "Happy" Crowder" was the 192 games share $3,500 Match Game pot at Valley View Two of our happy members Kathy Solowitz, and Anthony Traquena had a nice 192 game in game three at Valley View Lanes. Top seed Dennis Barrett drew the 192 giving these fine bowlers 1/2 of the pot and $1,750 each at Valley View. The Match game 3 will be worth over $3,000 again this week at the Bowlm.

lucky winner of the weekly drawing for the Columbia "300" ball of the week, and he thanks Columbia our fine sponsor for the great ball.

The Match Game 3 was matched by two of our finest members Kathy Solowitz, and Anthony " Lucky" Traquena. Their 192 games got them 1/2 of the $3,500 and $1,750 each. Happy they were!

The Match Series, was unmatched due to the 683 drawn by Kerwin Fujikami. We will estimate a $800 Match Series this Saturday at the Bowlm and for only $2.00 to enter.

Champion Dennis Barrett, 57, is from Anaheim Hills and used a newly purchased X-Cel drilled by Frank Bellinder at Premiere Lanes during last week's ABTA event there. He thanks Frank, an ABTA supporter for the fine job. Dennis is self employed with Western data that provides data processing services. He is a single father of four and grandfather of three. His high game is 290 bowled at Valley View and a 759 is his high series bowled at the Concourse in Anaheim. He thanks the ABTA and staff for the hard work, and Valley View for hosting a great event. Dennis enjoys all sporting events, music and the stock market and spending time with his kids and families. Dennis is dedicating the win to his late mother, as it was won on her birthday. He wants to thank Eric Pham, Minh Dang, Marv Crowder Sr. and the Morgan family for their tremendous support.

Youna Yun is from La Crescenta, and used a Columbia Icon Drilled by Gary at Del Rio Lanes. She is married to one of the "Good Guys" David, with one daughter Jessica. She thanks husband David, Irene Kang, and Bum Chul Kim (all bowled at Valley View) and all her friends for support, and the ABTA Staff for a great job.

Bo Bonneau is from Hesperia, and used a Zone also drilled by Frank Bellinder. He is married to Sabrina. Bo's brother Harold also bowls the ABTA. Bo thanks the ABTA Staff and wife Sabrina who keeps him healthy.

Actor J.T. Jackson Is AMF Bowling Square Donkee Champion

ARCADIA—A gentleman with a big smile J.T. Jackson is an Actor Spokes Person for Bacardi. He is the Character Cola. A very personable young man who is also a comedian. J.T. hails from St.Louis. He was rolling an old School Zone drilled by Rusty at Mission Hills. Thanks Rusty. T.J. has been bowling about two years and said his coaches were friendly competitive bowlers in pot games where he really improved his game.. Lots of pot games. He certainly enjoys bowling. J.T. wishes to dedicate his big win to Barbara Winter his Mom and to Frank Jackson his Dad .

His win was $800 first place money plus $500 Jack Ace money to pocket $1,300. I asked him what he plans to do with his big win. He said he was going to be smart and put it into Savings.

Mark Zirges was also looking for his first tournament win rolling a Columbia Hyde Bowling Ball. He was certainly on his game posting a well shot big big plus 234 in the Semi's making him high seed for the shoot-out. Sitting out didn't seem to bother him either. He said he was happy with his bowling except for the third frame??? Mark also pulled the mystery game a 103. No winner. This wasn't the day for low games.

This coming Sunday we are at Bowl-O-Drome. Going back about 25 years ago in October of 1981 Fred Suttles was our Champion at Bowl-O-Drome. Brings back memories. The Donkee is looking forward to this coming Sunday. The bowling center is two miles South of the 405 freeway on Western Ave. in Torrance. I have copies of our first ad in the Bowling News for those who would like to reminisce. I think bowling lineage was like 75 cents or $1.00. Not any more.

Aug. 20/21st at AMF ValleyView back to our two day format .Saturday. First squad at Valley View Saturday is 1:00Pm and last one is 5:30PM, Sunday morning 10:00 AM and 11:15 AM. Finals and Shoot-out to follow.

Side-pots in the 11:00 AM squad at Bowling Square were $36. Frank Menchaca posted a well shot 281 1st game, Sharon Parker also shot a 281 the 2nd game. J.T. Jackson topped them posting a big 284 3rd game. In the 12:30 PM squad for $12 Luis Diaz posted a 237 1st game and a 248 3rd game. Roger Wrase a 258 2nd game. In the 2:00 PM squad for $78, lanes were still great with Kristi Yahiku rolling a well shot 271 1st game, James Abilar a 269 2nd game and Danny Reese Sr a 240 3rd game.

In the Semi's for $42, Luis Diaz shot a big 281 1st game, Luis Boone a big 301 2nd game and J.T. Jackson looking good a 314 3rd game. Lanes were really really good. J.T. posted 774 for high series for a paid entry.

Fifteen were brought back for the three game Semi's. Seven were eliminated with eight advancing into the first squad of shoot-out finals. They were Luis Boone, Ed Palma, Luis Diaz, Billy Hunter, J.T. Jackson, Dennis Barrett, George Parker and Kristi Yahiku. High qualifier Mark Zirges with a big big plus 234 sat out the first two squads. Four with the lowest games were eliminated leaving four for the second round who were Luis Diaz posting a 269 game, J.T. Jackson a 251, Ed Palma a 260 and Luis Boone with 252 game. Rolling right along J.T. happily posted the high game a 230/254 to challenge top seed Mark Zirges for the Donkee Championship. The three eliminated were Luis Diaz with a 212/236 game, Luis Boone with a 204/232 and Ed Palma a with 179/213 game. Close matches.

Charting the champ J.T. Jackson came out on a spare, opened the second frame for a nine count then happily strung a four bagger, got a spare in the 7th frame, posted three more strikes caped with a spare to win by ten pins with a 233/257 game to a big applause from Donkee horse players. Mark Zirges also on a roll came out on a spare, a strike the second frame but stuck a 1-3-6-7 opening for a nine count, got a spare the fourth frame then looking good came back on a five bagger, needing just one more strike for the win. Didn't happen, as he left a solid seven pin. Mark picked it up for a very well shot 226/247 to settle for second place. What a great match for our look-ee-loos. See you at Bowl-O-Drome.

Thomas Licauco standing in for Luis Boon 4th place, J.T. Jackson being presented his 1st place Donkee check for $1,300 by Dir. Dave Godinez who is also presenting $400 2nd place check to Mark Zirges. Luis Diaz 3rd and Ed Palma 5th not on hand for picture.

Hall Of Fame, 2005 Champs OCBA Honorees

GARDEN GROVE — Orange County Bowling Association/USBC Executive Director Robert Hartmann announced that the 52nd Awards Party will be held as scheduled, 3:00 p.m. Saturday, August 20, 2005 at La Habra “300” Bowl. He said usually new officers would be installed but since the merger we are using the current staff.

He added, “Bill Huntington and Glenn Lewis will be installed into the Orange County Men’s Hall of Fame. Also, we will honor our League Secretary of the Year; the name will be revealed during the ceremony.”

Hartmann pointed out La Habra “300” Bowl has on display many Southern California bowling Hall of Fame plaques and championship trophies — it’s a nice display. Yes, we do have a number of bowling legends, worth a visit.

The major event will be awarding our 2005 Tournament Champions. Strange, the team’s name is “We’re Coming Back”.

Hartmann said, “I hope they mean they will enter our 53rd tournament and if Rick Medina, Jeremy Jones, Bryan Anderson and Steve Anderson want their championship jackets and trophies, we will present them at the Awards Party”.

Other champions to receive jackets and trophies are: Steve Hooks, Singles; Johnny Q. Nguyen and Vo Tri Vi, Doubles; Ken Clay, All-Events and Sherman Joseph, Scratch All-Events.

Gable House Youth

by Chris Graves
TORRANCE—Greetings yet again! Before we get to this week’s roll call of honor scores, we’d like to remind you that our annual Youth Labor Day Scholarship Tournament is coming up on... LABOR DAY!!! That’s right, Monday night, September 5. Check-in at 5 p.m., bowl at 6 p.m. Entry fee is only $20 per bowler if you sign up ahead of time, $25 if you sign up at the door. Handicap base is 90% of 225. Bowlers will bowl three games of qualifying, and the top four will advance to our stepladder finals. Both scholarships and trophies will be awarded on a 1:8 ratio. Come one, come all, come on down!

League results start off with the Disney/Pixar Bowling Club, or apparent lack thereof. We were missing a lot of bowlers, but we still have: Juniors—Ryan McGrew 160-299, Phillip Wahba 128-215, Sabrina Walker 101-202, Chris Sager 102-198, and Roy Walker 129-195. Adults—Kevin Shaw 157-270 and Beth Wahba 115-220.

You were either on or off this time around for the Family Feud: Juniors—Gary McInerney 232-223/653, C.C. Cole 217-232/641, Andrew Fontenot 226-570, and Tyler Cooke 202-560. Adults—Ron Range 228-209-205/642, Bob Finnell 206-233-203/632, Rick Petersen 234-206/622, and Wendy Cooke 169-492.

Next up are those plush Pee Wees: Angelo McKinney 147-244, Garrett Kasai 96-179, Jacob Flores 94-174, Joshua Inouye 92-168, Koby (insert last name here) 76-148, Justin Gallo 79-145, Julia Kawashima 76-138, Stefano McKinney 73-136, and May Kawashima 60-113.

The Junior Jammers offer these scores: Colleen Tin 146-351, Douglas Meyer 127-336, Daniel Montoya 119-333, Cameron Huntelman 115-320, Catherine Shepard 129-319, and Brendan Vilorina 118-318.

Lastly, we have the Classic Highs: Gary McInerney 245-231/652, Joshua Cooper 202-588, Talia Asato 207-519, Jonathan Shepard 189-500, Sean Martin 175-469, Matthew Simon 161-465, James Fiege 152-443, Jennifer Daniel 172-441, Daniel Strelitz 172-439, Michael Nomicos 171-437, Brandon Mullikin 159-432, Tim Eich 169-430, Amanda McInerney 168-413, Cassy Eicher 159-409, Samantha Barfield 130-382, and Kayleigh Gates 131-375.

We end this week’s offering on a bittersweet note as we will be losing a longtime member of our program this weekend. Nathan Wendel will be relocating to Indiana to attend college. He is a great guy, no matter how much grief we’ve given him over the years, and he will be greatly missed. Good luck my friend! To the rest of you, have a great week. See you next time around.

Attention All Girls

by David Gordon
EL MONTE—The winter season is about to kick off and with that the Girls Jr. All-Stars is having their annual Exhibition and Practice tournament.

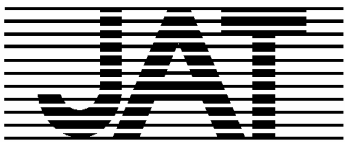

This is an open invitation to all of the young ladies who want to show their stuff or just get in a few games of practice before the new season starts.

I am encouraging Captains, GJAS veterans, alumni and newcomers to take advantage of the low cost of $10 and compete in this mini-tournament of 4 games. Various token awards will be given and it’s a good opportunity to take a look at the new ones and to dust off the rust.

This Sunday - August 14th - at 3:00, following the JAT tournament is where the action begins. We’ll take a good look at all the girls in preparation for the up-coming team selection. I really hope to see you at Action Lanes.

Bellinder Earns Spotlight Again

In Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—In the dictionary under b-o-w-l, it states: a large solid ball rolled in certain games, (check). Phrasal verb: bowl over 1. To astound, 2. To knock over, (check). And under b-o-w-l-i-n-g, it states: a game played by rolling a heavy ball down a wooden ‘alley’ in order to knock down a triangular group of ten pins - yep, (check). She does all that! I know that a newer edition would also have the name, “BELLINDER, MISSY” listed under B-o-w-l-e-r.

Last week had dad, (Frank) in bold print; this week in the Rocky Marsh Doubles at Linbrook, the more feminine Bellinder by the name of Missy, took the spotlight and “bowed over” the pins on games of 268-232-181 and 257 to tally a fine 938 set. By the way, Missy now sports a 230 average in this league. She is, for sure, A BOWLER!!

Willy Bordenave is continuing his winning streak as he proved his worth on games of 237-213-217 and 246 to record a 913. Keep it up, Willy—I think it’s safe to say that you are definitely out of your slump!

Tony Chaco was “Grrrrr8” today as he rounded out the 900’s stroking 199-257-226 and 222 to score 904. Is it the Frosted Flakes or the Wheaties, Tony?
