Foothill Seniors Set Citrus Belt Record

by Frank Weiler

FONTANA — Foothill Lanes Senior Trio League secretary LEE FITZGERALD contacted me regarding a potential Citrus Belt record. A team led by PRENTIS WILLIAMS rolled a 802 scratch team game. We believe the 802 (299 - 258 - 245) is a Citrus Belt record for a senior trio league game.

I know of two other scratch trio team games of 800. Both games were bowled in Cal Oaks 640 Scratch League two years ago. I was on a team with BOB SNOW and MIKE VINYARD, in the 640 league, which bowled a 820 game.

However, while I was a senior bowler, my teammates were not and the league was not a senior league. So until I hear otherwise, I consider the Foothill 802 game a Citrus Belt senior record.

So here are the big scores:

Prentis Williams	265 - 299 - 219 =	783
Kirt Leyton	267 - 258 - 243 =	768
Lavonya Smith	145 - 245 - 211 =	610
Total	677 - 802 - 673 =	2161

My thanks to Lee Fitzgerald for contacting me. If you know of any other higher trio league scratch team games or senior trio league scratch team games please email me the details (fjw300@aol.com). Thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

ALLEN PARK — 2014 PBA League signing season is underway. Planning, preparation and strategic movements heading into the 2014 PBA League season are officially underway with team managers beginning the process of re-signing players and releasing others to free agency. Under the new rules for the 2014 season — which officially gets underway Jan. 1 at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich. — team managers have until Aug. 31 to re-sign up to three players (in addition to the No. 1 player, who is automatic) from last year's rosters, and assign them to "slot" positions on their 2014 rosters — from No. 2 through No. 5.

"Slot" positions for 2014 rosters are compensated with in pre-set salary ranges, starting at $20,000 for the No. 1 position (formerly known as the "franchise player"). Team managers have a total "cap" of $71,000 within which they can negotiate player salaries. For No. 2 slots, players must be paid between $14,000-18,000. For No. 3 slots, the salary

Belmonte Paces PBA Tour Statistics Heading Into PBA World Series of Bowling V

LAS VEGAS — Australia's Jason Belmonte, with a pair of 2012-13 titles and championship round appearances in all four PBA Tour major championships conducted thus far in the season, continues to pace the overall PBA Tour statistics heading into PBA World Series of Bowling V Oct. 25-Nov. 3 at South Point Casino, Hotel and Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

The "super-sized" 2012-13 PBA Tour season began with PBA World Series of Bowling IV last November and concludes on Dec. 31, 2013, as the PBA returns to calendar-year scheduling as of Jan. 1, 2014.

Belmonte leads the current season earnings list with $166,386, tops the competition points list with 199,015 points, and in second on the average list, trailing leader Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, by less than half-a-pin. Malott, with range is between $12,000-16,000. For No. 4 players, the range is $10,000-14,000. For No. 5 slot positions, the range is $8,000-12,000.

Existing rostered players who are released or unsigned as of Aug. 31 will become free agents, eligible to negotiate with other teams as of Sept. 1.

If the free agents do not sign with another team by Oct. 1 (the maximum number of players who can be signed through the free agency period is four including the franchise player), free agents will enter the 2014 player draft along with any player from the top 50 players based upon the 2012-13 PBA competition points list not on a team. The 2014 player draft — which will be conducted in reverse order of how teams finished last season — will be conducted on Monday, Nov. 4, following the World Series at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

It's important to note that players on 2012-13 rosters are not required to re-sign with their previous teams, even if they are made an offer. Players are allowed to decline offers and enter free agency if they wish.

Also note, after the re-signing period and the free agency period, the most players a team can have on its roster is four (including the No. 1 player). That insures every team will have at least one opening for the draft. All 2014 PBA League roster transactions must be approved by PBA Commissioner Tom Clark.

For immediate PBA news, visit pba.com or find "PBA Tour Commissioner" on Facebook. If you'd like to follow immediate updates as they happen, and participate in discussions regarding teams, lineups, selections, free agency, strategies, the draft or whatever topic you're interested in, search for "PBA Tour Commissioner" on Facebook. PBA Commissioner Tom Clark will regularly post transactions as they are approved. Another great source will be "PBA League" on Facebook, where you can link to individual PBA players' pages for personal perspectives and information.

You can also follow "The League" on pba.com: Summaries of all PBA League activities also will be included in the weekly PBA League Media Advisory which will be emailed on Fridays.

Here's what has transpired since the re-signing period began on Aug. 1:

PBA50 Tour Veteran Kerry Painter, Local Star Tom Adcock Win PBA50 Senior/Super Senior Doubles Classic

DECATUR, Ill. – The doubles team of PBA50 Tour veteran Kerry Painter and local standout Tom Adcock combined for their first PBA50 Tour title by winning the PBA50 Senior/Super Senior Doubles Classic presented by Brunswick Tuesday at Spare Time Lanes.

The pair beat two of PBA’s all-time greats, Hall of Famers Johnny Petraglia of Jackson, N.J. and Wayne Webb of Columbus, Ohio, 267-187, in the Baker format championship match.

“I could tell within the first five minutes that we were going to click together,” said Painter, who owns two PBA50 regional titles and has a best PBA50 Tour finish of third which came in this season’s United States Bowling Congress Senior Masters. “I didn’t know Tom before we bowled the tournament but it didn’t take long at all to develop confidence in each other.

“This is a special moment for me to win after six years bowling on the PBA50 (Tour),” the 60-year-old Painter added. “Bowling two of the greats that I watched on TV in a situation like this is something I never would have believed.”

For Adcock, a 51-year-old IT specialist from Decatur and a self-described tournament weekend warrior, it was an emotional win.

“It couldn’t be any more special to win this tournament,” said Adcock who just became a grandfather last week. “I’m just feeling a lot of emotion right now. I’m thankful for PBA having this tournament here because I’m not able to bowl a lot of tournaments because of my work and family commitments.

“Kerry’s very positive and I picked up on that right away, Adcock added. “He has a game where he keeps the ball in play which worked well with my game. There were times when he was bowling fantastic and I wasn’t and times when maybe I was bowling better but in the end we were able to work together.”

Adcock owns one PBA regional title and also owns a USBC Open Championships team title. In the semifinal match, Painter and Adcock beat the doubles team of Emilio Mora Jr. of Lakeland, Fla. and Hall of Famer Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., 220-194. In the opening match, Mora and Weber beat Bill Henson of Westerville, Ohio and 10-time PBA Tour winner Bryan Goebel of Shawnee, Kan., 236-226.

The tournament used a doubles format where a senior player (ages 50-59) and a super senior (ages 60 and over) were paired up for match play based on their qualifying positions in their respective divisions. The Baker format requires players to alternate frames in a game to combine for one score.

PBA’s online bowling channel XtraFrame will provide start-to-finish coverage of the season’s final event, the PBA50 Treasure Island Resort and Casino Open presented by MOTIV at Island Xtreme Bowl in Welch, Minn. Aug. 18-21. Visit pba.com for subscription and schedule information. Download the online bowling channel’s free mobile apps and watch the stream on Android and Apple mobile phones, tablets and iPads.

USBC AND BPAA
TO INVEST
$5 MILLION
IN SUPPORT OF
NEW YOUTH
MEMBERSHIP
PROGRAM

ARLINGTON, TX — The Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America (BPAA) and United States Bowling Congress (USBC) are making an unprecedented investment in the growth of youth bowling by committing $5 million in support of a new youth membership and activation program. The new program significantly lowers cost for families and establishes a bowling industry field staff dedicated to youth initiatives.

Beginning August 1, 2014, the new USBC Youth membership will be offered by International Bowling Campus (IBC) Youth Development at a price of $4. The new membership includes a membership card, a certified average and the eligibility to participate in USBC certified events. All current base USBC Youth membership products will be discontinued. Simple upgrade options for Bowlopolis and Junior Gold programs will remain.

Bowling centers, rather than USBC local associations, will have processing responsibility under the new program. If a center operator and USBC local association have a good customer service system and prefer to continue association processing, the center and association are encouraged to collaborate on details of a mutually beneficial partnership.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

Arena bowling and the close quarters in bowling championship setups allow spectators and friends and fans to be within short distances of the competitors and that brings up the subject of silence.

For most of bowling's time fans have been urged to cheer and root in their own fashion, except at certain times. Confusing? Sure. But in reality there are a few rules covering silence at bowling's crucial moments except unwritten ones of courtesy and tradition and under the not too specific rules concerning interference and unsportsmanlike behavior. Ambiguous.

Other major sports, golf and tennis, to name two, have traditionally silent areas, and it is fair to say there are others. It should be noted that bowling, golf and tennis are primarily individual sports on the professional level and most competitors are not on salary, must pay fees and expenses to compete and income is the result of playing better than the other guy or gal.

In football, baseball, basketball, boxing, hockey and soccer, crowds are encouraged to cheer and jeer, and some have cheerleaders to rouse the audience to almost unimaginable heights—and actions. Athletes who prefer the silence feel they should be free of distraction when lining up a putt, serving and shooting a key spare—particularly since they were paying their own freight.

Yet, in college basketball, 18 and 19 year olds, who don't get paid, are asked to shoot crucial foul shots amid the roar of the crowd and the view of all kinds of waving objects, including hands and heads, through the glass backboards.

For many years tradition has called for silence at different points in different spots in different areas. Examples are prior to the approach in bowling, the serve in tennis and putts in golf.

It seems as though the sound of a voice, a cough, a phone ring or the breaking of a twig has the effect of an explosion on the concentration of some participants.

Golfers look menacing into the sky when a jet disturbs a shot process and it has been reported that plane routes were changed to not bother tennis players in action. Many a bowler has almost been destroyed by a baby's cry or the blow of a nose.

Most sports encourage cheering and jeering. Most sports cannot possibly have rules to cover every aspect of silence and officials, judges, referees or tournament directors might have to make judgement calls that would be second guessed over and over again.

There are instances in every sport where the rules, written or unwritten, are pushed and battered.

Silence, as well as unbridled activities, have long been part of every sport—traditional intangibles. Competitors expect certain courtesies, and have received them, on and off the rule book musts and guides.

Spectators seem to be getting more into sports, less controlled, and with the feeling, right or wrong, that their payment or even just their presence, entitles them when to remain silent, not tradition, courtesy or unclear rules.

Strict guidelines on the silence aspect of bowling should always be considered in tournament play, and imparted as many ways as possible.

SHORTSHOTS

A loser is the bowler who insists on telling fellow bowlers what they did wrong after every shot, and end up losing a bowling friend.

A loser is the bowler who knows that all the bad breaks he gets in bowling will be evened out by good breaks, but he's also sure that he won't live that long.

A loser is the tournament bowler who is too busy checking out the average book without checking his checkbook.

A loser is the bowler-golfer who shoots in the 120s in both sports.

A loser is any bowler who can't come up with a new excuse for bad bowling without thinking about it.

A loser is a bowler who suffers a reputation as an easy loser, even if he's a so called good loser.

A loser is the bowler who insists on tight finger and thumb holes, tight bowling shirts and shoes, and then gains 10 pounds.

A loser is the bowler who tells his mate that he is going to a short bowling meeting.

A loser is the person who reported that the results of his survey showed that it doesn't take too much in the way of brains to be a bowler. We took a survey too. It showed that it takes less brains to take surveys than it does to bowl.

CICCONE WINS 16TH REGIONAL

YORK — Joe Ciccone of Buffalo, N.Y., defeated Isaac Kim of Lebanon, Pa., 218-209, to win the PBA Supply/Storm Products Eastern Open at Colony Park Lanes North in York, Pa., Sunday for a $2,500 prize and his 16th career PBA Regional title.

Ciccone, the 2000 PBA Rookie of the Year, led the 20-year-old amateur by 123 pins after Saturday's qualifying and had an opportunity to close out Kim in the 10th frame, but only got five pins on his fill ball to give Kim room to double for the title. Kim, bowling in his first regional finals, failed to capitalize.

In the semifinal round, Ciccone eliminated two-time defending champion Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., 246-190, while Kim defeated Billy Asbury of Odenton, Md., 215-188.

- Chris Warren of Grants Pass, Ore., posted a 9-1 match play record and an 18-game total of 4,023 pins Sunday to win $2,000 and his 40th career PBA Regional title in the PBA Fog City West Open at Classic Lanes in Daly City, Calif., by 28 pins over Keith Laing of Los Angeles. In the companion PBA50 Fog City West Open, Marty Deh of San Jose, Calif., posted a 6-2 match play record and a 16-game total of 3,348 pins to win his second regional title – and first in 20 years – by 67 pins over Marv Sargent of Temecula, Calif.

- Joe Findling of Mesquite, Texas, survived an unconverted 4-9 split in the ninth frame, striking on his first shot in the 10th to defeat Chris Hibbitts II of Fort Worth, Texas, 232-221, for his fourth PBA Regional title Sunday in the 17th annual PBA Killen Southwest Open at Hallmark Lanes.

- The Aug. 16-18 PBA Regional schedule includes the Dave Husted Northwest Open presented by Motiv at Husted's Milwaukie (Ore.) Bowl; the PBA Cap Card Eastern Open presented by Track at Cedar Lanes in Lebanon, Pa.; the PBA Emerald Bowl Southwest Challenge (for non-PBA champions) presented by Bowling Dynamix in Houston, Texas; and the PBA Lefeld Implement Central Classic at Pla-Mor Lanes in Coldwater, Ohio.

PBA Regional competition scheduled for the Aug. 23-25 weekend includes the PBA Bowlerama Lanes Midwest Open in Des Moines, Iowa; the PBA Mil-Ray Foods Eastern Open presented by Ebonite at Brunswick Zone-Deptford, N.J.; the PBA Greenville (Texas) Southwest Open at Shenagananz; the PBA Fayetteville (N.C.) South Open presented by Storm at LaFayette Lanes, and a pair of one-day "reduced entry fee" PBA50 Midwest/Central Regionals at Pro Bowl West in Ft. Wayne, Ind. – the Shark Open presented by bowlinggift.com and the Shark Open #2.

The Labor Day holiday weekend includes the second of six PBA Regional Players Invitational tournaments when Illinois Valley Super Bowl hosts the Midwest Region's top placers in Peru, Ill. The Midwest RPI will be webcast live from start to finish on Xtra Frame. Also on the Labor Day weekend schedule are the West Region's Tony Reyes Memorial Member/Non-Member Doubles presented by Brunswick at Fourth Street Bowl in San Jose, Calif.; the PBA50 Strike Zone Hammer Eastern Open in Pottsville, Pa.; and the PBA and PBA50 Budweiser Victory Lanes South Opens in Mooresville, N.C.

BURBANK — This time of the bowling season is always exciting for me. The winding down of the summer leagues with position weeks and sweepers and then the beginning of the winter season. New team mates perhaps, or a new choice of league altogether.

This is the time for your excitement to take hold, get your team mates lined up and pick the league or leagues that suit you. Pickwick has a number of leagues to fill your needs from serious bowlers to nights or days of just having fun being with friends.

Get a schedule at the front desk or inquire there about signing up. Check out the website and for more detailed help or info, call Janie at ext. 349.

Sunday Night League: (scr) Mike McMahaon 266, Nicole Nelson 195, Dan Linzmeier 734, Julieta Ward 557. (hdcp) Dan Pilgrim 290, Joy Feleo 266, Chas Wiggan 743, Aileen Camcam 699.

Monday 690: (scr) Dave Higgins 235, PN Nale 210, Mat-thew Avanian 628, Glenda Nale 567. (hdcp) Win Kato 247, Ashley Higgins 230, Ken Jones 652, Donna Higgins 621.

Practice League: (scr) Eric Tome 214, Lesley Hansen 189, Jesse Enriquez 501, Chantal Pershing 416. (hdcp) Ace Robson 284, Danielle Pershing 233, Matthew Winslow 717, Kim Burns 629.

Tuesday All Stars: Youth.Handicap scores only. Cooper Hanse 190/333, Christian Gladney 148/282, Katie Gross-tephan 132/247, Lily Raesler 131/203.

Dallas Strikers' Player/Manager Norm Duke Signs No. 2 Rhino Page

PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke, the No. 1 player on the Dal-las Strikers and Strikers' team manager, was the first manager to initiate a re-signing, securing left-hander Rhino Page of Dade City, Fla., to his No. 2 roster position ($15,000). Duke also re-leased last year's No. 4 player Bryon Smith of Roseburg, Ore., and "supplemental pick" Mike Wolfe of New Albany, Ind. Both are now on the "free agent" list and will be eligible to sign with any of the other teams when the free agent signing period opens on Sept. 1.

Motown Muscle re-signs Mike Scroggins

Muscle manager Del Ballard Jr. has announced the re-signing of veteran left-hander Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas, to his team's No. 4 slot ($10,000). Mike Fagan retains the No. 1 posi-tion. Scroggins was No. 3 in last year's Muscle lineup, but has been sidelined since the PBA Tournament of Champions while battling a painful bout with plantar faciitis. Ballard also has re-leased Jesse Buss of Belvidere, Ill.; supplemental pick Brad An-gelo of Lockport, N.Y. (who was acquired in a trade with the New York WTT KingPins for Kelly Kulick), and D.J. Archer of Friendswood, Texas, who replaced Angelo when he withdrew due to injury. The Motown Muscle team is owned by former Pittsburgh Steelers star Jerome Bettis.

BROOKLYN STyLES re-signs, elevates Jason Sterner; Walter Ray returns to fold

STyLES manager Johnny Petraglia has not only re-signed Jas-son Sterner of McDonough, Ga., but elevated last year's No. 5 player to the No. 2 slot ($15,000) in his 2014 lineup after Sterner won his first PBA Tour title and almost claimed a second ear-lier in the 2012-13 season. Petraglia also secured the PBA's most successful player ever, Walter Ray Williams Jr., to the No. 3 slot ($13,000) and released left-hander Ryan Ciminelli of Cheek-towaga, N.Y., and Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y. Sean Rash returns as the STyLES' No. 1 player. The STyLES owner is actor Jesse Williams.

Silver Lake Atom Splitters retain England's Dom Barrett

Atom Splitters manager Mark Baker has re-signed England's Dom Barrett to the No. 4 slot ($11,000) on the team owned by Internet podcast entrepreneur Chris Hardwick. Barrett held the No. 2 position on last year's team. Chris Barnes is Silver Lake's No. 1 player. Baker also released the rest of last year's Atom Splitters roster to free agency: Josh Blanchard of Gilbert, Ariz.; Stuart Williams of England; Nathan Bohr of Wichita, Kan., and supplemental player Jon VanHees of Charlestown, R.I.

New York City WTT KingPins re-sign Norton, Szczerbinski
KingPins manager Carolyn Dorin-Ballard – the only woman manager in the PBA League – has re-signed two-time 2012-13 PBA Tour winner Scott Norton to the No. 2 slot($17,75) on the only team owned by a woman (women's sports legend Billie Jean King). The defending PBA League Elias Cup champions are led by No. 1 player Pete Weber, a PBA Hall of Famer. Dorin-Ballard (a hall of famer herself) also retained former Wichita State col-egiate star John Szczerbinski to the No. 4 slot ($10,500) on her team. Previous team members Tommy Jones, Jack Jurek and Kelly Kulick all will enter free agency on Sept. 1.

Pittsburgh Jack Rabbits keep Allen at No. 3

Continuing the trend in retaining top left-handers, Jack Rab-bits manager Tim Mack has re-signed Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla., to his team's No. 3 slot ($13,000), moving Allen up one spot from last season. Finnish two-handed star Osku Pal-ermaa returns as Pittsburgh's No. 1 player. The Jack Rabbits are owned by Pittsburgh Steelers all-pro linebacker LaMarr Wood-ley, and hold the No. 1 position for the 2014 PBA League player draft.

Waiting in the wings: L.A. X and Philadelphia Hitmen

It's still early in the re-signing period, but thus far L.A. X manager Andrew Cain and Philadelphia Hitmen manager Jason Couch have yet to make a move. Cain's team is owned by Los Angeles Clippers all-star point guard Chris Paul, with Jason Bel-monte as his No. 1 player. Couch's Hitmen are owned by actor-comedian Kevin Hart and his No. 1 player is Bill O'Neill.

PBA PLAYERS TO COMPETE FOR WTBA GOLD MEDALS IN LAS VEGAS

LAS VEGAS — Several PBA members will compete for their respective coun-tries during the World Tenpin Bowling Association World Championships next week at Sunset Station in Las Vegas. The Team USA roster includes Chris Barnes, Mike Fagan, Tommy Jones, Bill O'Neill and John Szczerbinski (along with amateur John Janawicz) on the men's team while the women's roster includes Liz Johnson, Kelly Kulick, Stefanie Nation, Shannon O'Keefe, Missy Par-kin and Shannon Pluhowsky. PBA members listed on in-ternational rosters include Pat-rick Girard and Dan MacLel-land, Canada; Andres Gomez, Colombia; Amleto Monacelli and Ildemaro Ruiz, Venezu-ela; Thomas Larsen and Jes-per Agerbo, Denmark; Stuart Williams, England; Osku Pal-ermaa, Finland; Hafthor Hard-arson, Iceland; Martin Larsen, Sweden; and Jason Belmonte, Australia.
